Vancouver PD Policy Manual

CHIEF'S PREFACE

The Vancouver Police Department's Policy Manual is designed to guide employees of our Department in carrying out their assigned responsibilities. These statements of values, policy and standards shall be considered mandates for all members of the Vancouver Police Department.

It is our collective commitment as a police department to do our jobs in the most professional, ethical, and legal manner while serving the public's interest. This manual is critically important to our overall success.

The content reflects our official position on a range of issues relevant to our purpose and operation. To have and maintain an up-to-date manual is essential to our mission. It is crucial for each member of this Department to read, understand, and accept these policies. Moreover, each employee shares the responsibility to adhere to the provisions of this manual and seek to improve its contents and applicability where necessary. It is important that we work together to keep this manual as a "working" document and an essential resource to be reviewed and referred to on a regular basis.

LAW ENFORCEMENT CODE OF ETHICS

As a law enforcement officer, my fundamental duty is to serve the community; to safeguard lives and property; to protect the innocent against deception, the weak against oppression or intimidation, and the peaceful against violence or disorder; and to respect the Constitutional Rights of all to liberty, equality and justice.

I will keep my private life unsullied as an example to all and will behave in a manner that does not bring discredit to me or to my agency. I will maintain courageous calm in the face of danger, scorn or ridicule; develop self-restraint; and be constantly mindful of the welfare of others. Honest in thought and deed both in my personal and official life, I will be exemplary in obeying the law and the regulations of my Department. Whatever I see or hear of a confidential nature or that is confided to me in my official capacity will be kept ever secret unless revelation is necessary in the performance of my duty.

I will never act officiously or permit personal feelings, prejudices, political beliefs, aspirations, animosities or friendships to influence my decisions. With no compromise for crime and with relentless prosecution of criminals, I will enforce the law courteously and appropriately without fear or favor, malice or ill will, never employing unnecessary force or violence and never accepting gratuities.

I recognize the badge of my office as a symbol of public faith, and I accept it as a public trust to be held so long as I am true to the ethics of Law Enforcement. I will never engage in acts of corruption or bribery, nor will I condone such acts by other police officers. I will cooperate with all legally authorized agencies and their representatives in the pursuit of justice.

I know that I alone am responsible for my own standard of professional performance and will take every reasonable opportunity to enhance and improve my level of knowledge and competence.

I will constantly strive to achieve these objectives and ideals, dedicating myself to my chosen profession . . . Law Enforcement.

Chapter 1 - Law Enforcement Role and Authority

Law Enforcement Authority

100.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

Law enforcement officers are granted the authority to perform their function based on established legal authority. This Department does not tolerate abuse of law enforcement authority.

100.1.1 DEPARTMENT AUTHORITY

The Vancouver Police Department is responsible for law enforcement services in the City of Vancouver.

Chief of Police

The Chief of Police is appointed following the City of Vancouver Municipal Code. The Chief is empowered to assign officers to exercise law enforcement powers and enforce state laws and city ordinances. The Chief also defines the rank and duties of officers, makes promotional appointments, and may take disciplinary action up to and including removing employees for cause.

Accountability and Responsibility

The City of Vancouver is ultimately responsible for the performance of the Department. However, authority is granted to each employee through, or by the virtue of, their commission, position, and/or rank. Employees are responsible for the use of this authority given to them by the laws of the State of Washington and ordinances of the City of Vancouver.

Authority and responsibility may be delegated. However, the ultimate responsibility remains with the delegating authority. Any employee who delegates responsibility will assure that commensurate authority will accompany the responsibility. Responsibility becomes shared due to delegation yet employees are held accountable for their individual actions.

All employees who have had authority delegated to them will be held answerable for the use of authority and likewise be held accountable for the failure to use it. This will be measured through the performance evaluation process.

Supervisors will be held accountable for the performance of the employees under their immediate supervision. Although supervisors may delegate the actual performance of a given task, supervisors cannot rid themselves of the responsibility or accountability for the accomplishment of assigned tasks.

100.2 PEACE OFFICER POWERS

Sworn members of this Department shall be considered peace officers as defined by RCW 9A.04.110(13) and RCW 9A.04.110(15). The authority of any such peace officer to make an arrest without a warrant is enumerated in RCW 10.31.100, and includes:

- (a) When the peace officer has probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a felony shall have the authority to arrest the person without a warrant.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Law Enforcement Authority

- (b) A peace officer may arrest a person without a warrant for committing a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor only when the offense is committed in the presence of an officer, except as provided in RCW 10.31.100.

100.2.1 OTHER AUTHORITY

Sworn members of this department who enter the state of Oregon in order to provide or attempt to provide law enforcement assistance have Oregon peace officer authority within 50 miles of the Washington-Oregon border under the following circumstances (ORS 133.405):

- (a) In response to a request for law enforcement assistance initiated by an Oregon sheriff, constable, marshal, municipal police officer or member of the Oregon State Police.
- (b) In response to a reasonable belief that emergency law enforcement services are necessary for the preservation of life, and a request for services by an Oregon sheriff, constable, marshal, municipal police officer or member of the Oregon State Police for those services is impractical to obtain under the circumstances. The certified police officer shall obtain authorization from an Oregon law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the location where the services were provided as soon as is practicable after the services have been provided.
- (c) For the purpose of assisting an Oregon sheriff, constable, marshal municipal officer or member of the Oregon State Police in providing emergency service in response to criminal activity, traffic accidents emergency incidents or other similar public safety problems, whether or not an Oregon sheriff, constable, marshal, municipal police officer or member of the Oregon State Police is present at the scene of the incident,

Vancouver Police Department officers have no authority to enforce Oregon traffic or motor vehicle laws.

As soon as practicable, officers exercising law enforcement authority in Oregon shall submit any appropriate written reports concerning the incident to the Oregon agency having primary jurisdiction over the area in which the incident occurred.

No officer shall respond outside the City of Vancouver to a request for mutual aid by another law enforcement agency without first being authorized by the on-duty Vancouver Police supervisor.

(See also Policy 101 Mutual Aid, Section 101.1.2 RESPONDING TO A MUTUAL AID REQUEST.)

100.2.2 DEPARTMENT JURISDICTION

The Vancouver Police Department is the agency with primary territorial jurisdiction (RCW 10.93.020) within the Vancouver city limits and has the primary responsibility to conduct all police activity within its borders as defined by federal, state, and local law.

Concurrent Jurisdiction

The City of Vancouver is a city of crossroads. It has interstate highways and state and county roads that cross city boundaries. Direct enforcement actions may be taken by Vancouver Police, Clark County Sheriff, the Washington State Patrol, and federal law enforcement agencies.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Law Enforcement Authority

A limited number of other agencies are given authority by the Chief of Police to act in a full or limited law enforcement capacity within the City. Chiefs and Sheriffs from other jurisdictions have also given consent to Vancouver Officers to exercise law enforcement authority in their jurisdictions. A list of these agencies receiving consent from Vancouver and giving consent to Vancouver is maintained by the City Attorney's Office. Original documents of consent are maintained in the office of the Police Legal Advisor.

Collisions on roads and streets within the corporate limits are investigated by the Vancouver Police Department unless it is an on-view situation by another agency. The exception to this applies to collisions on limited access highways including freeway on and off ramps to and from the stop bars. Collisions occurring within these areas are investigated by the Washington State Patrol.

Questions Regarding Jurisdiction

In any situation where a question arises concerning jurisdiction with another agency, the involved officer will make every effort to resolve the matter in the most professional manner possible. In situations where no agreeable solution is reached, a supervisor will review the situation for resolution. If the officer has any doubt as whether to take a report or not, in the interest of service to the public, the officer should take the report.

100.3 CONSTITUTIONAL REQUIREMENTS

All employees shall observe and comply with every person's clearly established rights under the United States and State of Washington Constitutions.

Mutual Aid

101.1 MUTUAL AID

To provide emergency services when there is a depletion of Department resources, the Department has entered into Mutual Aid agreements with adjoining jurisdictions. The Department's legal advisor maintains a list of all mutual aid agreements.

Officers involved in any exercise of police authority outside the city of Vancouver are bound by Vancouver Police Department policies, procedures, and regulations that limit Department officers in their exercise of the authority given by the Washington Mutual Aid Peace Officer Powers Act.

The Washington Mutual Aid Peace Officers Powers Act gives general authority to Washington Peace Officers who possess a certificate of basic law enforcement training or a certificate of equivalency authority to enforce state traffic or criminal laws throughout the state.

101.1.1 REQUESTING MUTUAL AID

1. In situations that require mutual aid assistance, any on-duty Vancouver Police supervisor may request assistance from a neighboring agency.
2. The request may be made either by direct contact with the agency or through CRESA.
3. Outside personnel responding to a Vancouver Police Department request will be requested to report to the Vancouver Police supervisor in charge of the incident (Incident Commander).
4. Maintaining radio communications between Vancouver Police and other responding agencies will be coordinated by CRESA.
5. If enforcement action is taken, the Vancouver Police supervisor will ensure appropriate documentation and reporting of the names and agencies of officers that responded to a mutual aid request. Before the end of the shift in which aid was received, the supervisor shall report the mutual aid incident through the chain of command. The Vancouver Police supervisor will ensure police reports are completed prior to the end of the shift, or other specified time, documenting the actions taken by responding agency officers or deputies.

101.1.2 RESPONDING TO A MUTUAL AID REQUEST

1. No officer shall respond outside the City of Vancouver to a request for mutual aid by another law enforcement agency without first being authorized by the on-duty Vancouver Police supervisor.
2. The supervisor shall designate how many (if any) units will be sent to provide mutual aid.
3. A supervisor shall also respond to monitor the mutual aid being provided and to ensure direct supervision of Vancouver Police personnel. If a supervisor is not available, a supervisor or Command officer will designate one of the responding officers as a "lead" officer.
4. The Vancouver Police supervisor will ensure any necessary reports are provided to the agency requesting mutual aid by the end of the shift, or other specified time, in which the aid was provided.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Mutual Aid

Before the end of the shift in which aid was provided, the supervisor shall report the mutual aid incident through the chain of command.

5. When the requesting agency does not border the city of Vancouver, officers shall not respond without receiving a specific request from the requesting agency and shall not respond without approval from a Vancouver Police supervisor.

6. If not requested at the mutual aid incident, officers should prepare to assist other agencies that will have diminished resource capabilities due to its support of the incident.

101.1.3 STATE OR NATIONAL GUARD ASSISTANCE

Civil emergency, whether natural or manmade, may require the assistance of the National Guard. Should such circumstances arise, National Guard resources may be activated in accordance with the State Emergency Management Statute (RCW 38.52.070).

Prior to requesting National Guard assistance, a declaration of civil emergency shall be issued pursuant to Vancouver Municipal Code Section 2.12.030.

Upon written proclamation of a state of emergency, the City of Vancouver's Emergency Preparedness Director will contact the Clark County Emergency Management Council, which will in turn coordinate the activation of the National Guard through the Governor's Office of the State of Washington. These procedures are outlined in the Washington State Comprehensive Emergency Management Plan maintained by the City's Emergency Preparedness Director.

101.1.4 COMPENSATION

Compensation for expenditures incurred by agencies responding to a mutual aid request from Vancouver Police, if not previously arranged, shall be decided through an administrative review of the incident after the fact.

The Vancouver Police Legal Advisor and Administrative staff shall periodically review this policy and make changes as necessary.

Law Enforcement Certification

102.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

All sworn officers employed by the Vancouver Police Department shall receive certification by the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission prior to assuming law enforcement duties and responsibilities, and shall begin attending an approved academy within the first six months of employment, unless the basic training requirement is otherwise waived or extended by the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission. (RCW 43.101.095(1); RCW 43.101.200(1)).

Exercise of police authority during the above 10 incidents is limited to that which is necessary to effectively perform the requested task.

103.2 ON-VIEW INCIDENTS

Response by uniformed officers in marked units and on-duty detectives in civilian clothing and in unmarked vehicles to an on-view incident occurring outside the city of Vancouver in jurisdictions which letters of full consent do exist is limited to situations that:

Vancouver Police Department

2. Place the officer in a position to affect the arrest and/or prevent the escape of a person who is known by the officer to have committed a dangerous felony, when not securing the person's immediate arrest would result in an unacceptable risk to the public safety.

An officer may, but has no duty to, observe the incident until that jurisdiction arrives, communicate by radio with responding units, protect the scene, and render necessary emergency care (i.e., accident scenes).

Specialty units (i.e., K-9, Bomb Squad) will not respond, except when assisting VPD on-duty officers in situations specified above.

103.4 OFF-DUTY INVOLVEMENT IN JURISDICTION OF CONSENT/NON CONSENT

Off-duty police officers shall use discretion when becoming involved in any law enforcement action. Off-duty officers will not become involved unless the situation involves public or personal safety, or a life threatening issue (refer to Policy 384 - Off-Duty Law Enforcement Actions).

103.5 REPORTING USE OF AUTHORITY

RCW 10.93.030 requires an officer exercising the powers authorized above shall report such action in a timely manner, after the fact, to the law enforcement agency with primary territorial jurisdiction and shall be subject to any reasonable reporting procedure which may be established by such agency.

Appeal Process for Firearms Transfer

218.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

In accordance with state and federal regulations, law enforcement agencies shall develop a procedure whereby denied persons may request the reason for the denial from the agency that conducted the National Instant Criminal Background Check (NICS). Persons denied a firearm transfer or a Concealed Pistol License (CPL) must be made aware of the denying agency's appeal process.

218.2 DENIAL FACTORS

If a person is denied the purchase or transfer of a firearm or denied the issuance or renewal of a CPL, he/she can appeal the denial through the denying agency and request the reason for the denial.

The following are the 18 U.S. Code § 922 federal prohibitors for which an agency can deny an individual a transfer of a firearm or CPL:

- a. Section 922(g)(1) Felony Conviction
- b. Section 922(g)(2) Active Criminal Warrant
- c. Section 922(g)(3) Use of Controlled Substance
- d. Section 922(g)(4) Mental Health
- e. Section 922(g)(5) Illegal/Unlawful Alien
- f. Section 922(g)(6) Dishonorable Discharge
- g. Section 922(g)(7) Renounced Citizenship
- h. Section 922(g)(8) Protection Order
- i. Section 922(g)(9) Misdemeanor Crime of Domestic Violence
- j. Section 922(g)(n) Indictment/Information

The denied individual may also appeal through the NICS Section. If the denied individual chooses to appeal through the NICS Section, the denying agency may refer the denied individual to www.fbi.gov/nics-appeals.

218.3 DEPARTMENTAL APPEAL PROCEDURE

The following steps must be followed by the Department in order to resolve the denial of the purchase/transfer of a firearm or issuance/renewal of a CPL.

218.3.1 INFORM DENIED PERSON

Inform the denied individual of the existence of a state or federal prohibitor. No further information can be provided until identity is verified.

Appeal Process for Firearms Transfer

218.3.2 VERIFY IDENTITY OF INDIVIDUAL

1. If the individual is denied based on a federal or state prohibitor, verify identity by reviewing a valid government issued photo identification such as a driver's license or passport.

Or

2. For prohibitors that are fingerprint based (example, felony conviction), it is strongly recommended that identity be verified by submitting fingerprints.

a. If the fingerprint based prohibitor is within Washington State, fingerprint cards may be submitted to the Washington State Patrol via mail to:

Background Check Unit

Washington State Patrol

PO Box 42633

Olympia, WA 98504

b. The reason fingerprinted must state "RECORD REVIEW NICS APPEAL" and there is a fee associated with this request. Electronic fingerprinting is not available for these requests.

c. There is no process for submitting fingerprints for out-of-state fingerprint based prohibitors. In these cases, appellants should be referred to the out-of-state law enforcement agency holding the denying record to address out-of-state prohibitors.

218.3.3 RELEASING DENIAL INFORMATION

1. After identity is verified, provide the reason for the denial to the appellant indicating the federal or state statute the individual was denied under. The denying agency must respond to the appeal request within 5 business days and/or advise of a reasonable timeline of when a determination will be prepared.

2. The denying agency can share the following information after identity is verified:

a. FBI/SID number

b. Reason for denial

c. Date of arrest

d. Offense

e. Arresting agency and contact information

Attached to the appendix are the template denial letters provided by the FBI. The NICS Appeal Letter templates can be modified to reflect our Department's response.

218.4 UNRESOLVED DENIAL

If the denying agency is unable to resolve the appeal, the denying agency will notify the appellant and provide the name and address of the agency that originated the document containing the information upon which the denial was based.

If the denying agency determines the appellant is not the subject of record via fingerprint comparison, the appellant may be directed to www.fbi.gov/nics-appeals to pursue the Voluntary Appeal File (VAF) options.

Chapter 3 - General Operations

Use of Force and Restraints

300.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

It is the fundamental duty of law enforcement to preserve and protect all human life, and the Vancouver Police Department strives to protect the sanctity of life during the performance of our duties. Officers shall respect and uphold the dignity of all persons and use their authority in a bias-free manner.

This policy provides guidelines on the use of force. While there is no way to specify the exact amount or type of force to be applied in any situation, every officer is expected to use these guidelines to make such decisions in a professional and objectively reasonable manner. The proper use of force is essential to ensure impartial policing and build trust in the community. While there are circumstances where individuals will not comply with the law unless compelled or controlled by officers through the use of force, officers must remain mindful that they derive their authority from the community and that unreasonable force degrades the legitimacy of that authority.

Law enforcement encounters rapidly evolve. Thus, officers must continuously assess the necessity and effectiveness of their actions, including their tactical positioning, to decrease the likelihood of needing to use physical force.

An officer may not use any force tactics prohibited by this policy, or otherwise by law, except to protect his or her life or the life of another person from an imminent threat (RCW 10.120.020).

The Vancouver Police Department adheres to all applicable federal and state laws regarding use of force.

300.1.1 DEFINITIONS

Definitions related to this policy include:

Auxiliary Restraint Devices: includes transport belts, waist or belly chains, transportation chains, leg irons and other similar devices. Auxiliary restraint devices are intended for use during longer-term restraint or transportation.

Choke Hold: The intentional application of direct pressure to a person's trachea or windpipe for the purpose of restricting another person's airway (RCW 10.116.020).

Communication Disability -is defined as a person with a disability (as defined by the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12102(2); 28 C.F.R. § 35.104) that impacts their ability to communicate.

Deadly force: The intentional application of force through the use of firearms or any other means reasonably likely to cause death or serious physical injury (RCW 9A.16.020).

De-escalation tactics: refers to actions used by a peace officer that are intended to minimize the likelihood of the need to use force during an incident. Depending on the circumstances, "de-escalation tactics" may include, but are not limited to (RCW 10.120.020):

- Using clear instructions and verbal persuasion

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Use of Force and Restraints

- Attempting to slow down or stabilize the situation so that more time, options, and resources are available to resolve the incident
- Creating physical distance by employing tactical repositioning to maintain the benefit of time, distance, and cover, which may include placing barriers or using existing structures to provide a shield or other protection between officers and a person
- When there are multiple officers, designating one officer to communicate in order to avoid competing commands
- Requesting and using available support and resources, such as a crisis intervention team, a designated crisis responder or other behavioral health professional, or back-up officers.
- Command presence
- Availability and presence of less lethal tools
- Disengagement if there is no threat of imminent harm and no crime has been committed, is being committed or is about to be committed

Exigent circumstances: Those circumstances that would cause a reasonable person to believe that a particular action is necessary to prevent physical harm to an individual, the destruction of relevant evidence, the escape of a suspect, or some other consequence improperly frustrating legitimate law enforcement efforts.

Excessive Force: Force that exceeds the force permitted by law or policy of the witnessing officer's agency. (RCW 10.93.190).

Feasible: Reasonably capable of being done or carried out to achieve the arrest or lawful objective without increasing risk of harm to the officer or another person.

Firearm: A weapon or device from which a projectile or projectiles may be fired by an explosive such as gunpowder. (RCW 9.41.010)

Immediate threat of serious physical injury or death: Based on the totality of circumstances, it is objectively reasonable to believe that a person has the present and apparent ability, opportunity and intent to immediately cause death or serious bodily injury to the peace officer or another person (RCW 10.120.020).

Less lethal alternatives: include, but are not limited to, verbal warnings, de-escalation tactics, conducted energy weapons, devices that deploy oleoresin capsicum (OC), capsaicinoids (which are in PepperBall munitions), batons, and beanbag rounds.

Medical Assistance / Aid: to provide or facilitate first aid such that it is rendered at the earliest safe opportunity to injured persons at a scene controlled by law enforcement. May also consist of examination by fire personnel, EMT, paramedics, hospital staff or medical staff at the jail.

Necessary: means that, under the totality of the circumstances, a reasonably effective alternative to the use of physical force or deadly force does not appear to exist, and the type and amount of

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Use of Force and Restraints physical force or deadly force used is a reasonable and proportional response to effect the legal purpose intended or to protect against the threat posed to the officer or others (RCW 10.120.010).

Neck restraint: Any vascular neck restraint or similar restraint, hold, or other tactic in which pressure is applied to the neck for the purpose of constricting blood flow (RCW 10.116.020).

Objectively reasonable: The determination that the necessity for using force and the level of force used is based upon the officer's evaluation of the situation in light of the totality of the circumstances known to the officer at the time the force is used and upon what a reasonable officer would use under the same or similar situations.

Peace Officer: includes any general authority Washington peace officer, limited authority Washington peace officer, and specially commissioned Washington peace officer (RCW 10.120.010).

Physical Force: means any act reasonably likely to cause physical pain or injury or any other act exerted upon a person's body to compel, control, constrain, or restrain the person's movement. "Physical force" does not include pat-downs, incidental touching, verbal commands, or compliant handcuffing where there is no physical pain or injury. (RCW 10.120.010)

Probable Cause: Probable cause to arrest exists when the facts and circumstances would convince a reasonable officer that he or she has reasonable grounds to believe that a suspect has committed or is committing a crime based on articulable and specific circumstances that support the conclusion; it is an objective, "reasonable officer" standard based on the totality of the circumstances considering the time, place, and other circumstances, including the officer's experience and training. It is a higher standard than "reasonable suspicion" and a lower standard than either the (1) "proof beyond a reasonable doubt" standard for criminal prosecutions, or (2) the "preponderance" standard that is used to resolve fact questions in civil lawsuits.

Proportional: To be proportional, the level of force applied must reflect the totality of circumstances surrounding the situation at hand, including but not limited to, the seriousness of the law enforcement objective that is being served, including the nature and immediacy of any threats posed to officers and others. Officers must rely on training, experience, and assessment of the situation to decide an appropriate level of force to be applied. Reasonable and sound judgment will dictate the force option to be employed. Proportional force does not require officers to use the same type or amount of force as the subject. The more immediate the threat and the more likely that the threat will result in death or serious physical injury, the greater the level of force that may be proportional, objectively reasonable, and necessary to counter it. The threat or resistance may change over the course of the incident.

Recovery Position: A position of reasonable comfort for conscious persons. Unconscious persons should be laid on their left or right side depending on any obvious signs of injury or deformities. The recovery position affords the subject the best protection from airway occlusion or aspiration of fluids into the lungs.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Use of Force and Restraints

Restraint devices: Mechanical device including but not limited to: Handcuffs, plastic ties, ankle / leg restraints, transport belts, leg irons and other similar devices.

Spit restraint device: a temporary protective device designed to prevent the wearer from biting and/or transferring or transmitting fluids (saliva and mucous) to others.

Totality of the circumstances: means all facts known to the peace officer, leading up to, and at the time of, the use of force, and includes the actions of the person against whom the peace officer uses such force, and the actions of the peace officer (RCW 10.120.010).

Wrongdoing: conduct that is contrary to law or contrary to the policies of the witnessing officer's agency, provided that the conduct is not de minimus or technical in nature. (RCW 10.93.190).

Vehicle Tactics include the following:

PIT (Pursuit Immobilization Technique): A controlled and trained forced rotational contact of a suspect vehicle. Consideration must be given if conducting a PIT over 40 MPH due to increased probability of vehicle damage or occupant injury. The use of a PIT is not a collision and is a reportable use of force by the Department for data collection and training purposes.

Ramming (Vehicle-to-Vehicle Striking): The intentional use of a vehicle to strike another vehicle for the purpose of interrupting or incapacitating that vehicle. Ramming is considered a reportable use of force pursuant to RCW 10.118.030.

PIN (Vehicle-to-Vehicle Contact, Non-Striking): The intentional contact between vehicles designed to guide or prevent movement of a vehicle, but without significant impact and not reasonably likely to cause injury. A vehicle pin itself is not a use of force, is not a collision and is documented in the officers report.

Tire Deflation Device: A device designed to be placed or deployed under the tire or tires of a stationary or moving vehicle and are designed to slowly deflate the tires of a moving vehicle. Use of a tire deflation device itself is not a use of force and is documented in the officers report.

300.2 PERMISSIBLE USE OF FORCE

Pursuant RCW 10.120.020 and this policy, an officer may use physical force against a person to the extent necessary to:

- A. Protect against an imminent threat of bodily injury to the peace officer, another person, or the person against whom force is being used;

300.3 REASONABLE CARE CONSIDERATIONS

Pursuant RCW 10.120.020 and this policy, officers shall:

1. Use reasonable care when determining whether to use physical force or deadly force and when using any physical force or deadly force against another person.
2. When feasible, identify themselves as police officers if not in a reasonably identifiable police uniform.
3. Give a verbal warning if time, safety, and circumstances permit.
4. When possible, use all de-escalation tactics that are available and appropriate under the circumstances before using physical force.
5. Consider the characteristics and conditions of a person for the purposes of determining whether to use force against that person and, if force is necessary, determining the appropriate and least amount of force possible to effect a lawful purpose. Such characteristics and conditions may include:
 - whether the person is visibly pregnant or claims to be pregnant,
 - is known to be a minor, objectively appears to be a minor or states that they are a minor,

Vancouver Police Department

300.4 CHOKEHOLDS / NECK RESTRAINTS / HOG-TYING

1. Chokeholds and Neck Restraints are prohibited pursuant RCW 10.116.020. Known inadvertent contact with a subject's neck during the application of a head control tactic, or other control technique which results in momentary contact with the neck of a subject without the risk or intention of restricting the flow of blood or oxygen is not a choke hold or neck restraint.
2. "Hog-tie" or "hog-tying" means fastening together bound or restrained ankles to bound or restrained wrists and is prohibited.

300.5 DUTY TO INTERVENE

Pursuant RCW 10.93.190, any identifiable on-duty officer who witnesses another peace officer engaging or attempting to engage in the use of excessive force against another person shall intervene when in a position to do so to end the use of excessive force or attempted use of excessive force, or to prevent the further use of excessive force. The intervening officer will report the incident to a Department supervisor as soon as feasible. The supervisor shall take into consideration the totality of the circumstances when determining if the use of force was excessive or within policy.

300.6 SHOOTING UPON A MOVING VEHICLE

Pursuant RCW 10.116.060, an officer may not fire a weapon upon a moving vehicle unless necessary to protect against an imminent threat of serious physical harm resulting from the operator's or a passenger's use of a deadly weapon. For the purposes of this subsection, a vehicle is not considered a deadly weapon unless the operator is using the vehicle as a deadly weapon and no other reasonable means to avoid potential serious harm are immediately available to the officer.

Vancouver Police Department

Use of Force and Restraints

300.7 MEDICAL CONSIDERATIONS FOLLOWING USE OF FORCE

1. Recognizing the urgency of providing medical assistance / aid and the importance of preserving human life following a use of force, officers will, when safe and feasible, evaluate the subject for injuries, request medical aid if needed or if requested by anyone, and render or facilitate appropriate medical aid within their training as soon as reasonably possible, unless aid is declined.
2. Persons who have been sprayed with or otherwise affected by the use of OC or Pepper Ball munitions should be provided or facilitated medical assistance / aid at the scene or transported to the hospital for evaluation, if necessary.
3. All persons who have been struck by a Less Lethal Device projectile or Pepper Ball munitions should be provided or facilitated medical assistance / aid at the scene or transported to the hospital for evaluation, if necessary.
4. Only personnel qualified to provide medical assistance / aid may remove a CEW probe that has penetrated a person's skin. Probes in areas of a person's body that cannot be safely removed should be removed at a medical care facility.
5. Officers will render medical assistance / aid within the scope of their training unless aid is declined.
6. Consent will be assumed for unconscious subjects or subjects incapable of providing consent.
7. Consistent with training, officers shall take the following actions to reduce the risk of injury;
 - (a) Prone subjects will be placed in a recovery position as soon as safe and feasible.
 - (b) Officers will not put unreasonably prolonged pressure on the chest, neck or back, including by sitting, kneeling, or standing.
8. Injured persons and restrained persons shall be reasonably monitored while in law enforcement custody.

300.8 FIREARMS

Officers must use firearms in accordance with Department training and policy. Officers are only permitted to point or discharge a firearm at a person in situations when it is objectively reasonable under the totality of the circumstances.

300.9 LESS LETHAL DEVICES

This section addresses the use and deployment of less lethal devices and tools that are generally available to sworn Department employees.

Incidents in which a person is shot at with a firearm, is injured or dies as the result of an officer-involved shooting or dies as a result of other action of an officer is covered in Department policy regarding Officer Involved Shootings and Deaths.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Use of Force and Restraints

Chemical munitions (Tear gas as defined in RCW 10.116.030(4)(d)) for a riot, barricaded subject or hostage situation used by MFF or SWAT are covered by the SWAT Manual and Special Occurrences Manual. Canine deployments are covered in Department policy regarding Canines.

The following Less Lethal force devices are governed by this policy section:

- TASER / Conducted Energy Weapon (CEW)
- Impact weapons, less lethal launchers
- Oleoresin Capsicum (OC) spray

The Department recognizes that less-lethal devices are used to interrupt a subject's threatening behavior so that officers may take physical control of the subject with less risk of injury to the subject or officer than posed by greater force applications and that less lethal devices alone cannot be expected to render a subject harmless.

Support officers should be prepared to take immediate action to exploit the brief opportunity created by the less lethal device and take control of the subject if safe to do so.

1. Circumstances appropriate for less lethal device deployment include, but are not limited to, situations in which the subject has demonstrated, by words or action, an intention to be violent or to physically resist arrest or reasonably appears to present the potential to injure officers, themselves or others or engaged in riotous behavior as defined in RCW 9A.84.010.
2. Only officers who have successfully completed department-approved training in the use of less lethal devices are authorized to carry and use them when it is reasonable to do so based on the totality of the circumstances.
3. The use of less lethal devices should be consistent with current Departmental training.
4. Officers will only carry less lethal devices that have been approved by the department and that the officer has been properly trained to use; use of improvised weapons may be permissible under exigent circumstances. The use of improvised weapons will be subject to the same standards as approved weapons/devices set forth in this policy.
5. Uniformed officers are required to carry at least one less lethal device.

300.9.1 TASER / CONDUCTED ENERGY WEAPON (CEW)

1. Officers, Corporals and Sergeants in patrol, NRT, SRO, Traffic, SWAT and Canine will be issued and will carry a CEW, in a holster set up for a support hand draw, while on duty except that a Lieutenant, or above, may exempt officers in their command from carrying the CEW.
2. Deployed probes should be disposed in a sharps container, except when retained as evidence.
3. Standards of use:
 - (a) Officers should avoid intentionally targeting areas such as the head, neck, chest or genitals.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Use of Force and Restraints

- (b) Officers should not intentionally deploy multiple CEW's at the same person, unless the first deployed CEW clearly fails.
 - (c) Drive stun mode should only be used when necessary to complete the incapacitation circuit where only one probe is attached to the person, where both probes attached in close proximity, or when no other less lethal options are available and appropriate.
 - (d) Each cycle, deployment, or trigger pull should be reasonable and necessary based on the totality of the circumstances known to the officer at the time.
 - (e) Officers should assume if they have to use a CEW three times against a person and the person continues to aggress, the CEW may not be effective against that person and the officer should consider other options.
4. Restricted Uses. Unless the use or application of the taser would be necessary to protect against a threat posed to the officer or others, a CEW should not be used in the following circumstances:
- (a) On a person who is fleeing the scene, absent other factors.
 - (b) On a person who is handcuffed or otherwise restrained.
 - (c) On a person who is situated on an elevated surface, which if the person were to fall would reasonably cause serious physical injury or death.
 - (d) On an operator in physical control of a vehicle in motion, including automobiles, trucks, motorcycles, ATVs, bicycles, and scooters.
 - (e) In any environment where an officer knows or has reason to believe that a potentially flammable, volatile, or explosive material is present that might be ignited by an open spark, including but not limited to OC spray with a volatile propellant, gasoline, natural gas, or propane.
 - (f) On any person who appears to be pregnant.

300.9.2 LESS LETHAL LAUNCHER, IMPACT MUNITIONS (40MM AND PEPPERBALL)

- 1. Qualified officers may sign out or be issued a less lethal launcher, and may carry the less lethal launcher while on duty.
- 2. Only Department approved munitions shall be carried and deployed.
- 3. When feasible, an officer about to discharge a less lethal launcher should advise other officers at the scene prior to the discharge.
- 4. 40mm - Officers shall avoid intentionally targeting areas such as the head, neck, chest or genitals unless the force is reasonable.
- 5. 40mm - Officers shall assess the effectiveness of each round deployed at another person.
- 6. PepperBall - Officers shall avoid intentionally targeting the head, neck, or genitals unless the force is reasonable.

When reviewing a report involving a use of physical force, supervisors should do so for the purpose of ensuring compliance with policy and to address any training issues. When it is determined by the supervisor or the Training Unit that an employee could benefit from additional training related to a use of force incident, the additional training will be organized between the employee's supervisor and the Training Unit and should be completed in a timely manner.

300.13 RESTRAINTS

- (b) Restraint devices may be carried and used by officers only if they have been issued by the Department or approved for use by the Training Unit.
- (c) Officers who have successfully completed Department approved training, or equivalent, on the use of restraint devices are authorized to use them.

The purpose of this policy is to establish policy and procedures for the investigation of an incident in which a person is shot at, injured or dies as the result of an officer-involved shooting or dies as a result of other action of an officer.

This policy shall be consistent with the requirements set forth in the current collective bargaining agreements with the Vancouver Police Officers' Guild (VPOG) and Vancouver Command Guild (VCG). In the event of any inconsistency between this policy and the collective bargaining agreements with the Guilds, the agreement shall control.

309.2 POLICY

The policy of the Vancouver Police Department is to ensure officer-involved shootings and deaths are investigated in a thorough, fair and impartial manner and one which ensures public trust in the Department. All investigations into officer-involved shootings and deaths shall be conducted by the Southwest Washington Independent Investigative Response (SWIIR) Team.

See attached Involved Shooting and Death Manual for further.

309.3 DEFINITIONS

2. Identification and contact information for witnesses to the incident
3. Photographs and other methods of documenting the location of physical evidence and location/perspective of witnesses

Independent investigative team (IIT) - A team of qualified and certified peace officer investigators, civilian crime scene specialists, and at least two non-law enforcement community representatives who operate completely independent of any involved agency to conduct investigations of police deadly force incidents. An IIT is created when multiple law enforcement agencies enter into a written agreement to investigate police use of deadly force incidents in their geographical regions. A single law enforcement agency may fulfill the independent investigative function provided it is not the involved agency.

Involved agency - The agency that employs or supervises the officer(s) who used deadly force. There can be more than one "involved agency".

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Officer Involved Shootings and Deaths

Involved Officer - An officer of the Vancouver Police Department who uses deadly force or whose action(s) cause substantial or great bodily harm to, or the death of, another.

309.4 TYPES OF INVESTIGATIONS

- A criminal investigation of the incident.
- An administrative investigation as to policy compliance by involved officers.
- A civil investigation to determine potential liability.

309.5 CONTROL OF INVESTIGATIONS

Investigations involving a use of deadly force will be investigated by the Southwest Washington Independent Investigative Response (SWIIR) Team. Members of the "involved agency" will not be involved in this type of investigation.

309.5.1 CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION OF INCIDENT(S)

The SWIIR Team Commander will have decision-making authority as to whether the SWIIR Team will investigate associated crimes involved in the incident that led to the use of force. If the SWIIR Team Commander decides not to have associated crimes fall under the SWIIR Team investigation, the agency of jurisdiction will have the investigative authority.

309.5.2 INVESTIGATION OF OFFICER ACTIONS

The control of the investigation into the officer-involved deadly force incident will be determined in accordance with the standards and procedures set forth in the RCW, respective WAC's, Department policies, individual Constitutional rights and associated collective bargaining agreements. When an officer from this Department is involved, the criminal investigation will be handled pursuant to subsection 309.5 above.

Prior to obtaining a compelled Public Safety Statement, supervisors should first attempt to obtain the relevant public safety information from other credible sources to include witness officers or civilian witnesses. If a supervisor can obtain the relevant information in a timely manner, consistent with any threats to public safety (and preservation of evidence), then he/she does not need to compel a Public Safety Statement from the involved officer.
3. If the Supervisor obtains a Public Safety Statement, he/she will not provide the compelled information to any person assigned to the IIT. He/She will place the form into VPD Evidence and write a report consistent with the procedures manual.

See attached: Public Safety Statement form sufficient information for related criminal reports to facilitate the apprehension and prosecution of those individuals.

Vancouver Police Department

3. While the involved officer may write a police report, it is generally recommended that such reports be completed by assigned investigators, who should interview all involved officers as victims/witnesses. Since the purpose of these reports will be to facilitate criminal prosecution, statements of involved officers should focus on evidence to establish the elements of criminal activities by suspects. Care should be taken not to duplicate information provided by involved officers in other reports.

- (a) Nothing in this section shall be construed to deprive an involved officer of the right to consult with legal counsel prior to completing any such criminal report or criminal interview.
- (b) Reports related to the prosecution of criminal suspects will be processed according to normal procedures, but should also be included for reference in the investigation of the officer-involved shooting or death.

b) Discussions with licensed attorneys will be considered privileged as attorney-client communications.

c) Discussions with agency representatives/employee groups will be privileged only as to the discussion of union information.

d) A licensed psychologist shall be provided by the Department to each involved Department officer. A licensed psychologist may also be provided to any other affected Department members upon request.

309.6.3 CRITICAL INCIDENT LEAVE

Each involved Department officer shall be given reasonable paid critical incident leave following an officer-involved shooting or death. This leave should include all premium pays and shift differential received prior to the incident. Such leave shall be at the direction of the Office of the Chief. It shall be the responsibility of the Shift Sergeant, or the employee's supervisor if at another rank, to make schedule adjustments to accommodate such leave (See also Vancouver Command Guild contract or Vancouver Police Officer Guild contract).

309.7 CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION

Personnel will ensure the following actions occur during an OIS/Use of Deadly Force incident.

- (a) Involved personnel and first responders will render the scene safe and provide or facilitate life-saving first aid to any injured persons.
- (b) Supervisors will obtain and provide any information regarding imminent threats to the public or other officers (consistent with the provisions provided in this policy-see 309.6.1a) - Public Safety Statements)
- (c) Next, personnel will protect and preserve the crime scene to include identifying any potential witnesses to the use of force incident and notify the SWIIR Team (this may be accomplished by contacting the MCU Supervisor).
 1. Care should be taken to preserve the integrity of any physical evidence present on the involved officer's equipment or clothing, such as blood or fingerprints, until investigators or lab personnel can properly retrieve it.
- (d) The involved agency (VPD) will relinquish control of the scene to SWIIR Team personnel once the SWIIRT has the resources needed to properly conduct its investigation.

309.7.1 WITNESS IDENTIFICATION AND INTERVIEWS

Because potential witnesses to an officer-involved shooting or death may become unavailable, or the integrity of their statements compromised with passage of time, a supervisor should take reasonable steps to promptly coordinate investigators to utilize available law enforcement personnel for the following:

- (a) Identification of all persons present at the scene and in the immediate area.
 1. When feasible, a recorded statement should be obtained from eye witnesses as well as those persons who claim not to have witnessed the incident but who were present at the time it occurred.
 2. Any potential witness who is unwilling or unable to remain available for a formal interview should not be detained absent reasonable suspicion to detain or probable cause to arrest. Without detaining the individual for the sole purpose of identification, attempts to identify the witness prior to his/her departure should be made whenever feasible.

Officer Involved Shootings and Deaths

- (b) Witnesses who are willing to provide a formal interview should be asked to meet at a suitable location where SWIIR Team investigators may obtain a recorded statement. Such witnesses, if willing, may be transported by a member of the Department. Consent should be obtained prior to transporting a witness.
- (c) Prompt contact with the suspect's known family and associates to obtain any available and untainted background information about the suspect's activities and state of mind prior to the incident will normally be done by SWIIR Team detectives, or at the direction of the SWIIR Team Commander or Supervisor unless exigent circumstances exist.

309.7.2 REPORTS

All related reports, except administrative reports, will be forwarded to the designated Investigations supervisor for approval. Privileged reports shall be maintained exclusively by members who are authorized such access. Administrative reports will be forwarded to the appropriate Division Commander. The Investigations Unit supervisor or designee will ensure all investigative reports prepared by VPD personnel are disseminated to the SWIIRT, or Prosecutor's Office.

The County Prosecuting Attorney's Office, or their designee, is responsible for the review and final determination of the criminal investigation into the circumstances of any officer-involved shooting or death.

309.8 ADMINISTRATIVE INVESTIGATION

In addition to all other investigations associated with an officer-involved shooting or death, this Department will conduct an internal administrative investigation of involved Department officers to determine conformance with Department policy. This investigation will be conducted under the supervision of the Professional Standards Unit in accordance with current policy, applicable laws and respective collective bargaining agreements.

309.9 CIVIL LIABILITY RESPONSE

Members of this Department may be assigned to work exclusively under the direction of the legal counsel for the Department to assist in the preparation of materials deemed necessary in anticipation of potential civil litigation.

All materials generated in this capacity shall be considered attorney work product and may not be used for any other purpose. The civil liability response is not intended to interfere with any other investigation but shall be given reasonable access to all other investigations.

309.10 AUDIO AND VIDEO RECORDINGS

Any officer involved in a shooting or death may be permitted to review available video or audio recordings prior to providing a recorded statement or completing reports.

Upon request, non-law enforcement witnesses who are able to verify their presence and their ability to contemporaneously perceive events at the scene of an incident may also be permitted to review available video or audio recordings with the approval of assigned investigators or a supervisor.

Video or audio recordings of an incident should generally not be publicly released during an ongoing investigation without consulting the SWIIRT Commander, with agreement from the Prosecuting Attorney, City Attorney's Office and the Office of the Chief, as appropriate. This shall not preclude the release of BWC videos at the discretion of the Chief of Police or designee pursuant VPD policy.

309.11 DEBRIEFING

Following an officer-involved shooting or death, the Vancouver Police Department should conduct a critical incident stress debriefing.

309.11.1 CRITICAL INCIDENT STRESS DEBRIEFING

The Critical Incident Stress Debriefing is a structured group discussion designed to mitigate or resolve the psychological distress associated with a critical incident. The process provides information on potential stress symptoms and coping techniques and helps personnel work through their own thoughts, reactions and symptoms. The Critical Incident Stress Debriefing is facilitated by a specially trained team that includes mental health professionals and peer support personnel. The Critical Stress Debriefing is a voluntary process and will not occur until after the criminal investigation interviews of the involved members have been completed.

A critical incident stress debriefing should occur as soon as practicable. The Administration Division Commander is responsible for organizing the debriefing. Notes and recorded statements will not be taken because the sole purpose of the debriefing is to help mitigate the stress related effects of a traumatic event.

The debriefing is not part of any investigative process. Care should be taken not to release or repeat any communication made during a debriefing unless otherwise authorized by policy, law or a valid court order.

Attendance at the debriefing shall only include members of the Department directly involved in the incident, which can include support personnel (e.g., dispatchers or other first responders). The debriefing shall be closed to the public and should be closed to all other members of the Department, including supervisory and Professional Standards Unit personnel.

309.12 MEDIA RELATIONS

Once the SWIIR Team has initiated an investigation, all SWIIR Team media releases related to the investigation shall be made by the Public Information Officer (PIO) or other official designee from the lead investigation agency with the approval of the SWIIR Team Commander for that incident. The SWIIR media Release Template will be used whenever appropriate (see Appendix C). The SWIIR Team will provide public update about the investigation at a minimum of once per week, even if there is no new progress to report. Prior to issuing a media release, the SWIIR Team will provide a copy of the press release to the IIT community representatives and give advance

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Officer Involved Shootings and Deaths

notice of all scheduled press releases to a family member of the person whom deadly force was used upon.

It shall be the responsibility of the Involved Agency to determine when the Involved Officer' names will be released to the public, pursuant to their policies and procedures.

The Involved Agency's PIO or other official designee will have the opportunity to make an initial release of information, both in person and through media release, in coordination with SWIIR Team Supervisors. This will not be construed as a SWIIR Team release.

The Involved Agency may release information regarding the Involved Officer's employment history and related performance as an employee. The Involved Agency is prohibited from releasing information that could affect the integrity of the investigation.

No involved officer shall make any comment to the media concerning the incident.

Department members receiving inquiries regarding officer-involved shootings or deaths occurring in other jurisdictions shall refrain from public comment and will direct those inquiries to the agency having jurisdiction and primary responsibility for the investigation.

311.5.4 WEAPON MOUNTED LIGHTS

A light source mounted to a firearm where the light beam is aligned with the gun barrel is considered a purpose-specific tool. Weapon mounted flashlights are not intended to replace the Officer's handheld flashlight. A weapon mounted light is a tool to be used as an aid during situations where the deployment of a firearm is reasonable.

311.6 SAFE HANDLING, INSPECTION AND STORAGE

The Vancouver Police Department will issue Department owned gun safety locks or locking storage containers for the primary service handgun at the time the firearm is first issued or authorized or upon request.

311.6.3 ALCOHOL AND DRUGS

Officers shall report to their immediate supervisor any use of prescription drugs or other medication that may impair their ability or judgement to use a firearm. Officers shall not carry a Department issued or authorized firearm on/off-duty when impaired by alcohol, prescription or non-prescription drugs. Officers should not take any off-duty action, even if authorized by the policy, when impaired, unless the situation is life threatening and is reasonable under the circumstances.

All officers authorized to carry firearms shall be required to qualify with each Department issued and/or authorized firearm at the time of employment and acquisition of a weapon, at the change of any weapon used on duty, and as follows:

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Firearms

- (b) Two additional attempts to qualify

If the officer fails to qualify after three attempts, the Training Unit Sergeant and the officer's immediate supervisor shall be notified, and the officer will be prohibited from carrying their service handgun while on duty. The officer must then attend a formal, remedial training conducted by the firearms training unit for a minimum of 8 hours and not to exceed 40 hours in duration. Such training does not preclude an officer from engaging in any additional informal practice or training session that the officer may deem necessary.

Following the formal training session, the officer shall be given an opportunity to re-qualify. If again after three attempts the officer fails to qualify, the Rangemaster will forward a report to the Chief of Police documenting the attempts to train the officer and their failure to qualify.

An officer who fails to qualify following the formal remedial training will be relieved of field assignment, surrender their handgun, and be administratively reassigned pending the Chief of Police (not a designee) determination of the appropriate course of action.

311.7.2 NON-QUALIFICATION OF NON-PRIMARY SERVICE HANDGUN

If the discharge results in self-inflicted gunshot wound or injury or death to another person, additional statements and reports shall be made in accordance with the Officer Involved Shootings and Deaths Policy.

In all other cases, written reports shall be made as follows:

- (a) If on-duty at the time of the incident, the member shall complete a report if applicable or file a written memorandum with his/her immediate supervisor prior to the end of shift, unless otherwise directed by a supervisor.
- (b) If off-duty at the time of the incident, a report if applicable or a written memorandum shall be submitted no later than the end of the next regularly scheduled shift, unless otherwise directed by a supervisor.
- (c) The supervisor will ensure appropriate documentation and any necessary chain of command notifications are completed.

311.8.1 DISPATCHING OF DANGEROUS ANIMALS

Members are authorized to use firearms to stop an animal in circumstances where the animal reasonably appears to pose an imminent threat to human safety and alternative methods are not reasonably available or would likely be ineffective.

In circumstances where there is sufficient advance notice that a potentially dangerous animal may be encountered, Department members should develop reasonable contingency plans for dealing with the animal (e.g., fire extinguisher, Taser, oleoresin capsicum (OC) spray, animal control officer). Nothing in this policy shall prohibit any member from shooting a dangerous animal if circumstances reasonably dictate that a contingency plan has failed or becomes impractical.

If practicable, the officer should notify an on-duty supervisor prior to dispatching the animal.

On duty incidents involving discharging a firearm to stop a dangerous animal are documented in BlueTeam.

311.8.2 EUTHANIZING INJURED ANIMALS

An officer may euthanize an animal that is so badly injured that human compassion requires its removal from further suffering and where other dispositions are impractical.

If practicable, the officer should notify an on-duty supervisor prior to euthanizing the animal.

On duty incidents involving euthanizing an injured wild animal with a firearm are documented in BlueTeam.

311.9 FLYING WHILE ARMED

Transporting a Department issued firearm while out of state will be approved under the following circumstances:

1. If the uniform is required to be worn.
2. If the firearm is required for training approved by the Department.
3. If on official Department business.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

5. If the situation leads the commissioned employee and his/her supervisor to believe a firearm is needed (circumstances must be specifically outlined in a memo to the Chief of Police).
6. If the employee lives in Oregon.

311.11 CARRYING FIREARMS OUT OF STATE – OFF DUTY

Qualified, active, full-time officers of this Department are authorized to carry a concealed firearm in all other states subject to the following conditions:

- (b) The officer is not the subject of any current disciplinary action which prohibits the officer from carrying a department issued firearm
- (c) The officer may not be under the influence of alcohol or any other intoxicating or hallucinatory drug.
- (d) The officer will remain subject to this and all other Department policies (including qualifying and training).

Officers are cautioned that individual states may enact local regulations that permit private persons or entities to prohibit or restrict the possession of concealed firearms on their property, or that prohibit or restrict the possession of firearms on any state or local government property, installation, building, base or park. Federal authority may not shield an officer from arrest and prosecution in such locally restricted areas.

Vehicle Pursuits

313.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The primary purpose of this policy is to provide officers with guidance in balancing the safety of the public and themselves against law enforcement's duty to apprehend violators of the law. Another purpose of this policy is to minimize the potential for pursuit related collisions. Vehicular pursuits require officers to exhibit a high degree of common sense and sound judgment.

Officers must not forget that the immediate apprehension of a suspect is generally not more important than the safety of the public and pursuing officers. Deciding whether to pursue a motor vehicle is a critical decision that must be made quickly and under difficult and unpredictable circumstances. In recognizing the potential risk to public safety created by vehicular pursuits, no officer or supervisor shall be criticized or disciplined for deciding not to engage in a vehicular pursuit because of the risk involved. This includes circumstances where department policy would permit the initiation or continuation of the pursuit.

It is recognized that vehicular pursuit situations are not always predictable, and decisions made pursuant to this policy will be evaluated according to the totality of the circumstances reasonably available at the time of the pursuit. Officers must remember that the most important factors to the successful conclusion of a pursuit are proper self-discipline and sound professional judgment.

313.2 DEFINITIONS

Attempt to Elude: Any driver of a motor vehicle who willfully fails or refuses to immediately bring his/her vehicle to a stop and who drives his/her vehicle in a manner indicating a wanton or willful disregard for the lives or property of others while fleeing a pursuing police vehicle, after being given a visual or audible signal to bring the vehicle to a stop. RCW 46.61.024

Vehicular Pursuit: An attempt by a uniformed peace officer in a vehicle equipped with emergency lights and a siren to stop a moving vehicle where the operator of the moving vehicle appears to be aware that the officer is signaling the operator to stop the vehicle and the operator of the moving vehicle appears to be willfully resisting or ignoring the officer's attempt to stop the vehicle by increasing vehicle speed, making evasive maneuvers, or operating the vehicle in a reckless manner that endangers the safety of the community or the officer. RCW 10.116.060

For the purposes of this policy, a vehicular pursuit begins after a uniformed officer in a vehicle equipped with activated emergency lights and siren reasonably determines that the operator of the moving vehicle being signaled to stop is aware of the signaling to stop and the operator has made reasonably obvious vehicular evasive maneuvers or actions demonstrating willful resisting or ignoring the officer's attempt to stop the vehicle. The officer must then take reasonable actions to either discontinue the attempt to stop the vehicle or begin a vehicular pursuit under this policy.

Pursuit Intervention Options: are the same as Vehicle Tactics as defined in VPD Policy 300.

Outrageous: Unsafe or dangerous excessive speed or erratic vehicular movement. Some examples include: - Actual collision, or imminent collision, with other vehicles. - Driving at night without lights at speeds that do not adequately warn others of the vehicle's presence. - Driving at high speeds on flat tires or metal rims. - The presence of large number of pedestrians or others in the immediate path or vicinity of the vehicle. - Extreme disregard for traffic control devices, directly imperiling cross traffic. - Off road actions such as cutting through parking lots at high speed, where pedestrians or others are likely to be present, including driving up on sidewalks.

313.3 PRIMARY PURSUIT CONSIDERATIONS

1. Vehicular pursuits are permitted only under certain circumstances pursuant RCW 10.116.060. Officers must know and follow the law, and this policy, which is more restrictive than state law. The primary consideration when determining whether to initiate, continue or terminate a vehicular pursuit is public safety and the safety of officers.
2. The pursuit must be necessary for the purpose of identifying or apprehending the person and the person must pose a serious risk of harm to others and the safety risks of failing to apprehend or identify the person are considered to be greater than the safety risks of the vehicular pursuit under the circumstances.

313.3.1 PROHIBITED ACTIONS

1. A vehicle pursuit not meeting this policy, must be terminated.
2. Officers do not engage in pursuits with a passenger in their vehicle unless the passenger is a fully commissioned law enforcement officer with jurisdiction in Vancouver who is working in an official capacity.
3. Officers do not engage in pursuit techniques which require the officers to drive in the opposing or wrong direction of a freeway or divided highway, unless objectively reasonable under the totality of the circumstances.
4. Officers do not attempt to pull alongside a fleeing vehicle and intentionally attempt to force it into any obstacles or off the road, unless objectively reasonable under the totality of the circumstances.
5. Officers do not intentionally direct the spotlight at the windshield or vision of the suspect in an attempt to blind or halt a pursuit. This requirement does not limit the use of a spotlight to increase officer safety when conducting high risk vehicle stop tactics.
6. Officers do not engage in pursuits unless in a police uniform as authorized by the Uniform Manual, and in a police vehicle equipped with emergency lights and siren.
7. Officers do not engage in pursuits unless they are current in EVOC training as required by RCW 10.116.060.
8. Officers do not engage in a pursuit of a vehicle with the known presence of an infant(s) or obvious young child(ren) under 13 years old in the vehicle unless objectively reasonable under the totality of the circumstances.

313.4 AUTHORIZED PURSUIT CRIMES

In addition to the Primary Pursuit Considerations and other criteria set forth in RCW 10.116.060 and this policy, an officer may not engage in a vehicular pursuit unless there is reasonable suspicion to believe that a person in the vehicle has committed or is committing any of the following:

1. A violent offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030;
2. A sex offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030
3. Vehicular assault under RCW 46.61.522
4. Felony Domestic Violence Assault under RCW 9A.36.
5. An escape under 9A.76 RCW;
6. Driving under the influence under RCW 46.61.502 with officer observed outrageous driving prior to enforcement action taken (catching up to suspect car / U-turn / emergency lights on / etc). Simply pursuing a driver suspected of driving under the influence absent outrageous driving is not authorized.
7. Supervisors may authorize a pursuit in circumstances not listed above, when it is clear that the benefits of immediately apprehending the suspect outweigh the risks of the pursuit and adheres to the requirements outlined in this policy.

313.5 PURSUING OFFICERS

The initiating officer, up to four (4) additional pursuit units, and the supervisor engage in the pursuit and operate within the guidelines outlined in RCW 10.116.060 and this policy. Typically, the initiating officer is responsible for the following actions, however all involved or assisting officers, including the supervisor having oversight of the pursuit, are responsible to assist or ensure that the following actions have been or are being completed.

1. The crime for the pursuit must be clearly articulated.
2. The necessity for identifying or apprehending the person must be reasonably articulated.
3. The threat to the safety of others that the person poses must be reasonably articulated.
4. The pursuing officer(s) must notify a supervising officer immediately upon initiating a pursuit.
5. There must be supervisory oversight of the pursuit.
6. The pursuing officer(s) and supervisor must reasonably believe that the safety risks of failing to apprehend or identify the person are considered to be greater than the safety risks of the pursuit under the circumstances.
7. The pursuing officer(s) and supervisor must consider the justification for the pursuit and other safety considerations, including but not limited to speed, weather, traffic (vehicular and pedestrian), road conditions and the known presence of minors in the vehicle. This should be reasonably articulated over the radio, as feasible.
8. The pursuing officer(s), and supervisor, must consider alternatives to the pursuit, including but not limited to the availability of air support, known or anticipated routes or destination, and any tracking capabilities of the suspect or suspect vehicle.

2. The pursuing officers and supervisor must be able to directly communicate with each other and the applicable dispatch agency, such as being on a common radio channel or having other direct means of communication.
 - (a) If the pursuit leaves the jurisdiction of this department, involved units may switch radio communications, whenever available, to a channel that is most advantageous for effective and direct communications.
 - (b) If communications with CRESA are lost and there is no other common radio channel or other direct means of communication available to meet the requirement under RCW 10.116.060, the pursuit shall be terminated.

313.7 ASSISTING AREA UNITS

Officers who are on duty and in the area of the pursuit should monitor the progress of the pursuit but not actively engage in the pursuit unless requested to do so, or it is reasonable based on the totality of the circumstances. Assisting area units should be available in case they are needed to help provide resources.

313.8 SUPERVISORY RESPONSIBILITIES

The supervisor may assign additional pursuit units and other assets to the pursuit as necessary and reasonable based on the totality of the circumstances.

On duty sergeants and corporals have primary responsibility to assume supervisory oversight for a pursuit as it progresses. They must take the following actions:

2. The officer operating the pursuit vehicle is in uniform pursuant the Uniform Manual.
3. As soon as marked vehicles become available to take over the pursuit, when feasible the alternative pursuit vehicle assumes the position of support until sufficient marked units can take over.

313.10 PURSUIT INTERVENTION OPTIONS

The Department Use of Force Policy authorizes officers to use vehicle tactics which are intended to prevent or bring a pursuit to a conclusion.

These tactics may be used preemptively, meaning without lights/siren warnings, when there is probable cause to arrest a suspect in a vehicle and the totality of the circumstances indicates the suspect will attempt to avoid detention and arrest, or when the suspect is operating the vehicle in a reckless manner that endangers the safety of the community or the officer.

313.11 PURSUIT TERMINATION

A vehicle pursuit not meeting the requirements under this policy or RCW shall be terminated.

1. At the conclusion of a pursuit in which the suspect(s) or suspect vehicle has stopped, the pursuing officer(s) shall maintain responsibility for the control and direction of activities at the scene, unless relieved by a supervisor.
2. Upon termination of a vehicle pursuit in which the suspect(s) or suspect vehicle is not stopped, officers will turn off emergency lights and siren, resume routine vehicle operation, and notify dispatch of the termination of the pursuit and their location.
 - (a) This does not imply that officers must cease looking for the suspect; however, officers must resume non-emergency response driving pursuant VPD Policy.

313.12 JURISDICTIONAL PURSUIT GUIDELINES

Vehicular pursuits may at times leave the city of Vancouver and enter into other Washington jurisdictions, State of Oregon, or come from other jurisdictions into the city of Vancouver. In these circumstances, there are protocols to follow in requesting assistance or assisting outside agencies.

Officers leaving the city of Vancouver in a pursuit must follow the listed guidelines:

1. The pursuing officers, supervisor or dispatch will request assistance from the appropriate jurisdiction.
2. The pursuing units continue as appropriate until the agency of jurisdiction is capable of accepting and assuming the pursuit.
3. Once the agency having jurisdiction fully assumes the pursuit, VPD units will terminate active pursuit. The supervisor will continue to monitor the pursuit and designate VPD unit(s) to respond to the termination point of the pursuit if applicable.
4. If the agency having jurisdiction does not have adequate pursuit units, the supervisor may authorize VPD units to remain in the pursuit.

319.2 POLICY

The Vancouver Police Department's response to incidents of domestic violence and violations of related court orders shall stress enforcement of the law to protect the victim and shall communicate the philosophy that domestic violence is criminal behavior. This policy provides law enforcement officers with guidelines for enforcement of criminal laws related to domestic violence.

Vancouver Police Officers are expected to do the following:

1. Promote the safety of law enforcement personnel responding to incidents of domestic violence.
2. Establish arrest and prosecution as a preferred means of police response to domestic violence.
3. Respond to a report of domestic violence even if the call is canceled.
4. When probable cause exists, effect an arrest of the primary physical aggressor as required by law and this policy.
5. Enforce mandatory arrest laws for any violation of permanent, temporary, or emergency orders of protection (RCW 10.31.100 and 10.99.055).

319.3 OFFICER SAFETY

The investigation of domestic violence cases often places officers in emotionally charged and sometimes highly dangerous environments. No provision of this policy is intended to supersede the responsibility of all officers to exercise due caution and reasonable care in providing for the safety of any officers and parties involved.

319.4 ENFORCEMENT OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE LAWS

The primary duty of police officers when responding to a domestic violence situation is to enforce the laws allegedly violated and to protect any potential victim. When responding to a domestic violence call, officers shall:

1. Take reasonable measures to assure there are two officers at the scene and will not disregard or cancel the call for an assist officer.
2. Conduct an assessment for any possible injuries sustained during any type of altercation or assault. Ensure appropriate medical attention is provided if the officer believes it is necessary or the complainant claims injury or requests medical attention, whether an injury is visible or not.
3. Ensure the crime scene is safe/secure and all evidence is collected.
4. Ensure a thorough investigation is conducted, including the use of all required forms in the Domestic Violence (DV) Packet; DV Report, DV Victim Notification Form, Medical Release Form, DV Victim Statement (Smith Affidavit)
 - (a) If necessary, due to a language barrier, provide an interpreter or form in the victim's own language.
 - (b) If the victim is unable to complete the Smith Affidavit, provide assistance.
 - (c) Review the Smith Affidavit to ensure it is complete and legible, and they are aware of all the information the victim includes in the form. If possible, the officer shall review the Smith Affidavit at the scene.
5. Seek out information on existing restraining and/or protective orders.
6. If probable cause exists that a violation of a valid protection order has occurred, make a physical arrest. Officers will not ask the victim if he/she wants the offender to be arrested.
7. If probable cause exists, enforce mandatory arrest laws consistent with (RCW 10.31.100) and (RCW 26.50.010) and the officer believes that:
 - (a) A felonious assault has occurred;
 - (b) An assault has occurred which resulted in bodily injury to the victim, whether the injury is observable by the Officer or not;
 - (c) Any physical action has occurred which was intended to cause another person to reasonably fear imminent serious bodily injury or death (RCW 10.31.100(2)c).

Officers are strongly encouraged to effect an arrest when probable cause exists in these circumstances even if it is outside of the four hour mandatory arrest period.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Domestic Violence

1. If probable cause exists and the alleged offender has left the scene, search the area and attempt obtain information as to the location of the suspect. Make every reasonable attempt to locate and arrest the suspect.
2. If the suspect is not located, issue a crime broadcast via MDC and complete a BOLO to other law enforcement that may later contact the suspect that there is probable cause to arrest.
 - (a) Shift Supervisor will take the completed BOLO and e-mail it to dispatch and confirm it was received.
 - (b) The investigating officer must submit the Probable Cause Statement and Booking Form to records.

319.5 SAFETY OF THE VICTIM

Officers shall ensure that procedures are followed relating to victim safety and protection in accordance with RCW 10.99.030. Officers will ensure that the victim receives a DV Victim Notification Form containing the language specified in RCW10.99.030(7) and providing information regarding the following:

1. All reasonable means to prevent further abuse.
2. The availability of contacting the 24 hour DV hotline advocate.
3. The availability of confidential transportation to a safe house, shelter or any other location that may provide greater victim safety and confidential victim advocacy.
4. Procedures for obtaining restraining and/or protection orders and victim's rights.
5. Judicial process and victims' rights following arrest.
6. Community resources and local domestic violence victim advocacy organizations.
7. Victim Information Network Everyday (VINE).

319.6 DISPATCH RESPONSIBILITIES

CRESA policy provides that Dispatchers shall handle domestic violence calls as they would any other crime. However, the relationship between the victim and accused creates additional responsibilities.

1. Dispatchers shall not cancel a law enforcement response at the request of the victim, as reporting is mandatory, regardless of victim's changing feelings.
2. When speaking to the victim of domestic violence, no dispatcher will discuss the victim's desire to "press charges/drop charges" or "prosecute." Any comment or statement which seeks to place the responsibility for enforcement actions with the victim is inappropriate.

319.7 FOREIGN COURT ORDERS

Various types of orders may be issued in domestic violence cases. Any foreign court order properly issued by a court of another state, Indian tribe or territory shall be enforced by officers as if it were the order of a court in this state. An order should be considered properly issued when it

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Domestic Violence

reasonably appears that the issuing court has jurisdiction over the parties and reasonable notice and opportunity to respond was given to the party against whom the order was issued (18USC§ 2265). An otherwise valid out-of-state court order shall be enforced regardless of whether the order has been properly registered with this state.

319.8 ENFORCEMENT OF RESTRAINING ORDERS

Officers shall enforce an order issued by any court restricting a defendant's ability to have contact with a victim by arresting and taking the defendant into custody when the officer has probable cause to believe the defendant has violated the terms of that order (RCW 10.99.055). Officers must verify the existence of a protection or restraining order and its service prior to arrest. A detention may occur based on reasonable suspicion.

Orders can be verified by:

1. A proof of service attached to the victim's copy of the order showing service on the defendant.
2. Washington Crime Information Center (WACIC) check.
3. Contacting the law enforcement agency in the jurisdiction where the order was issued.
4. Contacting the Court Clerk's office.
5. Determining the defendant has knowledge of the order (RCW 10.31.100(2)(a)):

(a) No proof of service is required for No Contact Orders as the defendant's presence is required at the time of issue.

(b) If the order has been served, but neither the victim nor the defendant has a copy reflecting the terms of the order, request that dispatch check the terms.

If the order is not verifiable:

1. The order shall not be enforced and the victim should be advised to contact the court that issued the order, or the attorney who drafted the order.
2. Arrest the suspect if probable cause exists that a separate crime has been committed.
3. A report should be made including the disposition.

Officers should contact a supervisor for clarification when needed.

319.9 STANDARDS FOR ARRESTS

Officers investigating a domestic violence report should consider the following:

(a) The primary duty of officers when responding to a domestic violence situation is to enforce the laws allegedly violated and to protect the complaining party (RCW 10.99.030(5)).

(b) When an officer responds to a domestic violence call and has probable cause to believe that a crime has been committed, he/she shall make an arrest pursuant to the criteria in RCW 10.31.100 and RCW 10.99.030(6)(a).

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Domestic Violence

(c) When an officer has confirmed a valid court order exists and has probable cause to believe the defendant has violated that order, the officer shall make a physical arrest (RCW 10.99.055; RCW 10.31.100(a)(b)). Whenever a member of this department serves or assists in serving a court order and that service is completed, a return of service form shall be completed and submitted to the Washington Crime Information Center (WACIC).

319.9.1 MANDATORY ARRESTS

Once a suspect has been arrested, he/she shall be taken to jail. If the suspect cannot be taken to jail due to a medical condition, the officer shall take the suspect to the hospital and request notification of the suspect's discharge from the hospital.

When an arrest cannot be made due to lack of probable cause that a crime has been committed, the officer shall do the following (RCW 10.99.030):

1. Provide a Vancouver Police Department DV Victim Notification Form.
2. Explain to the complainant why an arrest is not being made.
3. Advise the complainant of his/her rights and explain the procedures for filing a criminal complaint and advise the complaining party of the importance of preserving evidence.
4. Encourage the complainant to contact the local domestic violence service provider for information regarding counseling and other services.
5. Stand-by, upon request, while the complainant gathers their essential personal effects for a short term absence from the home.
6. Offer, facilitate, or arrange transportation for the victim to a hospital for treatment of injuries or to a place of safety or shelter.

To ensure the proper charge is being filed on a No-Contact Order violation, officers will be required to conduct a criminal history of the arrestee. A review of the arrestee's criminal history is necessary to determine whether a felony referral is appropriate.

1. The arresting officer will contact the Records Division and request a criminal history of the arrestee as part of their criminal investigation.
2. The officer will be advised if the arrestee has two or more Domestic Violence court order convictions and will book for the appropriate charge.

319.9.2 DUAL ARRESTS

Dual arrests in domestic violence cases should only be made in cases where there is probable cause to arrest both parties, the investigation reveals both parties used violence, neither party was found to be acting in self-defense, and neither party was found to be the primary physical aggressor.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Domestic Violence

When determining who the primary aggressor is, officers should take the following into consideration:

The primary aggressor is the person who poses the most serious ongoing threat considering:

1. The intent of the law to protect victims of domestic violence from continuing abuse.
2. The comparative extent of injuries inflicted or serious threats creating fear of physical injury.
3. The history of domestic violence between the persons involved.

Dual arrests in domestic violence cases are strongly discouraged unless absolutely necessary.

319.9.3 REMOVAL OF A SUSPECT

If there is no court order in effect, and an arrest is not made, officers may request a person who is not in lawful possession of the premises to leave when:

1. The complainant is in lawful possession of the premise (as exhibited by rent receipts, lease, deed, verification by apartment manager, etc.); and
2. The complainant has requested the person leave the premises and the person has not established residency.

If one party leaves, the officer should stand by until the involved party removes essential personal effects. Officers will not assist or participate in the division of property. Such civil standbys should be limited to a reasonable amount of time.

If a suspect who has not established residency does not leave upon request, an arrest may be made for criminal trespass.

If the complainant requesting removal of the suspect cannot show proof of lawful possession, the officer should refer the complainant for a Protection Order or other appropriate civil remedy.

319.10 REPORTS AND RECORDS

Officers responding to a domestic violence call shall take a complete offense report, including the disposition of the case (RCW 10.99.030(b)).

- (a) All such reports should be documented under the appropriate crime classification and should use the distinction "Domestic Violence" in the Type of Crime box of the crime report form (RCW 10.99.030(11)).

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Domestic Violence

- (b) Whenever there is probable cause to believe a crime has been committed and unless the case is under active investigation, the Domestic Violence Prosecution Center Supervisor shall ensure all domestic violence crime reports are forwarded to the Clark County Prosecutor's Office within 10 days of the date the incident was reported (RCW 10.99.030(9)).
- (c) The Vancouver Police Department shall ensure accurate records of domestic violence incidents are maintained and submitted to the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs (WASPC) in accordance with state law (RCW 10.99.030(12)).

319.10.1 REPORTING OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

A thorough report must be completed for all calls involving domestic violence. The report and (DV Packet when appropriate) shall include as much of the following information as possible:

1. A description of how the incident was reported or came to the attention of law enforcement, including the name of the individual who reported the incident, if applicable, and how they were involved.

13. The name of a contact person to locate the victim.
14. Required forms including the "Domestic Violence Report," "Domestic Violence Victim Notification," "Medical Release Forms," and the "Domestic Violence Victim Statement" (Smith Affidavit).
15. All such reports shall be documented under the appropriate crime classification and, in the Type of Crime box of the crime report form, the distinction "Domestic Violence" shall be made and Domestic Disturbance Reports should be sent to the DVPC.

Reporting officers should provide the victim with the case number of the report. The case number may be placed in the space provided on the domestic violence pamphlet provided to the victim.

319.10.2 REPORTING OF DOMESTIC DISTURBANCES (VERBAL INCIDENTS)

Verbal domestic disturbances will be documented in the appropriate police report. In cases in which there is an allegation of a crime by either party or the investigating officer determines that a crime has occurred, a GO must be completed. The report shall include as much of the following information as possible:

- a. Establish if a DV relationship exists and if so, what is the relationship.
- b. Confirm that no crime(s) have been reported and no orders are in place.
- c. Identify any witnesses and document their statements.
- d. Describe the nature of the argument, the emotional state of both parties and whether any party is in fear.

- i. Document history of verbal DV, if a history exists.

319.11 EVIDENCE

The following guidelines should be considered by officers investigating domestic violence cases:

1. All visible injuries should be photographed regardless of severity, and all victims shall receive proper medical care if needed or desired. Victims whose injuries are not visible at the time of the incident shall be advised to contact a Domestic Violence Prosecution Center (DVPC) investigator or an on duty officer in the event they become visible. An investigator may be assigned to ensure the injuries are photographed during the course of preparing the case for court.
2. All injuries, whether observable or not, should be documented in the incident report. The emotional demeanor of the victim and suspect shall also be included.
3. Officers should ensure the crime scene is photographed.
4. Officers shall collect and submit all physical evidence that substantiates the victim's injuries and/or the crime charged (e.g., weapons, torn clothing, broken items). If officers are unable to collect the evidence, they shall take photographs.

Search and Seizure of Property and Persons

321.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

Both the federal and state Constitutions provide every individual with the right to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures. This policy provides general guidelines for Vancouver Police Department personnel to consider when dealing with search and seizure issues.

321.2 POLICY

It is the policy of the Vancouver Police Department to respect the fundamental privacy rights of individuals. Members of this Department will conduct searches in strict observance of the constitutional rights of persons being searched. All seizures by this Department will comply with relevant federal and state law governing the seizure of persons and property.

The Department will provide relevant and current training to officers as guidance for the application of current law, local community standards and prosecutorial considerations regarding specific search and seizure situations, as appropriate.

321.3 SEARCHES

The U.S. Constitution generally provides that a valid warrant is required in order for a search to be valid. There are, however, several exceptions that permit a warrantless search.

Examples of law enforcement activities that are exceptions to the general warrant requirement include, but are not limited to, searches pursuant to the following:

- Valid consent
 - The officer shall provide a juvenile with access to an attorney for consultation before asking a juvenile to provide consent to an evidentiary search of the juvenile or the juvenile's property, dwellings, or vehicles under the juvenile's control.
- Incident to a lawful arrest
- Terry stops
- Legitimate community caretaking interests
- Exigent circumstances
- Plain view

Certain other activities are recognized by federal and state courts and by certain statutes as legitimate law enforcement activities that also do not require a warrant. Such activities may include seizure and examination of abandoned property and observations of activities and property located on open public areas.

Because case law regarding search and seizure is constantly changing and subject to interpretation by the courts, each member of this Department is expected to act in each situation according to current training and his/her familiarity with clearly established rights as determined

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Search and Seizure of Property and Persons

by case law. VPD members must read and be familiar with Department memoranda and bulletins concerning search and seizure.

321.4 SEARCH PROTOCOL

Although conditions will vary and officer safety and other exigencies must be considered in every search situation, the following guidelines should be followed whenever circumstances permit:

1. Members of this Department will strive to conduct searches with dignity and courtesy.
2. Officers should explain to the person being searched the reason for the search and how the search will be conducted.
3. Searches should be carried out with due regard and respect for private property interests and a reasonable effort should be made to minimize damage.
4. When the person to be searched is of the opposite gender, or makes it known they identify as the opposite gender as the searching officer, if necessary and practical, a reasonable effort should be made to summon an officer of the same gender as the subject identifies to conduct the search. When it is not practicable to summon an officer of the same gender as the subject, or as the subject identifies, the following guidelines should be followed:
 - (a) Another officer or a supervisor should witness the search.
 - (b) The officer should not search areas of the body covered by tight-fitting clothing, sheer clothing or clothing that could not reasonably conceal a weapon or contraband.

321.5 SEIZURE OF PERSONS

When making an arrest, officers will thoroughly search arrested persons and will immediately take possession of all discovered weapons, potentially hazardous items and evidence. An officer making a decision to book an arrested person will transport the person or cause the person to be transported to the jail as soon as reasonable under the circumstances.

The Department precincts have temporary holding/interview rooms which are provided for the comfort, safety and security of police personnel, police facilities and arrested persons held for interrogation, release by citation and other situations. Refer to Policy 323 Temporary Custody of Juveniles for detaining juveniles.

1. Persons being held in a temporary holding/interview room will be closely monitored by an officer, provided access to restrooms in a timely manner and will also be provided access to water.
2. Supervisory notification should be made for any person being held for longer than 2 hours.
3. No person should be held longer than 4 hours, unless reasonable under the circumstances with supervisory approval.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Search and Seizure of Property and Persons

321.6 SEIZURE OF PROPERTY

The seizure of property shall be consistent with law and current established departmental procedures.

321.7 DOCUMENTATION

Officers are responsible to document any search when property is seized and/or an arrest is made, and to ensure any required reports are sufficient including, at minimum, documentation of the following as applicable:

- (a) Reason for the search.
- (b) In the event of forcible entry, document efforts used to minimize the intrusiveness of the search and steps taken to secure property as applicable.
- (c) Description of any injuries or damage that occurred.
- (d) A description of any property seized, who possessed it (if known) and the location it was seized. This may be accomplished by the entry of the item into the RMS evidence system.
- (e) Officers who transport a person who has been detained / arrested must document the custodial transport with a report or supplemental report. The report should include where the person and his / her effects were transported from and where the transport concluded.

Supervisors shall review reports as a part of the report approval process in the Department RMS subject to VPD Policy 343 Report Preparation.

Temporary Custody of Juveniles

323.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy provides guidelines consistent with the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act for juveniles taken into temporary custody by members of the Vancouver Police Department (42 USC § 5633).

323.1.1 DEFINITIONS

Definitions related to this policy include:

Custodial interrogation - express questioning or other actions or words by a law enforcement officer which are reasonably likely to elicit an incriminating response from an individual and occurs when reasonable individuals in the same circumstances would consider themselves in custody. RCW 10.122.020

Juvenile - any individual who is under the chronological age of 18 years RCW 13.40.740

Juvenile non-offender - An abused, neglected, dependent or alien juvenile who may be legally held for his/her own safety or welfare. This also includes any juvenile who may have initially been contacted for an offense that would not subject an adult to arrest (e.g., fine-only offense) but was taken into custody for his/her protection or for purposes of reuniting the juvenile with a parent, guardian or other responsible person.

Juvenile offender - A juvenile 17 years of age or younger who is alleged to have committed an offense that would subject an adult to arrest (a non-status offense) or a juvenile who has violated RCW 9.41.040(2)(a)(iv) by possessing a handgun (28 CFR 31.303).

Non-secure custody - When a juvenile is held in the presence of an officer at all times and is not placed in a locked room or behind any locked doors. Juveniles in non-secure custody may be handcuffed but not to a stationary or secure object. Personal supervision, through direct visual monitoring and audio two-way communication is maintained. Monitoring through electronic devices, such as video, does not replace direct visual observation.

Secure custody - When a juvenile offender is held in a locked room, a set of rooms or a cell. Secure custody also includes being physically secured to a stationary object.

Sight and sound separation - Located or arranged to prevent physical, visual or auditory contact.

Status offender - A juvenile suspected of committing a criminal violation of the law that would not be a criminal violation but for the age of the offender. Examples may include underage possession of tobacco and/or alcohol. A juvenile in custody on a court order or warrant based upon a status offense is also a status offender.

323.2 POLICY

The Vancouver Police Department is committed to protecting the rights of juveniles and releasing them from temporary custody as soon as reasonably practicable and keeping juveniles safe while

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Officers should take custody of a juvenile and temporarily hold the juvenile at the Vancouver Police Department when there is no other lawful and practicable alternative to temporary custody.

No juvenile should be held in temporary custody at the Vancouver Police Department without authorization of the arresting officer's supervisor or the Shift Sergeant.

Any juvenile taken into custody shall be released to the care of the juvenile's parent or other responsible adult or transferred to a juvenile custody facility or to other authority as soon as practicable and in no event shall a juvenile be held beyond six hours from the time of his/her entry into the Vancouver Police Department (42 USC § 5633; RCW 13.04.116(b)).

323.4.1 CUSTODY OF JUVENILE STATUS OFFENDERS

Status offenders should generally be released with a warning or released with the charge referred to the prosecutor's office. However, officers may take protective custody of a status offender if requested to do so by a parent or legal guardian in order to facilitate reunification (e.g., transported home or to a location to await a parent). Juvenile status offenders will not be held in secure custody (42 USC § 5633).

323.4.2 CUSTODY OF JUVENILE OFFENDERS

Juvenile offenders should be held in non-secure custody while at the Vancouver Police Department unless another form of custody is necessary due to exigent circumstances.

Generally, juvenile offenders may be taken into custody under the following circumstances (RCW 13.40.040(1)):

323.6 NO-CONTACT REQUIREMENTS

Sight and sound separation shall be maintained between any juvenile and adult who are in custody while in a VPD facility. There should also be sight and sound separation between any non-offenders and juvenile and status offenders.

In situations where brief or accidental contact may occur, a member of the Vancouver Police Department shall maintain a constant, immediate presence with the juvenile or the adult to minimize any contact. If inadvertent or accidental contact does occur, reasonable efforts shall be taken to end the contact.

323.7 TEMPORARY CUSTODY REQUIREMENTS

Officers assigned to monitor any juvenile at the Vancouver Police Department shall ensure the following:

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Temporary Custody of Juveniles

When any juvenile is held in a non-secure detention status at any Vancouver Police facility, a Non-Secure Juvenile Detention Log shall be completed by the officer responsible for detaining the juvenile. The officer or supervisor should forward the completed and signed log to the Professional Standards Unit's Audit Sergeant for records documentation.

This log is only required if the juvenile is brought inside and detained within a Vancouver Police facility.

323.8 USE OF RESTRAINT DEVICES

Juvenile offenders may be handcuffed in accordance with Department Policy.

323.9 PERSONAL PROPERTY

The officer taking custody of a juvenile non-offender or status offender at the Vancouver Police Department shall ensure a thorough search of the juvenile's property is made. For community caretaking purposes, all property is removed from the juvenile, especially items that could compromise safety, such as pens, pencils and belts.

323.10 SECURE CUSTODY

Secure custody should only be used for juvenile offenders who are under arrest or when there is a reasonable belief that the juvenile is a serious risk of harm to him/herself or others. If a juvenile must be placed in secure custody, the officer must transport them directly to the Juvenile Detention Facility or have them transported to a medical facility pursuant Emergent Detentions. No juveniles are to be placed into secure custody while in any Vancouver Police facility.

323.11 INTERVIEWING OR INTERROGATING JUVENILE SUSPECTS

1. Employees are expected to treat every individual with respect and to refrain from any harassing or retaliatory behavior.
2. All employees are encouraged to report any observed or known violations of this policy to a supervisor. Employee (s) not comfortable with reporting violations of this policy to their immediate supervisor may bypass the chain of command and report it to a higher ranking officer. Complaints may also be filed with the Human Resources or the Professional Standards Unit.

327.5 SUPERVISOR RESPONSIBILITIES

Supervisors and managers will be proactive in identifying behavior that may constitute harassment or retaliation, will take any complaint or harassment seriously, and will take prompt and effective action to assure that any harassing, offensive or retaliatory conduct stops and does not recur. All complaints or discrimination or harassment shall be fully documented, and promptly and thoroughly investigated.

Individual employees may be held personally liable for engaging in harassing behavior or failing to take action to stop harassing behavior.

327.6 RESOLUTION OF HARASSMENT ISSUES AND COMPLAINTS

Various methods of resolution exist to stop harassing behavior.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Discriminatory Harassment

327.6.1 EMPLOYEE RESOLUTION

Whenever possible, employees who believe they are experiencing discrimination and/or harassment are encouraged to inform the individual that his/her behavior is unwelcome, offensive, unprofessional or highly inappropriate.

327.6.2 SUPERVISORY RESOLUTION

If an employee is unable to resolve the concern or if an employee feels uncomfortable, threatened, or has difficulty expressing his/her concern, assistance or counseling should be sought from a supervisor or manager.

327.6.3 FORMAL INVESTIGATION

At any time, an employee may initiate a formal complaint of harassment by contacting a supervisor, manager, Human Resources or PSU. All potential policy violations are reviewed and/or investigated in accordance with the policy and procedures relating to Internal Affairs investigations.

During the pendency of any such investigation, the Department will take reasonable steps to mitigate or eliminate any continuing hostile work environment.

327.7 DOCUMENTATION OF COMPLAINTS

All complaints or allegations shall be documented as required by the Department's Internal Affairs Policy.

327.8 EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYMENT COMPLAINTS

No provision of this policy shall be construed to prevent any employee from seeking legal redress outside the Department. Employees who believe they have been harassed or discriminated against are entitled to bring complaints of employment discrimination to federal, state and/or local agencies responsible for investigating such allegations. Specific time limitations apply to the filing of such charges. Employees are advised that proceeding with complaints under the provisions of this policy does not in any way affect those filing requirements.

327.9 TRAINING

The Department provides on-going training on the definition of harassment, appropriate workplace behavior, policies on the prevention of harassment, procedures for complaining about and resolving harassment problems that arise and employee responsibilities for preventing harassment in the workplace. In addition, supervisors and managers are required to attend periodic training on identifying, preventing and responding to complaints of harassment and retaliation.

327.10 QUESTIONS REGARDING DISCRIMINATION OR SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Members with questions regarding discrimination or sexual harassment are encouraged to contact a supervisor, manager, the Chief of Police, Human Resources, the City Manager, or they may contact the Washington State Human Rights Commission at 800-233-3247.

Child Custody Disputes

328.1 PURPOSE

The Vancouver Police Department enforces many of the provisions outlined in restraining/protection orders. However, civil orders involving child custody require specific consideration. For this reason, information set forth in this policy is intended to guide our agency through these often difficult circumstances.

328.2 WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS - DEFINED

Generally, a Writ of Habeas Corpus refers to a legal petition used to bring a person or detainee before the court to determine if the person's imprisonment, detention or custody is lawful. In regard to child custody disputes, a person (usually a parent) may bring an action in habeas corpus to seek custody of a minor child. When issued, a Writ of Habeas Corpus will direct law enforcement to take the child and bring him or her before the court to be dealt with according to the law. In Clark County, Washington, the Clark County Sheriff's Office (CCSO) serves and follows-up on all Writs of Habeas Corpus for children.

328.3 CUSTODIAL ISSUES AND COURT ORDERS

If the enforcement of restraining/protection orders creates circumstances requiring the transfer of child custody, then Child Protective Services will be notified. Vancouver Police Officers will avoid conducting child custody transfers in the field, if feasible.

The Vancouver Police Department will not enforce civil orders such as divorce decrees, parenting plans, custody or visitation orders. A child shall not be forcibly removed by law enforcement solely on the authority of these civil orders.

Officers will keep in mind that the welfare of the child is paramount and will assess any imminent harm or danger to the child. Any situations of possible custodial interference will be documented in a report and forwarded to the Domestic Violence Prosecution Center (DVPC) for follow-up. See RCW 9A.40.060 (070, 080) - Custodial Interference for further information.

328.3.1 FOREIGN / OUT-OF-JURISDICTION ORDERS

After the initial investigation on scene where reports are generated and completed, all follow-up of foreign or out-of-jurisdiction orders will be conducted by the DVPC and/or the CCSO Child Recovery Unit.

328.4 CONSULTATION

When appropriate, Officers and first line supervisors should consult with the City Attorney's Office or Clark County Prosecutors Office prior to enforcing court ordered child custody issues.

After business hours assistance should be handled by contact with the DVPC supervisor.

328.5 WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS PRESENTED TO LAW ENFORCEMENT PERSONNEL

When an attorney, parent or legal guardian contacts an officer with a Writ of Habeas Corpus and there is not probable cause to believe the child is being abused or neglected or that the child would likely be injured physically or sexually, the following will occur:

- A. The officer will notify their supervisor.
- B. The child will not be given to the person(s) with the Writ of Habeas Corpus based upon that fact alone. Instead they will be referred to the CCSO, Civil Department, during normal business hours.
- C. If VPD officers are contacted concerning the service of a Writ of Habeas Corpus for a child, officers shall direct the party to the Clark County Sheriff's Office. The Clark County Sheriff's Office follows up on all Writs of Habeas Corpus for children within Clark County.
- D. The officer will complete an information report, documenting what occurred, to include taking any documents needed to accompany the report. This report should be routed to the DVPC and CCSO Child Recovery Unit, in addition to any other investigatory notifications that are necessary.

328.6 PHYSICAL SEIZURE OF A CHILD

For the purposes of this section, a child may only be physically seized by law enforcement officers in the following circumstances:

- A. The child is at risk, RCW 26.44.050. A child may only be taken into custody under this statute as follows:
 1. A law enforcement officer may take, or cause to be taken, a child into custody without a court order if there is probable cause to believe that taking the child into custody is necessary to prevent imminent physical harm to the child due to child abuse or neglect, including that which results from sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, or a pattern of severe neglect, and the child would be seriously injured or could not be taken into custody if it were necessary to first obtain a court order pursuant to RCW 13.34.050.
 2. If the child is taken into police protective custody, the child shall be transferred to the custody of Child Protective Services.
 3. The parents should be advised that the child will remain with Child Protective Services pending a court hearing.
- B. Based on a Juvenile Court pick-up order, RCW 13.34.050
- C. Writ of Habeas Corpus, RCW 7.36. VPD officers should contact the CCSO Child Recovery Unit if presented with a Writ of Habeas Corpus.

329.7.2 FORENSIC INTERVIEWS

A forensic interview is a structured conversation with a child intended to elicit detailed information about a possible event(s) the child may have experienced or witnessed. Child Abductions

330.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The Vancouver Police Department investigates reports of child abductions in this jurisdiction. The Vancouver Police Department will assist other agencies with child abduction cases if requested.

This policy is a guide to the recovery of abducted children and is subject to change as investigative techniques and case law changes. Not all investigation strategies listed in this policy are mandatory. These investigation techniques should be considered and tailored towards what is necessary in the recovery of the abducted child.

This policy establishes guidelines and responsibilities regarding the response to child abductions.

330.2 INITIAL PATROL RESPONSE

330.2.1 PATROL OFFICER INITIAL RESPONSE

The responding officer should attempt to obtain permission to search the residence of reporting party and/or residence the child was last seen to verify the child is in fact missing and not hiding.

If it is determined that the disappearance is an abduction, the responding officer should determine the circumstances of the abduction. Information such as suspect description, victim description, suspect vehicle description, parental custody status, and the location the victim was last seen should be obtained.

For an AMBER Alert to be issued, the following information should be obtained:

- a. Where the abduction took place.
- b. Specific physical description of the child.
 - Clothing worn when last seen
 - Height
 - Weight
 - Age
 - Hair length/color
 - Skin/Eye color
 - Additional distinguishing physical characteristics
- c. A physical description of the abductor.
 - Suspect clothing
 - Height
 - Weight
 - Age

Child Abductions

 - Skin/Eye color
 - Additional distinguishing physical characteristics
- d. Location last seen.
- e. Suspect vehicle description.
- Make
 - Model
 - Year (approx. older or newer)
 - Color
 - License plate state/number
 - Additional distinguishing physical characteristics

The responding officer shall contact an on-duty supervisor and have them respond to the scene.

The responding officer shall contact dispatch (CRESA) to broadcast information about the abduction to other patrol units and surrounding law enforcement agencies. This should include suspect/victim description, suspect vehicle description and any other information that may be pertinent. If enough information is available, the responding officer should issue a BOLO.

The responding officer should attempt to obtain a recent photograph of the abducted child for media release. Digital photographs are preferred if available.

330.2.2 PATROL SUPERVISOR INITIAL RESPONSE

The on-duty supervisor shall respond and ensure resources are deployed as appropriate.

If the criteria is met for an AMBER Alert, the on-duty supervisor shall contact CRESA and have them issue an AMBER Alert per the instructions in the Public Alerts Policy.

Notify the District Lieutenant or Precinct Commander and contact the Digital Evidence Cybercrime Unit (DECU) supervisor for assistance.

The on-duty supervisor should contact the Public Information Coordinator (PIC) to address incoming media questions and release of information to the public as needed.

The on-duty supervisor should, if needed, contact Trauma Intervention Program (TIP) volunteers and have them respond to the scene.

330.3 INVESTIGATIONS RESPONSE

The primary DECU investigator will assign an Incoming Leads Team Leader, a MACE Missing/Abducted Child Excel (MACE) Team Leader, and a Neighborhood Canvass Team Leader.

After AMBER alerts are issued and information is released to the media, a high volume of phone calls with potential leads are expected. In order to manage the incoming telephone leads, CRESA

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Child Abductions

will provide phone lines to be utilized by VPD personnel. The Incoming Leads Team Leader will assign personnel to address incoming leads.

A command post should be established away from the area the abduction occurred and the missing child's residence.

A flyer with the abducted child's photograph should be generated for use during the neighborhood canvass.

Detectives/officers will be assigned to interview pertinent witnesses (e.g., family members, close associates, suspects). If interviews involve children witnesses, consider utilizing Child Justice Center (CJC) detectives.

A neighborhood canvass/search shall be performed. The Neighborhood Canvass Team Leader will supervise and address any questions concerning the search. Officers should document the address, who was contacted, and who else lives at each location.

An officer should be assigned as a family liaison to answer questions or concerns the family might have.

An officer should be assigned to video record the neighborhood the child is missing from. Focus should be made on vehicles in the neighborhood to include license plate numbers.

An officer should be assigned to locate nearby video surveillance (banks, ATMs, convenience stores, etc.) for possible leads. Seize video within 24 hours to prevent recording over.

In the case of suspected child abductions or mysterious disappearances of children, the federal kidnapping statute, 18 USC 1201, can be invoked and the FBI is authorized to immediately enter the investigation. The FBI National Center for the Analysis of Violent Crime (NCAVC) can provide assistance and resources if needed. Contact the local FBI office for these resources.

Consider the installation of recorders on all telephone lines coming into the missing child's residence as well as the ability to trap and trace incoming telephone calls. This could be important in the case of a ransom situation. The FBI can assist with this function.

Develop a detailed timeline of the missing child's known activities up to the time they were reported missing. Continue with timeline establishing when certain events are performed during the investigations. This timeline can be managed utilizing the MACE Application. VPD crime analysts also have the ability to provide this function.

If possible, seize and obtain consent to search for computers in the abducted child's residence for forensics.

Consider commercial garbage companies to coordinate trash dump of dumpsters.

330.3.1 INCOMING LEADS TEAM LEADER

The Incoming Leads Team Leader will manage all incoming leads coming in through CRESA. The Incoming Leads Team Leader will assign available Police Service Technicians (PST) to answer incoming telephone calls. If a PST is not available, officers can be utilized for this function.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Child Abductions

Missing/Abducted Child Excel (MACE) Lead forms will be provided to call takers to document all incoming telephone leads. MACE Lead forms and instructions are attached to the appendix. After a telephone lead has been obtained, the Incoming Leads Team Leader will send the MACE Lead form to the MACE Team Leader at the command post.

330.3.2 MACE (MISSING/ABDUCTED CHILD EXCEL) TEAM LEADER

MACE is a spreadsheet application that will run on Microsoft EXCEL (which is the standard spreadsheet application on most computers with the Microsoft Office Suite). It is designed as a simple system for tracking leads and other investigative steps in a missing or abducted child case.

The MACE Application is the leads management system utilized by the FBI. Instructions on how to use MACE and the MACE Application spreadsheet are attached to the appendix.

The MACE Team Leader will assign a PST or an officer to manage the MACE Application. All leads shall be reviewed by the MACE Team Leader and entered into the MACE Application prior to being assigned as follow-up.

Once a lead is entered into the MACE Application, the MACE Team Leader will assign the lead to officers for investigation. After the lead has been investigated, the MACE Lead form will be provided back to the MACE Team Leader for closure or reassignment.

The MACE Team Leader will provide all MACE Lead forms to the case officer for review.

330.3.3 NEIGHBORHOOD CANVASS/SEARCH TEAM LEADER

The Neighborhood Canvass/Search Team Leader will manage a physical search effort for the missing child. Prior to conducting a neighborhood canvass, consideration should be given in utilizing a search dog. Pacific Crest Search Dogs can be utilized for this purpose. Contact information for Pacific Crest Search Dogs is listed under resources in this policy.

Responsibilities of the Neighborhood Canvass/Search Team Leader include:

- a. Maintaining the Searcher Log which documents persons assigned to the search team.
- b. Assigning areas to be searched by team members and documenting the areas searched and persons contacted on the Neighborhood Canvass Log.
- c. Providing searchers with Neighborhood Canvass Forms.
- d. Providing the MACE Team Leader with results of search for input into the MACE Application for proper documentation.

Search teams will consist of two officers on each team. These teams will be assigned to contact all residences in the neighborhood the child resides and was last seen. When contacting home owners, attempt should be made to obtain permission to search their residence. A Ferrier Warning should be provided when obtaining permission. In addition to searching the living areas of the residence, attic and crawl spaces should be searched. If permission is denied document the residence and who contact was made with if possible. If anything suspicious or unusual is observed at the residence, contact a DECU detective immediately.

Standards of Conduct

339.1 PURPOSE, SCOPE AND PHILOSOPHY

This policy establishes standards of conduct that are consistent with the values and mission of the Vancouver Police Department and expectations of its members. The standards contained in this policy are not intended to be an exhaustive list of requirements and prohibitions, but they do identify many of the important matters concerning member conduct. Members are also subject to provisions contained throughout this manual as well as any additional guidance on conduct that may be disseminated by the Department or the member's supervisors.

The public demands exemplary conduct from all police personnel and, although public scrutiny is particularly intense for uniformed personnel, it includes all members of the Department. The actions of any one member of this Department which are found or perceived to be excessive, unjustified or illegal will be criticized more severely than with comparable actions by person in other occupations. For these reasons, rules must be established to govern the conduct of all members both on and off duty.

This policy applies to all employees (full, part-time), and volunteers.

339.2 DEFINITIONS

Bad Faith: A dishonest belief or purpose or a fraudulent intent.

Criminal Offender: Includes any person convicted of a felony or anyone on parole or probation or required to register as a sex offender.

Employee: Any certified law enforcement officer, professional staff or volunteer.

Good Faith: An honest belief or purpose and an absence of fraudulent intent.

Intoxicants: Any substance which, when taken into the body, impairs a person to a perceptible degree either physically and/or psychologically.

Office of the Chief: The Chief of Police and Assistant Chiefs of Police.

Procedurally Just Conduct: Procedural justice is a core organizational value. Procedural justice is about fair processes and experiences. It applies to supervisor-employee relations, community-police interactions, and the criminal justice system. The pillars of procedural justice have application throughout the organization at all levels (executive, supervisor, frontline, and community). Perceptions of procedurally just encounters are based on four central features:

1. Voice: Individuals are given a chance to express their concerns and participate in decision-making processes by telling their side of the story
2. Respect: Decisions are unbiased and guided by consistent and transparent reasoning
3. Neutrality: Decisions are unbiased and guided by consistent and transparent reasoning
4. Trustworthiness: Decision-makers convey trustworthy motive and concern about the well-being of those impacted by their decisions

Standards of Conduct

Sexual Contact: As defined in RCW 9A.44.010

Sexual Intercourse: As defined in RCW 9A.44.010

Wrongdoing: Conduct that is contrary to law or contrary to the policies of the witnessing officer's agency, provided that the conduct is not de minimis or technical in nature. For purposes of this policy, de minimis means "too trivial or minor to merit consideration."

339.3 POLICY

Employees shall not knowingly or negligently violate the provisions of the Vancouver Police Department policy manual, operating procedures or other written directive of an authorized supervisor.

Certain rules of conduct concern behavior off-duty; these are limited to the extent that official status, police authority or other job relatedness is involved. The standards set forth in this policy are not exclusive, and members are expected to meet the standards of the law enforcement profession at all times, to uphold the public trust and to act in a manner which is a credit to the Department and the profession at all times.

Any employee who questions the clarity or intent of a policy, procedure, or order will seek immediate clarification through the chain of command. Employees will, within their authority, enforce City of Vancouver and Vancouver Police Department policies, procedures, and orders. Report Preparation

The Vancouver Police Department is committed to documenting crimes and other police-related events that occur in its jurisdiction. The Vancouver Police Department will also assist other agencies by documenting crimes that have occurred in their jurisdiction if requested.

Writing police reports is a critical component of the responsibilities of employees who are tasked with documenting crime and other police-related events. Police reports provide a thorough, accurate, and timely written account of an employee's observations and actions throughout the course of his or her work. In turn, police reports serve as the foundation for ongoing investigations and prosecutions, help to refresh an officer's memory for court, guide strategic planning and tactical deployment of increasingly scarce resources, are a valuable officer safety tool, facilitate information sharing with others possessing the right and need to know the information documented, and provide victims with written documentation as evidence of their reported crime.

343.1.1 REPORT PREPARATION

Employees should ensure that reports are sufficiently detailed for their purpose and free from errors prior to submission. It is the responsibility of the assigned employee to complete and submit all reports taken during the shift before going off-duty unless permission to hold the report has been approved by a supervisor.

Handwritten reports or forms must be prepared legibly. If the report is not legible, the submitting employee may be required by the reviewing supervisor to promptly make corrections and resubmit the report. Employees who generate reports on computers are subject to all requirements of this policy.

All reports shall accurately reflect the identity of the persons involved, all pertinent information seen, heard or assimilated by any other sense, and any actions taken. Employees shall not suppress, conceal or distort the facts of any reported incident, nor shall any employee make a false report orally or in writing. The reporting employee's opinions shall not be included in reports.

343.1.2 DEFINITIONS

Bias Incident - Offensive derogatory comments directed at a person's sexual orientation, race, or other protected status which causes fear and/or concern in the targeted community during a non-criminal incident.

Police Report - Documentation of a crime or incident made in the Department's Records Management System (RMS)

343.2 REQUIRED REPORTING

Written RMS police reports are required in all of the following situations unless otherwise approved by a supervisor.

Report Preparation

343.2.1 CRIMINAL ACTIVITY REPORTING

When an employee responds to a call for service, or as a result of self-initiated activity becomes aware of any activity where a crime has occurred, the employee is required to document the activity in a police report. The fact that a victim is not desirous of prosecution is not an exception to completing a report. The following are examples of required police report documentation regardless of whether complete information pertaining to each element of the crime is available. If additional information is received at a later time, a supplemental report will be written:

- (a) In every instance where one or more of the following crimes has been reported:
 - i. a felony;
 - ii. a Part I crime (i.e., criminal homicide, forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny-theft (to include misdemeanor theft, motor vehicle theft and arson);
 - iii. an assault, to include assault by mutual combat.
- (b) In every instance where a Hate Crime or a Crime with Bias Elements is reported.
- (c) In every case where any force is used against any person by police personnel.
- (d) All incidents involving domestic violence.
- (e) All arrests.

343.2.2 NON-CRIMINAL ACTIVITY

Incidents that require documentation on the appropriate approved report include:

- (a) Any time an officer points a firearm at any person.
- (b) Any use of force against any person by a member of this Department.
- (c) Any firearm discharge.
- (d) Any time a person is reported missing, regardless of jurisdiction.
- (e) Any found property or evidence.
- (f) Any dispatched traffic collisions meeting the minimum reporting monetary level.
- (g) Any drug or alcohol related accident or arrest.
- (h) Suspicious incidents that may indicate a potential for crimes against children or that a child's safety is in jeopardy.
- (i) All protective custody or emergent detentions.
- (j) Suspicious incidents that may place the public or others at risk.
- (k) Whenever the employee believes the circumstances should be documented or at the direction of a supervisor.
- (l) Verbal domestic disturbances.
- (m) Every instance where a Bias Incident is reported.
- (n) Any time an Officer points a taser at another person, outside of a training environment

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Report Preparation

In cases where a criminal offense did not occur, but a police report is completed to document the incident, employees should classify the report consistent with the initial allegation or call for service. Then a clearance code of "unfounded" or other appropriate title should be used. The offense classification of Information, or INFO.RPT, should be used sparingly, and typically reserved for incidents where no crime was ever alleged to have occurred.

343.2.3 DEATH CASES

Death investigations require specific investigation methods depending on circumstances. An officer handling a death investigation should notify and apprise a supervisor of the circumstances surrounding the incident and a determination will be made on how to proceed.

343.2.4 INJURY OR DAMAGE BY CITY PERSONNEL

A police report shall be taken if an injury occurs that is a result of an act of a City employee. Additionally, a police report shall be taken when any damage to City property or City equipment is a result of an act of a City employee.

343.2.5 MISCELLANEOUS INJURIES

Any injury that is reported to this Department shall require a police report when a supervisor deems it necessary and directs an employee to document the incident.

343.3 GENERAL POLICY OF EXPEDITIOUS REPORTING

In general, all officers and supervisors shall act with promptness and efficiency in the preparation and processing of all reports. An incomplete report, unorganized reports or reports delayed without supervisory approval are not acceptable. Reports shall be processed according to established priorities or according to a special need under exceptional circumstances.

343.4 REPORT CORRECTIONS

Supervisors shall review reports for content and accuracy. If a correction is necessary, the reviewing supervisor should return the report to the reporting employee for correction as soon as practical. It shall be the responsibility of the originating officer to ensure that any report returned for correction is processed by the end of their next scheduled work shift for approval by a supervisor.

343.5 REPORT CHANGES OR ALTERATIONS

Reports that have been approved by a supervisor and submitted to the Records Division for filing and distribution shall not have its core narrative or an individual's information modified or altered except by way of a supplemental report.

Report coding information may be amended by Records Division staff or the Case Management Sergeant to reflect state and national data filing requirements.

Reviewed reports that have not yet been approved by a supervisor may be corrected or modified by the report writer.

343.6 PRIVATIZING SENSITIVE AND CONFIDENTIAL CASES

Upon approval from a supervisor, police reports can be made private, and not accessible by users of the VPD Records Management System (RMS). Employees should only privatize cases where the release of critical or sensitive information could jeopardize the investigation or the safety of an individual.

Supervisors must balance the decision to privatize cases and critical information against maintaining transparency within the department RMS.

In utilizing the privatization features, it is imperative to include the appropriate Supervisors/ Commanding Officers, Records Division Staff, and members of the Prosecutor's Office as part of the group who can view the case. Each approving supervisor is responsible to work with the Case Management Sergeant or Records Manager to set up the appropriate routing and notifications to ensure cases are not rendered inaccessible by those who need to view them as part of their duties.

343.6.1 PROCEDURE

- A. Definitions
 - 1. Private - Cases that will only display a case number and a contact person to request information about the case.
 - 2. Private Invisible - Cases that do not appear at all when searched. The Vancouver Police Department will not be utilizing this level of privatization due to public records liability.
- B. It is the responsibility of supervisors to monitor and approve their unit's privatization usages.
- C. The following are a list of cases that are acceptable to privatize:
 - 1. Sex Assault
 - 2. Child Abuse
 - 3. Gang Cases
 - 4. Incidents involving Police Employees
 - 5. Drug Trafficking Organization Cases
 - 6. Homicide Investigations
 - 7. Officer Involved Shootings involving the Vancouver Police Department
- D. Just because a case may be privatized does not automatically mean that it should be privatized. Supervisors should strive to privatize only cases containing information that is critical or sensitive in nature, and when the release of that information could jeopardize the investigation or the safety of an individual. If cases have minimal confidential or sensitive information, the officer should consider privatizing only the critical information. Privatizing the entire case may not be necessary.
- E. The privatization status of a case does not release the Vancouver Police Department from its due diligence to comply with the Public Records Act.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Report Preparation

- F. At the first opportunity to un-privatize a case (i.e., adjudication of a case, referral of a case for prosecution, or the statute of limitation is up), the investigating officer or supervisor shall notify the Case Management supervisor or Records Division manager to un-privatize the case.
- G. Copies of privatized reports shall be released only for law enforcement purposes upon authorization of the investigator assigned to the case or of a supervisory sergeant in the investigative unit concerned.
- H. Cases which are privatized will be reviewed at least quarterly by the Records Manager to determine if there is a persistent need for the privatized portion of the case to remain private. Such reviews should be documented as part of the case.

343.7 CASE MANAGEMENT

Case management is a system to manage investigative resources, increase investigative effectiveness, and improve case solvability. The process involves regulating case flow, monitoring investigative activities, and assessment of individual performance.

Investigative resources should be applied to those cases and investigations that can most benefit from expenditure of the resources. Department supervisors will screen and assign cases, establish deadlines for reporting investigative progress, and manage investigator caseloads.

Department resources should be dedicated to investigating serious crime, incidents of community importance, and cases that are likely to be solved and cleared by arrest.

343.7.1 ASSIGNMENT OF CASES - PATROL

- A. Patrol officers and police service technicians will conduct follow-up investigations:
 - 1. On cases they initiate from assigned calls, as circumstances and workload dictate.
 - 2. On other cases, as assigned by a supervisor.
- B. The approving supervisor will review each case and determine whether further follow-up investigation by patrol officers is justified. Cases returned to the initiating officer or another assigned officer for further follow-up investigation remain in open status, until completed.
- C. Cases which do not merit follow-up investigation shall be suspended.
- D. Cases found to be linked together by crime analysis shall be routed to a supervisor.
- E. In the event that new investigative information is developed on a previously suspended case, the officer who discovered the new information is responsible for bringing it to the attention of a supervisor for evaluation and disposition.

343.7.2 ASSIGNMENT OF CASES - INVESTIGATIONS DIVISION

Investigations Division case assignments will be made by the unit supervisor. The unit supervisor will review each case that is referred to their unit to determine whether further follow-up investigation by detective or patrol officers is justified. Cases returned to the initiating officer or assigned to a detective for further follow-up investigation will remain in open status until completed.

Vancouver Police Department

Report Preparation

Each unit supervisor is responsible for tracking investigator assignments, and ensuring that cases are closed in an appropriate manner.

343.7.3 DISPOSITIONS - GENERAL

The Department complies with National Incident Based Reporting System (NIBRS) guidelines in reporting the incidence and disposition of cases. There are two general types of case dispositions: Case Clearances and Case Suspensions. Case clearances involve those cases cleared by arrest, cleared exceptional, and cleared unfounded. Case suspensions involve those cases closed by suspension

- A. Cleared by Arrest: An offense is cleared by arrest or solved for crime reporting purposes when at least one person is arrested, charged with the commission of the offense, and presented to the prosecuting authorities for prosecution.
- B. Cleared Exceptional: An offense is cleared exceptional when the investigation establishes the identity of the person responsible for the commission of the crime, but that person is not arrested, charged or prosecuted for that offense. In order to qualify for an exceptional clearance, the following questions must be answered "Yes":
 - 1. Has the investigation definitely established the identity of the offender?
 - 2. Is there enough information to support an arrest, charge and turn the suspect over to the court for prosecution?
 - 3. Are there circumstances beyond police control that prevent the prosecuting authority from prosecuting the offender?
- C. Clear Unfounded: A case may be cleared unfounded if the investigation reveals that the reported offense did not occur, or the investigation fails to develop sufficient elements to support the allegation that a crime has been committed.
- D. Case Suspensions: Cases are suspended when investigative leads have been exhausted and there remains no reasonable means by which to clear the case.

343.8 ADMINISTRATIVE REPORTING

The purpose of this section is to provide for systematic delivery of management information to the Chief of Police and each Division Commander. These Reports will consist of the following:

- A. Daily Report: CRESA routinely transmits a daily activity log.
- B. Annual Report: Selected monthly statistics and unit activity reports will be compiled into an annual, yearend report to be submitted to the Chief of Police. Such information will be made available to the public upon request.
- C. Periodic Reports: Reports on a variety of subjects are requested from employees on an individual basis throughout the year. The topics, responsible parties, and timeline for completion will be designated by the supervisor making the request.

This policy provides guidelines for media releases and media access to scenes of disasters, criminal investigations, emergencies and other law enforcement activities.

345.2 RESPONSIBILITIES

Members of the Vancouver Police Department who speak to the media about agency matters shall confirm that they do so in accordance with this policy. The ultimate authority and responsibility for the release of information to the media shall remain with the Office of the Chief; however, in situations not warranting immediate notice to the Chief of Police, and in situations where the Office of the Chief has given prior approval, the Public Affairs Manager, designated Public Information Officer(s) (PIO) or on-duty Shift Sergeant may prepare and release information to the media in accordance with this policy and the applicable law.

The Public Affairs Manager, or above referenced designee, shall respond to media requests for information through means that are appropriate for the situation. Information may be released via social media, email, written media release, by phone, in person or a combination of multiple communication methods. Information will be released as promptly as circumstances allow.

345.3 MEDIA ACCESS

Authorized members of the media shall be provided access to scenes of disasters, criminal investigations, emergencies and other law enforcement activities subject to the following conditions:

The TFR request should include specific information regarding the perimeter and altitude necessary for the incident and should be requested through the appropriate control tower. If the control tower is not known, the Federal Aviation Administration should be contacted (14 CFR 91.137).
- (g) No member of this Department who is under investigation shall be subjected to media visits or interviews without the consent of the involved employee.

Department members shall not jeopardize a tactical operation in order to accommodate the news media. All comments to the media shall be coordinated through the Public Affairs Manager or a supervisor.

345.3.1 PROVIDING ADVANCE INFORMATION

To protect the safety and rights of officers and other persons, advance information about planned actions by law enforcement personnel, such as movement of persons in custody or the execution of an arrest or search warrant, should not be disclosed to the news media, nor should media representatives be invited to be present at such actions except with the prior approval of the Office of the Chief.

Any exceptions to the above should only be considered for the furtherance of legitimate law enforcement purposes. Prior to approving any exception, the Office of the Chief will consider, at minimum, whether the release of information or presence of the media would unreasonably endanger any individual, prejudice the rights of any person or is otherwise prohibited by law.

345.4 NEWS CONFERENCES

News conferences will be conducted only with the approval of the Chief or designee. Such approval must be obtained via the chain of command.

345.5 SCOPE OF INFORMATION SUBJECT TO RELEASE

- (b) The date, time, location, case number, name, birth date and charges for each person arrested by this Department unless the release of such information would endanger the safety of any individual or jeopardize the successful completion of any ongoing investigation.
- (c) The time and location of other significant law enforcement activities or requests for service with a brief summary of the incident subject to the restrictions of this policy and applicable law.

It is the policy of the Vancouver Police Department to promptly respond to requests for assistance by other law enforcement agencies, subject to available resources and consistent with the applicable laws and policies of this Department.

350.3 ASSISTING OUTSIDE AGENCIES

Generally, requests for any type of assistance from another agency should be routed to the Shift Sergeant's office for approval. In some instances, a mutual aid agreement or other established protocol may exist that eliminates the need for approval of individual requests.

When another law enforcement agency requests assistance from this Department, the Shift Sergeant may authorize, if available, an appropriate number of personnel to assist. Members are reminded that their actions when rendering assistance must conform with applicable laws and be consistent with the policies of this Department.

Officers may respond to a request for emergency assistance, however, they shall notify a supervisor of their activity as soon as practicable.

Arrestees may be temporarily detained by this Department until arrangements for transportation are made by the outside agency. Probation violators who are temporarily detained by this Department will not ordinarily be booked at this Department. When transportation assistance is rendered, a report may be prepared and submitted by the handling member as directed by a supervisor.

Any on-duty officer who engages in law enforcement activities of any type that are not part of a mutual aid request and take place outside the jurisdiction of the Vancouver Police Department shall notify his/her supervisor or Dispatch as soon as practicable. This requirement does not apply to special enforcement details or multi-agency units that regularly work in multiple jurisdictions.

350.4 REQUESTING OUTSIDE ASSISTANCE

If assistance is needed from another agency, the member requesting assistance should, if practicable, first notify a supervisor. The handling member or supervisor should direct assisting personnel to where they are needed and to whom they should report when they arrive.

The Clark County Sheriff's Office has established a system to periodically, and at least once annually, verify that a registrant remains in compliance with his/her registration requirements after the initial registration. This verification should include, as applicable:

- (a) Efforts to confirm residence using an unobtrusive method, such as an Internet search, drive-by of the declared residence or address verification under RCW 9A.44.135.
 - (a) When notice is received that a sex offender is moving outside the jurisdiction of the Vancouver Police Department, the Digital Evidence Cybercrime Unit (DECU) supervisor is responsible for address verification until the registrant completes registration with a new residential address (RCW 9A.44.130(5)).
- (b) Review of information on the WASPC Sex Offender Information website.
- (c) Contact with a registrant's community correction officer.

Any discrepancies with sex/kidnapping offenders should be reported to ACCESS (A Central Computerized Enforcement Service System), which is administered by WSP, and, in the case of sex offenders only, to WASPC.

The Clark County Sheriff's Office has established a procedure to routinely disseminate information regarding registered offenders to Vancouver Police Department personnel, including timely updates regarding new or relocated registrants.

The Vancouver Police Department shall be responsible for verifying the registration of sex/kidnapping offenders within their jurisdiction.

354.4.1 OFFENDERS TRAVELING OUT OF THE COUNTRY

When written notice is received from a registrant who intends to travel outside of the United States, the Clark County Sheriff's Office shall notify the United States Marshals Service as soon as practicable after receipt of notification and also of any further notice of changes or cancellation of travel plans (RCW 9A.44.130(3)).

354.5 DISSEMINATION OF PUBLIC INFORMATION

Vancouver Police members will not unilaterally make a public notification advising the community of a particular sex/kidnapping registrant's presence in the community. Police employees who identify a significant risk or other public safety issue associated with a sex/kidnapping registrant should promptly advise their supervisor. The supervisor should evaluate the request and forward the information to the Chief of Police if warranted. A determination will be made by the Chief of Police, with the assistance of legal counsel as necessary, whether such a public alert should be made.

The Clark County Sheriff's Office may also disclose relevant, necessary and accurate information to the public at large for sex offenders registered as homeless or transient.

The Vancouver Police Department may, at its discretion, inform members of the community of the status of a registered offender when it is necessary to verify the reported address of an offender or in the course of an investigation for failure to register as a sex/kidnapping offender. Such notifications may be made with consideration of the above detailed risk levels.

Identity Theft

360.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy is intended to provide guidelines for the reporting and investigating identity theft crimes.

360.2 POLICY

This Department will initiate a police report whenever a person reasonably suspects that his/her financial information or means of identification has been unlawfully obtained, used, or transferred to another person or entity in all cases where the victim resides or works within this jurisdiction, or where any part of the crime occurred within this jurisdiction.

360.3 REPORTING

An employee receiving the report will ensure that a report is completed and provide the victim with a case number. If the victim requests a copy of the report, they can obtain a copy by contacting the Vancouver Police Records Division and obtain one without charge (RCW 9.35.050).

In cases where the reporting party does not reside or work within this jurisdiction and there is no known or suspected criminal activity occurring within this jurisdiction, the reporting party may be referred to the appropriate law enforcement agency having jurisdiction. If it is not reasonably practical for the reporting party to file a timely report with his/her home jurisdiction, the receiving employee should take a courtesy incident report to be forwarded to the agency having jurisdiction.

Reports should include all known incidents of fraudulent activity (e.g., credit card number applied for in the victim's name when the victim has never made such an application).

The employee preparing the report should, if possible, cross-reference all other known reports made by the victim (e.g., US Secret Service, credit reporting bureaus, US Postal Service and Department of Licensing) with all known report numbers.

Communications with Persons with Disabilities

368.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy provides guidance to all members when communicating with individuals with disabilities, including those who are deaf or hard of hearing, have impaired speech or vision, or are blind.

368.1.1 DEFINITIONS

Definitions related to this policy include:

Americans with Disability Act (ADA) - The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) prohibits discrimination against people with disabilities in several areas, including employment, transportation, public accommodations, communications and access to state and local government' programs and services.

Auxiliary Aids and Services – Tools used to communicate with people who have a disability or impairment. They include but are not limited to, Qualified Interpreters (defined below) on-site or through video remote interpreting ("VRI") services; notetakers; real-time computer-aided transcription services; written materials; exchange of written notes; telephone handset amplifiers; assistive listening devices; assistive listening systems; telephones compatible with hearing aids; closed caption decoders; open and closed captioning, including real-time captioning; voice, text, and video-based telecommunications products and systems, including text telephones ("TTYs"), videophones, and captioned telephones, or equally effective telecommunications devices; videotext displays; accessible electronic and information technology; or other effective methods of making aurally (by means of the ears or the sense of hearing) delivered information available to individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing (28 C.F.R. § 35.104).

Communication Disability - is defined as a person with a disability (as defined by the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12102(2); 28 C.F.R. § 35.104) that impacts their ability to communicate.

Deaf or hard of hearing - An individual who has or is regarded as having substantially limited hearing with or without assistance.

Field Assessment Form (FAF) – an infographic which allows a person with a Communication Disability to point to a preferred communication icon.

Qualified interpreter - An interpreter who, via a VRI service or an on-site appearance, is able to interpret effectively, accurately, and impartially, both receptively and expressively, using any necessary specialized vocabulary, given the individual who is deaf or hard of hearing's language skills and education. Qualified interpreters include, for example, sign language interpreters, oral transliterators, and cued-language transliterators (28 C.F.R. § 35.104). To be a Qualified Interpreter, the interpreter must be able to interpret in the language the individual with a disability uses (e.g., ASL or Signed English).

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Communications with Persons with Disabilities

368.2 POLICY

It is the policy of the Vancouver Police Department to reasonably ensure that people with disabilities, including but not limited to victims, witnesses, suspects, arrestees or general members of the public requesting police service have equal access to law enforcement services, programs and activities.

In determining the type of Auxiliary Aid or Service necessary to comply with the ADA, VPD employees will give primary consideration to the expressed preference for a particular Auxiliary Aid or Service by an individual who has a Communication Disability (28 C.F.R. § 35.160). Whenever a member of the community self-identifies as having a Communication Disability, or whom the Department member reasonably believes to have a Communication Disability, the Department member shall use the Department approved Field Assessment Form (FAF) to determine the expressed preference for an Auxiliary Aid or Service. If using the FAF compromises officer safety, the Department member will defer use until the immediate safety issues are resolved. When there is an emergency involving an imminent threat to the safety or welfare of an individual or the public, VPD may deviate from giving primary consideration to the expressed preference until the emergency has passed.

The Department will not discriminate against or deny any individual access to services, rights or programs based upon disabilities.

368.3 AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (ADA) COORDINATOR

Pursuant to 28 CFR 35.107, the Chief of Police shall delegate certain responsibilities to an ADA Coordinator. The ADA Coordinator shall be appointed by, and directly responsible, to the Administration Bureau Assistant Chief or the authorized designee. The VPD Audit Sergeant is currently assigned the duties of VPD ADA Coordinator. The ADA Coordinator's name, work location address, email address and work telephone number shall be on the department website as well as posted conspicuously in public areas of all precincts.

The responsibilities of the ADA Coordinator shall include, but not be limited to:

- (a) Working with the City ADA coordinator regarding the Vancouver Police Department's efforts to ensure equal access to services, programs, and activities.
- (b) Shall have training relating to the legal rights of persons with disabilities, including but not limited to the obligations of public entities under federal and state laws covering individuals with Communication Disabilities.
- (c) Developing reports, new procedures, or recommending modifications to this policy.
- (d) Acting as a liaison with local disability advocacy groups or other disability groups regarding access to Department services, programs and activities.
- (e) Ensuring that a list of qualified interpreter services is maintained and available to each Shift Supervisor and Clark Regional Emergency Services Agency (CRESA). The list should include information regarding the following:
 1. Contact information

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Communications with Persons with Disabilities

- (g) Ensuring signage is posted in appropriate areas, indicating that auxiliary aids or services are available free of charge to people with disabilities.
- (h) Ensuring appropriate processes are in place to provide for the prompt and equitable resolution of complaints and inquiries regarding discrimination in access to Department services, programs and activities.
- (i) To comply with 28 CFR 35.107, the ADA Coordinator, or their upper chain of command, will work with PSU to investigate communication disability complaints
- (j) Maintain a log of all communication with persons with communication disabilities if they are a victim, witness or suspect in a crime.

368.4 FACTORS TO CONSIDER

Because the nature of any law enforcement contact may vary substantially from one situation to the next, members of this Department should consider all information reasonably available to them when determining how to communicate with an individual with a disability. Members should carefully balance all known factors in an effort to reasonably ensure people who are disabled have equal access to services, programs and activities. These factors may include, but are not limited to:

- (a) Members should not assume that effective communication is being achieved. The fact an individual appears to be nodding in agreement does not always mean he/she completely understands the message. When there is any doubt, members should ask the individual, if time allows, to communicate back or otherwise demonstrate their understanding.
- (b) The nature of the disability (e.g., deafness or blindness vs. hard of hearing or low vision).
- (c) The nature of the law enforcement contact (e.g., emergency vs. non-emergency, custodial vs. consensual contact).
- (d) Use of a Video Remote Interpreting service may not be appropriate when an individual has limited ability to move their head, hands or arms; vision or cognitive issues; significant pain or emotional instability; or visibility of the screen. In such cases, VPD will contact its contracted agency as soon as is practicable to obtain an in-person interpreter.

368.5 INITIAL AND IMMEDIATE CONSIDERATIONS

Recognizing that various law enforcement encounters may be potentially volatile and/or emotionally charged, members should remain alert to the possibility of communication problems.

Members should exercise special care in the use of all gestures, and verbal and written communication to minimize initial confusion and misunderstanding when dealing with any individual with known or suspected disabilities.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Communications with Persons with Disabilities

In a non-emergency situation, when a member knows or suspects an individual requires assistance to effectively communicate, the member shall identify the individual's choice of Auxiliary Aid or Service. Members will use an approved Field Assessment Form to inquire as to the individual with a Communication Disability's preference for Auxiliary Aids and Services to achieve effective communication, unless doing so would compromise safety.

The individual's preferred communication method must be honored unless another effective method of communication exists under the circumstances (28 CFR 35.160).

Factors to consider when determining whether an alternative method is effective include:

- (a) The methods of communication usually used by the individual.
- (b) The nature, length and complexity of the communication involved.
- (c) The context of the communication.

In emergency situations involving an imminent threat to the safety or welfare of any person, members may use whatever auxiliary aids and services that reasonably appear effective under the circumstances. This may include, for example, exchanging written notes or using the services of a person who knows sign language but is not a qualified interpreter, even if the person who is deaf or hard of hearing would prefer a qualified sign language interpreter or another appropriate auxiliary aid or service. Once the emergency has ended, the continued method of communication should be reconsidered. The member should inquire as to the individual's preference and give primary consideration to that preference.

If an individual who is deaf, hard of hearing or has impaired speech must be handcuffed while in the custody of the Vancouver Police Department, consideration should be given, safety permitting, to placing the handcuffs in the front of the body to facilitate communication using sign language or writing.

In cases where there is an imminent threat to the safety or welfare of an individual or the public, VPD must timely provide a Qualified Interpreter when the imminent threat to safety has passed.

368.6 TYPES OF ASSISTANCE AVAILABLE

Vancouver Police Department members shall never refuse to assist an individual with disabilities who is requesting assistance because of an actual or perceived disability. The Department will not charge anyone to receive Auxiliary Aids or Services, nor shall they require anyone to furnish their own Auxiliary Aid or Service as a condition for receiving assistance. The Department will make every reasonable effort to provide equal access and timely assistance to individuals who are disabled through a variety of services.

A person who has a Communication Disability may choose to accept Department provided Auxiliary Aids or Services, or they may choose to provide their own.

Department provided Auxiliary Aids or Services may include, but are not limited to, the assistance methods described in this policy. (e.g., see subsections 368.7, 368.8, and 368.9 of this Policy)

Vancouver Police Department

Communications with Persons with Disabilities

368.7 AUDIO RECORDINGS AND ENLARGED PRINT

The Department may develop audio recordings to assist people who are blind or have a visual impairment with accessing important information. If such a recording is not available, members may read aloud from the appropriate form, for example a personnel complaint form, or if available provide forms with enlarged print.

368.8 QUALIFIED INTERPRETERS

A Qualified Interpreter shall be provided whenever it is necessary to afford equal access to programs, activities or services. A Qualified Interpreter may be needed in lengthy or complex transactions (e.g., interviewing a victim, witness, suspect or arrestee) if the individual to be interviewed normally relies on sign language or speechreading (lip-reading) to understand what others are saying. The Qualified Interpreter shall not be a person with an interest in the case or the investigation. A person providing interpretation services may be required to establish the accuracy and trustworthiness of the interpretation in a court proceeding.

Qualified Interpreters should be:

- (a) Available within a reasonable amount of time but in no event longer than one hour (for VRI services) and 24 hours for in person services if requested.
- (b) Experienced in providing interpretation services related to law enforcement matters.
- (c) Familiar with the use of VRI and/or video remote interpreting services.
- (d) Certified in either American Sign Language (ASL) or Signed English (SE).
- (e) Able to understand and adhere to the interpreter role without deviating into other roles, such as counselor or legal adviser.
- (f) Knowledgeable of the ethical issues involved when providing interpreter services.

Members should use Department approved procedures to request a Qualified Interpreter at the earliest reasonable opportunity, and generally not more than 15 minutes after a request for an interpreter has been made or it is reasonably apparent that an interpreter is needed. No individual who is disabled shall be required to provide his/her own interpreter (28 CFR 35.160).

368.9 VIDEOPHONES, TTY AND RELAY SERVICES

In situations where an individual without a disability would have access to a telephone (e.g., booking or attorney contacts), members must also provide those who are, deaf or hard of hearing, have impaired speech or vision, or are blind the opportunity to place calls using an available Videophone or TTY (also known as a telecommunications device for deaf people, or TDD). Members shall provide additional time, as needed, for effective communication due to the slower nature of Videophone interpretation services, TTY and TDD communications.

The Department will accept all TTY or TDD calls placed by those who are deaf or hard of hearing and received via a telecommunications relay service (28 CFR 35.162).

Note that relay services translate verbatim, so the conversation must be conducted as if speaking directly to the caller.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Communications with Persons with Disabilities

VPD will ensure that the privacy of telephone calls by individuals using a videophone is equal to that of other telephone calls.

VRI will not be used whenever it is not effective, for example, due to an individual's limited ability to move his or her head, hands or arms; vision or cognitive issues; significant pain or emotional instability; or visibility of the screen. In such cases where VRI is not effective, VPD member will contact the contracted language service provider as soon as is practicable to obtain an on-site interpreter. The interpreter must arrive within 24-hours of a request.

368.10 COMMUNITY VOLUNTEERS, FAMILY AND FRIENDS

While community volunteers, family or friends may offer to assist with interpretation, members should carefully consider the circumstances before relying on such individuals. The nature of the contact and relationship between the individual with the disability and the person offering services must be carefully considered (e.g., victim/suspect). In general, members shall not rely on an adult accompanying the individual with a disability to interpret or facilitate communication except:

- (a) In an emergency involving imminent threat to the safety or welfare of an individual or the public where there is no interpreter available.
- (b) Where the individual with a disability specifically requests that the accompanying adult interpret or facilitate communication, the accompanying adult agrees to provide such assistance, and the reliance on that adult for such assistance is appropriate under the circumstances. (28 CFR 35.160)

Minor children shall not be relied upon to interpret or facilitate communication, except:

- (a) In an emergency involving imminent threat to the safety or welfare of an individual or the public where there is no interpreter available.

368.11 REPORTING

Any Department employee who communicates with a person with a communication disability, who is a victim, suspect or witness of a crime, shall report and document the encounter in the related police report. The type of information required in the report is the following:

1. The Auxiliary Aid or Service provided.
2. If there was a delay in providing the Auxiliary Aid or Service, including but not limited to the response time of an on-site interpreter.
3. If no Auxiliary Aid or Service was provided, an explanatory statement regarding the reason for the delay or non-provision of the requested service (i.e. an imminent threat to the person or employee).

All police reports of this type shall be forwarded to the Department ADA Coordinator.

No report is required for non-criminal police service interaction.

368.12 FIELD ENFORCEMENT

Field enforcement will generally include such contacts as traffic stops, pedestrian stops, serving warrants and restraining orders, crowd/traffic control and other routine field contacts that may

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Communications with Persons with Disabilities

involve individuals with disabilities. The scope and nature of these activities and contacts will inevitably vary.

When a member of the community with a Communication Disability indicates their communication needs (either using the FAF, or through any other form of communication), Department members will timely provide the appropriate Auxiliary Aid or Service to the community member, giving primary consideration to the form of communication identified by the individual. If the Department member is uncertain how to proceed, they will immediately contact their supervisor for guidance.

In addition to circumstances in which a community member expressly requests the provision of a Qualified Interpreter (as defined by this policy), Department members must also timely provide a Qualified Interpreter in the following circumstances:

- (a) When conducting a criminal investigation involving a person (whether as a victim, witness, or suspect) who has a Communication Disability;
- (b) When conducting a criminal investigation involving a minor child (whether as a witness, victim, or suspect) and the parent(s), guardian, or custodian has a Communication Disability; and
- (c) Whenever a Department member believes a Qualified Interpreter is necessary to achieve Effective Communication.

To ensure effective communication with a person with a Communication Disability, members and/or supervisors must continually assess each situation and consider the length, complexity and importance of the communication, as well as the individual's preferred method of communication, when determining the type of resources to use and whether a qualified interpreter is needed.

Although not every situation can be addressed in this policy, it is important that members are able to effectively communicate the reason for a contact, the need for information and the meaning or consequences of any enforcement action. For example, it would be meaningless to verbally request consent to search if the officer is unable to effectively communicate with an individual who has a Communication Disability requires communications assistance.

Members should obtain the assistance of a Qualified Interpreter before placing an individual with a Communication Disability under arrest. Individuals who are arrested and are assisted by service animals should be permitted to make arrangements for the care of such animals prior to transport.

368.13 CUSTODIAL INTERROGATIONS

In an effort to ensure the rights of individuals who have a Communication Disability are protected during a custodial interrogation, this Department will provide Qualified Interpreter services before beginning an interrogation unless exigent circumstances exist. The use of a VRI service should be considered, where appropriate, if a live interpreter is not available. Miranda warnings shall be provided to suspects who have a Communication Disability by a Qualified Interpreter.

If the suspect is under arrest for a felony crime, or the suspect is a juvenile under arrest for any crime, any custodial interrogation must be audio recorded. If the custodial interrogation takes place at a jail, police or sheriff's station, holding cell, or correctional or detention facility, the electronic recording must be both audio and video. There are limited exceptions to the electronic recording requirement such as spontaneous statements, exigent circumstances, refusal to be recorded by the suspect, interview by another agency, reasonable belief that recording is not required, reasonable belief of a safety concern or equipment malfunction. Officers that do not electronically record a custodial interrogation must author a report explaining why the interview was not recorded.

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Communications with Persons with Disabilities

Prior to the custodial interrogation of a juvenile (any person under the age of eighteen) they shall be provided with access to an attorney for consultation prior to waiving any of their constitutional rights. The juvenile is prohibited from waiving their right to be provided access to an attorney.

368.14 ARRESTS AND BOOKINGS

If an individual with speech or hearing disabilities is arrested, the arresting officer shall use Department approved procedures to provide a qualified interpreter as soon as reasonably practicable, unless the individual indicates he/she prefers a different auxiliary aid or service or the officer reasonably determines another effective method of communication exists under the circumstances.

When gathering information during the booking process, members should remain alert to the impediments that often exist when communicating with those who are deaf, hard of hearing, who have impaired speech or vision, are blind, or have other disabilities. In the interest of the arrestee's health and welfare, the safety and security of the facility and to protect individual rights, it is important that accurate medical screening and booking information be obtained. If necessary, members should seek the assistance of a qualified interpreter whenever there is concern that accurate information cannot be obtained or booking instructions may not be properly understood by the individual.

Individuals who require and possess personally owned communication aids (e.g., hearing aids, cochlear processors) should be permitted to retain them while in custody of an officer.

368.15 COMPLAINTS

The Department shall ensure individuals with disabilities who wish to file a complaint regarding members of this Department are able to do so. The Department may provide a qualified interpreter or forms in enlarged print as appropriate. Complaints will be referred to the Department ADA Coordinator.

Investigations into such complaints shall be handled in accordance with the Internal Affairs Policy. Investigators shall use Qualified interpreters.

368.16 COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Community outreach programs and other such services offered by this Department are important to the ultimate success of more traditional law enforcement duties. This Department will continue to work with community groups, local businesses and neighborhoods to provide equal access to such programs and services.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Communications with Persons with Disabilities

368.17 TRAINING

To ensure all members who may have contact with individuals who are disabled are properly trained, the Department will provide periodic training that should include:

- (a) Awareness and understanding of this policy and related procedures, related forms and available resources.
- (b) Procedures for accessing qualified interpreters and other available resources.
- (c) Effective communication requirements of the ADA.
- (d) Prohibitions against using persons other than qualified interpreter for interpretations and the allowed exceptions.
- (e) How and when to use the FAF.
- (f) How and when to obtain a sign language interpreter or other auxiliary aids and services.
- (g) The modification requirement when handcuffing a person with a Communication Disability.
- (h) Working with in-person and telephone interpreters and related equipment.
- (i) The Department's prohibition against discrimination, retaliation, or coercion against any person who made, or is making, a complaint for exercising their rights of the ADA.
- (j) The name and base responsibilities of the Department ADA Coordinator and how they can be reached.

The Training Sergeant shall be responsible for ensuring new members receive training related to interacting with individuals who have disabilities, including individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing, who have impaired speech or vision, or are blind. Those who may have contact with such individuals should receive refresher training at least once every two years thereafter. The Training Sergeant shall maintain records of all training provided, and will retain a copy in each member's training file in accordance with established records retention schedules.

Solicitor License

369.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The Chief of Police is given the statutory responsibility to ensure a criminal history investigation is conducted when an application for Solicitor License is received by the City of Vancouver.

If after the criminal history investigation is conducted and the applicant has prior convictions for specific criminal violations, the Chief of Police shall deny the Solicitor License Application.

1. The applicant has been convicted of any felony within ten (10) years prior to the date of the Solicitor License application;
2. The applicant has been convicted of any misdemeanor involving violence and/or property damage within ten (10) years prior to the Solicitor License application;

Off-Duty Law Enforcement Actions

384.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy is intended to provide guidelines for officers of the Vancouver Police Department with respect to taking law enforcement action while off-duty.

384.2 POLICY

Initiating law enforcement action while off-duty is generally discouraged. Officers should not attempt to initiate enforcement action when witnessing minor crimes, such as suspected intoxicated drivers, reckless driving or minor property crimes. Such incidents should be promptly reported to the appropriate law enforcement agency.

Officers are not expected to place themselves in unreasonable peril. However, any sworn member of this Department who becomes aware of an incident or circumstance that he/she reasonably believes poses an imminent threat of serious bodily injury or death, or significant property damage may take reasonable action to minimize the threat.

When public safety or the prevention of major property damage requires immediate action, officers should first consider reporting and monitoring the activity and only take direct action as a last resort.

384.3 FIREARMS

When carrying firearms while off-duty officers shall also carry their Vancouver Police Department issued badge and identification card.

Officers should refrain from carrying firearms when the consumption of alcohol is likely or when the need to carry a firearm is outweighed by safety considerations. The officer may not be under the influence of alcohol or any other intoxicating or hallucinatory drug.

384.4 DECISION TO INTERVENE

There is no legal requirement for off-duty officers to take law enforcement action. However, should officers decide to intervene, they must evaluate whether the action is necessary or desirable, and should take into consideration the following:

- (a) The tactical disadvantage of being alone and the fact there may be multiple or hidden suspects.
- (b) The inability to communicate with responding units.
- (c) The lack of equipment, such as handcuffs, OC or baton.
- (d) The lack of cover.
- (e) The potential for increased risk to bystanders if the off-duty officer were to intervene.
- (f) Unfamiliarity with the surroundings.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Off-Duty Law Enforcement Actions

- (g) The potential for the off-duty officer to be misidentified by other peace officers or members of the public.

Officers should consider waiting for on-duty uniformed officers to arrive, and gather as much accurate intelligence as possible instead of immediately intervening.

384.4.1 INTERVENTION PROCEDURE

If involvement is reasonably necessary, the officer should attempt to call or have someone else call 9-1-1 to request immediate assistance. The operator should be informed that an off-duty officer is on-scene and should be provided a description of the officer if possible.

Whenever practicable, the officer should loudly and repeatedly identify him/herself as a Vancouver Police Department officer until acknowledged. Official identification should also be displayed.

384.4.2 INCIDENTS OF PERSONAL INTEREST

Officers should refrain from handling incidents of personal interest, (e.g., family or neighbor disputes) and should remain neutral. In such circumstances, officers should call the responsible agency to handle the matter.

384.4.3 CIVILIAN/NON SWORN RESPONSIBILITIES

Civilian/non-sworn personnel should not become involved in any law enforcement actions while off-duty except to notify the local law enforcement authority and remain at the scene, if safe and practicable.

384.4.4 OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

When encountering a non-uniformed officer in public, uniformed officers should wait for acknowledgement by the non-uniformed officer in case he/she needs to maintain an undercover capability.

384.5 REPORTING

Any off-duty officer who engages in any law enforcement activity, regardless of jurisdiction, shall notify an on-duty Vancouver Police supervisor as soon as practicable. The officer taking such action shall accomplish an appropriate department report or memorandum documenting their actions. This report must be submitted to the officer's immediate supervisor for review.

Officers should cooperate fully with the agency having jurisdiction in providing statements or reports as requested.

RESCINDED - See Civil Protection Orders

INTERVIEWS AND CUSTODIAL INTERROGATIONS

389.1 POLICY

The purpose of this policy is to provide guidance for conducting custodial interrogations of detained individuals, whether arrested or not, in compliance with RCW 10.122 - UNIFORM ELECTRONIC RECORDATION OF CUSTODIAL INTERROGATIONS ACT.

389.2 DEFINITIONS

Custodial interrogation - Express questioning or other actions or words by a law enforcement officer which are reasonably likely to elicit an incriminating response from an individual and occurs when reasonable individuals in the same circumstances would consider themselves in custody. RCW 10.122.020

Electronic recording - an audio recording or audio and video recording that accurately records a custodial interrogation. RCW 10.122.020

Place of Detention - a jail, police or sheriff's station, holding cell, correctional or detention facility, police vehicle, and, in the case of juveniles, schools. RCW 10.122.020.

Statement - a communication whether oral, written, electronic, or nonverbal. RCW 10.122.020

Temporary Investigative Detention (Terry Stop) - The brief detainment or seizure of an individual, whether on foot or in a vehicle, based on reasonable suspicion that a suspect is committing, has committed, or is about to commit a crime. Reasonable Suspicion must be based on specific, articulable and rational facts.

389.3 VOLUNTARY CONTACTS

The police activity of inquiring into a person's identity and the reason for his/her presence at an unusual time, and/or place, or under circumstances plays an important role in the prevention of crime and the apprehension of criminals. It is the policy of the Vancouver Police Department to encourage its members to actively engage in this process.

During voluntary contacts, officers should not use any words, actions, demeanor, or other show of authority that would reasonably indicate that a person is not free to leave; voluntary contacts are not seizures.

Voluntary Contacts fall under two categories:

1. Social Contact: A voluntary and consensual encounter between the police and a subject with the intent of engaging in casual and/or non-investigative conversation. The subject is free to leave and/or decline any of the officer's requests at any point; social contacts are not seizures.
2. Non-Custodial Interview: A voluntary and consensual investigatory interview that an officer conducts with a subject during which the subject is free to leave and/or decline any of the officer's requests at any point; non-custodial interviews are not seizures.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

INTERVIEWS AND CUSTODIAL INTERROGATIONS

If a voluntary contact develops into a custodial interrogation or temporary investigative detention of a juvenile, officers will comply with recording requirements under RCW 10.122 and/or juvenile access to an attorney under RCW 13.40.740.

389.4 WITNESS IDENTIFICATION AND INTERVIEWS

Because potential witnesses to an incident may be lost or the integrity of their statements compromised with the passage of time, officers should, when warranted by the seriousness of the case, take reasonable steps to identify all persons present at the scene and in the immediate area. When feasible, officers should obtain a statement or make arrangements for a statement to be made.

Any potential witness who is unwilling to remain available or identify themselves should not be detained unless there is probable cause to arrest or reasonable suspicion to conduct a temporary investigative detention.

389.5 CUSTODIAL INTERROGATIONS

Pursuant RCW 10.122, custodial Interrogations conform to the following:

1. A custodial interrogation must be recorded in its entirety if the interrogation subject is a juvenile or if the interrogation relates to a felony crime.
 - (a) Pursuant RCW 13.40.740, juveniles shall be provided with access to an attorney prior to waiving their rights before any custodial interrogation.
2. Consent is not required to record the interrogation.
3. A custodial interrogation at a jail, police or sheriff's station, holding cell, or correctional or detention facility must be recorded by audio and video means. A custodial interrogation at any other place of detention must be recorded by audio means at minimum.

389.6 ELECTRONIC RECORDING

Officers should use Department issued recording devices to make electronic recordings of custodial interrogations meeting the requirements of RCW 10.122.

Video and/or sound recordings will conform to the following:

1. The arrested person shall be informed that a recording is being made and the statement so informing him or her shall be included in the recording;
2. The recording shall commence with an indication of the time of the beginning thereof and terminate with an indication of the time thereof;
3. At the commencement of the recording the arrested person shall be fully informed of his or her constitutional rights, and such statements informing him or her shall be included in the recording.

389.6.1 EXCEPTIONS TO ELECTRONIC RECORDING

A custodial interrogation to which RCW 10.122.030 otherwise applies need not be recorded electronically under the following circumstances;

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

INTERVIEWS AND CUSTODIAL INTERROGATIONS

1. When a spontaneous statement made outside the course of a custodial interrogation or a statement made in response to a question asked routinely during the processing of the arrest of an individual. Such statements may be included in the officer's report.
2. If recording is not feasible because of exigent circumstances.-The law enforcement officer conducting the interrogation shall record an explanation of the exigent circumstances before conducting the interrogation, if feasible, or as soon as practicable after the interrogation is completed.
3. If the individual to be interrogated indicates they will not participate in the interrogation if it is recorded - If feasible, the agreement to participate without recording will be recorded.
4. If, during a custodial interrogation the individual being interrogated indicates they will not participate further unless the recording ceases, the remainder of the custodial interrogation need not be recorded. If feasible, the individual's agreement to participate without further recording will be recorded.
5. If a custodial interrogation occurs in another state in compliance with that state's law or is conducted by a federal law enforcement agency in compliance with federal law, the interrogation need not be recorded.
6. The officer conducting the interrogation has no knowledge or reasonable belief that the interrogation subject committed an act requiring the interrogation to be recorded under RCW 10.122.
 - (a) If, during such an interrogation the individual reveals facts and circumstances giving the officer conducting the interrogation reason to believe that an act requiring the interrogation be recorded, continued interrogation concerning that act must be recorded, if feasible.
7. If an officer conducting the interrogation or the officer's superior reasonably believes that recording would disclose the identity of a confidential informant or jeopardize the safety of an officer, the individual being interrogated, or another individual.
 - (a) If feasible and consistent with the safety of a confidential informant, an explanation of the basis for the belief that recording would disclose the informant's identity must be recorded at the time of the interrogation.
 - (b) If recording of the basis for the belief is not feasible at the time of the interrogation, the recording must be made as soon as practicable after the interrogation is completed.
8. When recording is not feasible because the available recording equipment fails, and timely repair or replacement is not feasible.

389.6.2 VIDEO RECORDING EQUIPMENT PLACEMENT

When utilizing video recording of a custodial interrogation, the officer should seek to ensure the angle, focus, and field of vision of the recording device reasonably promotes accurate recording of the custodial interrogation.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

INTERVIEWS AND CUSTODIAL INTERROGATIONS

389.7 HANDLING AND PRESERVING ELECTRONIC RECORDING

To preserve the chain of custody of an electronic recording, within a reasonable time, recording files are submitted into the Department RMS or the Department evidence system consistent with established procedures.

When submitting a recording of a custodial interrogation the recording file or evidence item submission description should be labeled by the name of the subject interviewed at a minimum to ensure the specific recording can be readily identified and accessed.

Recordings made utilizing a body-worn camera may be referenced in the officer's report.

389.8 DOCUMENTATION

If an officer conducts a custodial interrogation to which the recording requirement under state law applies without recording it in its entirety, the officer shall complete a report explaining the reason for not recording, and summarizing the custodial interrogation process and the individual's statements as soon as practicable.

Recorded custodial interrogations conducted outside a place of detention (ie: in a residence, business, etc.) shall include in the related report an explanation of why the subject was interrogated at that location, and summarizing the custodial interrogation process.

389.9 SUPERVISOR RESPONSIBILITY

There is no requirement for the review of recordings of custodial interviews by supervisors. However, supervisors may choose to randomly or selectively review recordings of custodial interviews consistent with, and as a part of, the report approval process in the Department RMS subject to VPD Policy 343 Report Preparation.

389.10 MATERIAL RESOURCES

The Department shall provide adequate electronic recording equipment in good repair for the use of officers to comply with the requirements of RCW 10.122.

389.11 TRAINING

The Training Unit will provide education and training, to ensure that all sworn personnel are familiar with the requirements of RCW 10.122 - UNIFORM ELECTRONIC RECORDATION OF CUSTODIAL INTERROGATIONS ACT.

- b. Notify officers of changes in schedules and assignments.
- c. Review recent incidents for training purposes.
- d. Provide training on a variety of subjects.
- e. Discuss new policy and/or general order.
- f. Discuss other job related topics.

A supervisor generally will conduct patrol briefings; however, officers may conduct the briefing for training purposes with supervisor approval.

400.3 PATROL INFORMATION SHARING PROCEDURES

The following guidelines are intended to develop and maintain intra-Department cooperation and information flow between the various divisions of the Vancouver Police Department.

400.3.1 CRIME ANALYST

Crime analysts exchange criminal information and intelligence reports to all police personnel through emails and special bulletins.

400.3.2 CRIME REPORTS

A crime report may be completed by any patrol officer or Police Service Technician who receives criminal information. The report will be processed and forwarded to the appropriate division/investigative unit for follow-up investigation.

400.3.3 PATROL SHIFT BRIEFING

Patrol supervisors, detective sergeants, and special unit sergeants are encouraged to share information as much as possible. All supervisors and/or officers will be provided an opportunity to share information at the daily shift briefings as time permits.

400.3.4 INFORMATION CLIPBOARDS

Several information clipboards will be maintained in the briefing room and will be available for review by officers from all divisions within the Department.

400.4 CROWDS, EVENTS AND GATHERINGS

Officers may encounter gatherings of people, including but not limited to, civil demonstrations, civic, social and business events, public displays, parades and sporting events. Officers should monitor such events as time permits in an effort to keep the peace and protect the safety and rights of those present. A patrol supervisor should be notified when it becomes reasonably foreseeable that such an event may require increased monitoring, contact or intervention.

Officers responding to an event or gathering that warrants law enforcement involvement should carefully balance the speech and association rights of those present with applicable public safety concerns before taking enforcement action. Officers are encouraged to contact organizers or responsible persons to seek voluntary compliance that may address relevant public safety/order concerns.

Officers should consider enforcement of applicable state and local laws, when the activity blocks the entrance or egress of a facility or location and when voluntary compliance with the law is not achieved.

If enforcement activity is required refer to Policy 206.3.1 - Police Emergency Operations Plan and review the Vancouver Police Special Occurrence Manual for Field Force Mobilization.

Racial- or Bias-Based Profiling

402.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy provides guidance to Department members and establishes appropriate controls to ensure that employees of the Vancouver Police Department do not engage in racial- or bias-based profiling or violate any related laws while serving the community.

402.1.1 DEFINITION

Definitions related to this policy include:

Racial- or bias-based profiling - An inappropriate reliance on factors such as race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, economic status, age, cultural group, disability or affiliation with any other similar identifiable group as a factor in deciding whether to take law enforcement action or to provide service.

402.2 POLICY

The Vancouver Police Department is committed to providing law enforcement services to the community with due regard for the racial, cultural or other differences of those served. It is the policy of this Department to provide law enforcement services and to enforce the law equally, fairly and without discrimination toward any individual or group.

Race, ethnicity or nationality, religion, sex, sexual orientation, economic status, age, cultural group, disability or affiliation with any other similar identifiable group shall not be used as the basis for providing differing levels of law enforcement service or the enforcement of the law.

402.3 RACIAL- OR BIAS-BASED PROFILING PROHIBITED

Racial- or bias-based profiling is strictly prohibited. However, nothing in this policy is intended to prohibit an officer from considering factors such as race or ethnicity in combination with other legitimate factors to establish reasonable suspicion or probable cause (e.g., suspect description is limited to a specific race or group).

402.3.1 OTHER PROFILING PROHIBITED

The Vancouver Police Department also condemns the illegal use of an individual or group's attire, appearance or mode of transportation, including the fact that an individual rides a motorcycle or wears motorcycle-related paraphernalia, as a factor in deciding to stop and question, take enforcement action, arrest or search a person or vehicle with or without a legal basis under the United States Constitution or Washington State Constitution (RCW 43.101.410).

402.4 MEMBER RESPONSIBILITY

Every member of this Department shall perform his/her duties in a fair and objective manner and is responsible for promptly reporting any known instances of racial- or bias-based profiling to a supervisor.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Racial- or Bias-Based Profiling

402.4.1 REASON FOR DETENTION

Officers detaining a person shall be prepared to articulate sufficient reasonable suspicion to justify the detention, independent of the individual's membership in a protected class.

To the extent that written documentation would otherwise be completed (e.g., arrest report, Field Interview card), the involved officer should include those facts giving rise to the officer's reasonable suspicion or probable cause for the detention, as applicable.

Nothing in this policy shall require any officer to document a contact that would not otherwise require reporting.

402.5 SUPERVISOR RESPONSIBILITY

Supervisors shall monitor those individuals under their command for any behavior that may conflict with the purpose of this policy and shall handle any alleged or observed violation of this policy in accordance with the Internal Affairs Policy.

- (a) Supervisors should discuss any issues with the involved officer and his/her supervisor in a timely manner.
- (b) Supervisors should periodically review any available video or audio recordings, MDC data and any other available resource used to document contact between officers and the public to ensure compliance with this policy.
 - 1. Supervisors should document these periodic reviews.
 - 2. Recordings that capture a potential instance of racial- or bias-based profiling should be appropriately retained for administrative investigation purposes.
- (c) Supervisors shall initiate investigations of any actual or alleged violations of this policy.
- (d) Supervisors should ensure that no retaliatory action is taken against any member of this Department who discloses information concerning racial- or bias-based profiling.

402.6 ADMINISTRATION

Each year, the Operations Bureau Assistant Chief shall review the efforts of the Department to prevent racial- or bias-based profiling and submit an overview, including public concerns and complaints, to the Chief of Police. This report should not contain any identifying information regarding any specific complaint, citizen or officers. It should be reviewed by the Chief of Police to identify any changes in training or operations that should be made to improve service.

402.7 TRAINING

Each member of this Department will be required to complete an approved refresher training course every five years, or sooner if deemed necessary, in order to keep current with changing community trends (RCW 43.101.410(c)).

Ride-Along Policy

410.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The purpose of this policy is to provide guidelines for the administration of the ride-along program. The Vancouver Police Department recognizes the need and benefit for the Department, citizens, lawful residents or others with approval from the Office of the Chief, to observe police operations on a firsthand basis.

410.1.1 ELIGIBILITY

Certain guidelines and procedures are established for the protection of the rider, the police officer, and the City of Vancouver.

1. Riders will be at least 16 years old and must have a guardian's permission if they are younger than 18 years old.
2. Riders will have no felony convictions.
3. Riders will not be the suspect in criminal investigations.
4. Riders who appear to have recently consumed alcoholic beverages or intoxicating drugs are prohibited from riding with a police officer.

The precinct lieutenant has the discretion to allow or not allow participation on a case by case basis. The entire Ride-Along packet must be completed and signed by the applicant prior to the ride-along to include the Emergency Contact, Ride-Along Request, Liability Release, and Participant Rules for the Ride-Along.

Citizens and lawful residents are allowed to participate in the ride along program once every six (6) months. This can be amended by the precinct lieutenant.

410.2 PROCEDURE TO REQUEST A RIDE-ALONG

A. Ride-along packets can be obtained at a precinct.

- (a) The rider will fill out the form completely to include a copy of their ID and it will be received by a police service technician (PST).
 - (a) The PST will check the ride-along system to verify the last time the rider participated in a ride-along.
- (b) The Records Division will check RMS to see if the rider is a suspect in any crimes/ investigations, an NCIC III check, local criminal history check and a wants and warrants check will be completed as well.
- (c) The packet will then be forwarded to a precinct lieutenant who will review and assign it to a patrol sergeant for issuance to an officer.
 - (a) If a request is made by a member of the Department the ride-along packet will still be filled out, and a records check will still be completed.
 - (b) Family members and friends of officers requesting to go on a ride-along are subject to the same procedures as (a).

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Ride-Along Policy

- (c) Once reviewed the NCIC III check will be disposed of.
- (d) Once the ride-along is completed, the patrol sergeant will give the completed form to a PST who will scan and attach the packet into the ride along database.
 - (a) If needed the officer should include any information that would preclude the rider from any future participation in the program.

410.2.1 ASSIGNED OFFICER'S RESPONSIBILITIES

Both the rider and the officer will sign the liability waiver. The officer will ensure that the sergeant has been given the paperwork.

- (a) Officers will advise dispatch of the start and end of their ride-along's participation.

The assigned officer must weigh situations for potential hazards when responding to calls. Riders are not to be exposed to situations known to involve extraordinary danger or extreme hazards (e.g., person with a gun). In such extra-hazardous situations, a rider should be let out of the vehicle a safe distance away from the scene or the rider should be told to remain in the patrol vehicle once at the scene. If the rider is let out, the officer must make notification where the rider was let out, when feasible. The shift supervisor, or assigned officer, is then responsible for coordinating alternative transportation for the rider.

410.2.2 RIDER RESPONSIBILITY

The rider must be dressed in an appropriate and professional manner. The shift supervisor will have the final determination if the clothing of the rider is appropriate.

Unless the rider is a sworn member of this Department or another law enforcement agency, the rider is prohibited from carrying weapons of any kind during the ride-along program.

A rider is an observer who is to avoid participating or becoming involved in police work unless otherwise directed. The ride-along will follow the officer's direction. Failure to do so will immediately terminate the ride-along, and may prohibit future participation in the program. Unless otherwise directed, the rider is prohibited from:

- (a) Operating a patrol vehicle or any other departmental equipment.
- (b) Riders may not photograph, audio or video record, or stream any portion of the ride-along without permission of the Office of the Chief.
- (c) Acting as an agent for the Department or otherwise performing any police-related duty.
- (d) Approaching any vehicle on a traffic stop or approaching any residence, building, or other situation where the potential for violence exists or a crime is in progress.
- (e) Entering any crime scene of a serious nature (such as a homicide) and/or touching, possessing, tampering with, or otherwise having contact with any evidence.

410.2.3 EMPLOYEE RIDE-ALONGS

New employees in training can benefit by exposure to the patrol functions of the department. Therefore, at the direction of the Vancouver Police Department Training Unit, and in coordination

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Ride-Along Policy

with the shift supervisors, new employees can participate in a ride-along for the duration of a full workday.

Employee ride-alongs do not need to abide by the restrictions in regards to the to the frequency of ride-alongs, but cannot arrange them without the approval a supervisor in the VPD Training Unit. There are several restrictions that apply:

- (a) Participants should be in appropriate civilian attire but shall wear an internal ballistic vest if one has been issued. They will also have their VPD issued ID with them.
- (b) The primary goal of the ride-along shall be for education, so participants should avoid getting involved in any police action.
- (c) Participants must immediately follow directions of the officer they are riding with, and the ride along may be terminated at the discretion of the officer at any time. The officer will further notify their supervisor for the reason of the ride-along termination.

410.3 AUDIT

Records will be purged in accordance with applicable law and policy.

Response to Bomb Calls

416.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy provides guidelines to assist officers in their initial response to incidents involving suspicious packages and explosives.

416.2 POLICY

Officers shall follow these guidelines in their initial response to incidents involving suspicious packages, suspicious items, explosives, explosive devices, or explosion/bombing incidents.

Under no circumstances should these guidelines be interpreted as compromising the safety of first responders or the public. When confronted with an incident involving explosives, safety shall always be the primary consideration.

416.3 FOUND SUSPICIOUS ITEMS OR PACKAGES

When an officer responds to a call of a suspicious item or package, efforts should be taken to determine whether or not it is dangerous or may contain an explosive device. Some factors to consider when assessing the item or package include:

1. Is the item in close proximity to a high-value target (i.e., government building, area where large numbers of people gather, school)?
2. Has a threat been received in association with the discovery of the item?
3. Have there been recent related events involving the same type of suspicious item?
4. Does the reporting party believe that the item may be dangerous or an explosive device?
5. Are there odd odors or sounds coming from the item?
6. Is the exterior of the item discolored or have oily stains?
7. Are there wires, batteries, or other electronics components visible in the item or package?

Safety shall always be the primary consideration when assessing suspicious items or packages. If an officer believes that an item may be dangerous or contain an explosive device, it should be treated as a suspect device.

416.4 FOUND EXPLOSIVES/SUSPECT DEVICES

When an officer responds to a call of a suspected explosive device, the following guidelines shall be followed:

1. Do not touch or move any known or suspected explosive item.
2. No known or suspected explosive item should be considered safe regardless of its size or apparent packaging.
3. If a known or suspected explosive item is found, notify the Portland Police Metro Explosive Disposal Unit (EDU) as soon as possible.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Response to Bomb Calls

4. Secure the perimeter around the suspected device for a minimum of three hundred feet allowing for an entrance for support personnel.
5. Relay as much initial information as possible to the Shift Sergeant without touching the device, including:
 - (a) Any stated threats.
 - (b) How the bomb was made.
 - (c) The exact location of the item, including the specific address and/or building location or name, floor, room number and location in the room where the device has been placed.
 - (d) The type of bomb, its physical description (e.g., size, shape, markings) and/or container.
 - (e) The time the device will detonate.
 - (f) The reason the device was placed (motivation).
 - (g) The individual or group claiming responsibility.
6. Do not transmit on any equipment that produces radio frequency energy within 100 feet (e.g., hand held radio, car radio, cell phone, etc). Hand held radios generate less radio energy, and should be used for all on-scene communications outside of the 100 foot radius.
7. Consideration should be given to the possibility for evacuation if a device is located within a building or close to an area where civilians are present.
8. Once an area is clear of civilians, officers should retreat to an area of substantial cover.
9. Consider the need for support personnel such as paramedics and Fire Department personnel.
10. Explosive Disposal Unit (EDU) personnel will assume command of the scene upon their arrival and until the area is declared safe to enter.

416.5 EXPLOSION/BOMBING INCIDENTS

When an explosion has occurred, there are multitudes of considerations which may confront the patrol officer. As in other catastrophic incidents, a rapid response will help to minimize such things as further injury to victims, contamination of the scene by gathering crowds, further damage by resulting fires or unstable structures.

Whether the explosion was the result of an accident or a criminal act, the following concerns will need to be addressed:

1. Injury to victims.
2. First aid (primarily Fire Department responsibility).
3. Evacuation of victims (primarily Fire Department responsibility).

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Response to Bomb Calls

416.5.1 NOTIFICATIONS

When an explosion has occurred, the following people shall be notified as soon as practical if their assistance is needed:

1. Vancouver Fire Department
2. Portland Police Metro Explosive Disposal Unit (EDU)
3. Additional field officers
4. Chain of Command
5. Arson Investigations Unit
6. Detectives

416.5.2 CROWD CONTROL

No one should be allowed free access to the scene unless they have a legitimate and authorized reason for being there.

416.5.3 SCENE OF INCIDENT

As in any other crime scene, steps should immediately be taken to preserve the scene. The scene could be extended for several hundred feet, at least one and one-half times the distance of the farthest piece of evidence from the area of the explosion. Evidence may be imbedded in nearby structures or hanging in trees and bushes, etc.

A search of the area should be conducted for other objects foreign to the area such as a secondary device. If an item is found, it should not be touched. The item should be secured and personnel should wait for the arrival of the Explosive Disposal Unit.

416.6 BOMB THREATS

When an officer responds to a call involving a bomb threat, the following procedures apply.

416.6.1 ASK QUESTIONS

The officer should ask specific questions regarding the bomb threat:

1. The following questions should be asked in the event of a bomb threat:
 - (a) The exact location of the item, including the specific address and/or building location or name, floor, room number and location in the room where the device has been placed.
 - (b) Any stated threats.
 - (c) How the bomb was made.
 - (d) The time the device will detonate.
 - (e) The type of bomb, its physical description and/or container.
 - (f) The reason the device was placed (motivation).

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Response to Bomb Calls

- (g) The individual or group claiming responsibility.
2. If the bomb threat is taken by phone, attempt to keep the caller on the line as long as possible and document the answers to these five basic questions.
- (a) Time of the call.
 - (b) Exact words of the person as accurately as possible.
 - (c) Age and sex of the caller.
 - (d) Speech patterns and/or accents.
 - (e) Background noises.

If the incoming call is received on a recorded line, steps shall be taken to ensure that the recording is retrieved as evidence.

416.6.2 PROCEDURES

The officer should follow specific procedures regarding the bomb threat:

1. As soon as a bomb threat has been received, the Shift Sergeant will be advised and fully informed of the details.
2. Police officers must not participate in the search of buildings without the expressed approval of the field supervisor. In the case of an approval for participation in a search, it is the duty of the Officer on the scene to advise the owner, manager, or responsible person that if Police have not found a bomb, or suspicious device, there is no guarantee that none exists.
3. In the event that search is conducted and a suspect device is found, the ranking officer on scene will secure the area and start an evacuation of the immediate and adjacent area.
4. When a threat is received by any facility, building, and/or premise, public or private, the decision to evacuate is the responsibility of the person in charge of the facility, building or premises. A police officer will not make the decision to evacuate an occupied building unless a suspicious object is found or factual information is received that a bomb has been placed in the building.

416.7 ACTIVATION OF THE EXPLOSIVE DISPOSAL UNIT (EDU)

EDU can be activated by a request through dispatch. Officers should be prepared to give dispatch a brief description of the suspected device, a location of a safe staging area for EDU, and if feasible, a callback phone number for EDU. EDU will be activated in the following circumstances:

1. When a suspicious object is discovered and the officer believes that there is a possibility that it is an explosive or incendiary device.
2. When any explosive, explosive chemical, or ordnance is discovered abandoned, illegally possessed, or voluntarily surrendered (including ammunition .50 caliber or larger).
3. When large quantities of illegal fireworks are discovered or seized.

4. When an explosive or incendiary device has detonated.
5. If an officer intends to charge or arrest an individual with possession or manufacture of an explosive device under RCW 70.74.

Response to Suicidal Subject Calls

417.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

These guidelines have been prepared to assist personnel in their assessment to suicidal subject calls.

417.2 SANCTITY OF LIFE

The sanctity of life is central to the Department's calls for service where a person suicidal and/or emotionally distraught. The Department recognizes and respects the value of all human life and dignity without prejudice to anyone.

417.3 DEFINITIONS

Engage/Engagement – To make communications contact with the suicidal subject.

Disengage/Disengagement – To terminate communications and reposition to a reasonably safe location while remaining aware of the developing situation.

Suicidal subject – A person who is threatening by words or actions to terminate his/her own life as reported to law enforcement or observed by a law enforcement officer. In this policy, the term subject is intended to mean the suicidal person.

417.4 SITUATIONAL GUIDELINES

It is not possible to write guidance for every variation of a suicidal call. Each call is different and all facts available to officers and sergeants should be taken into account when addressing the situation. The totality of the circumstances should be considered, and decisions based upon what is known. The following factors should be considered:

1. Has a crime been committed? What is the crime?
2. Is the subject home alone or are others in the house?
3. Is the subject at home or another location? What is the subject's relationship to that other location? (Any outdoor or other public location where a gun is involved should be a setting where the police don't allow the subject to leave).
4. Have suicidal threats been made? Have threats to harm others been made? To whom? Does the subject have the means to carry out the threats?
5. Has a phrase similar to, "if the police come out here, I will kill them and myself" been made?
6. Are weapons involved? What type(s) of weapons?
7. Residence history?
8. Subject history – any previous suicidal threat calls, history of violence, military / law enforcement training?
9. Are there other extenuating/aggravating circumstances (e.g., was the subject recently fired from a job, did they recently have a relationship end, etc.?).

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Response to Suicidal Subject Calls

10. Is the subject intoxicated?

Officers should consider whether or not the subject is attempting to force a confrontation with police which could lead to a significant use of force. The following are actions that may be considered:

- If there is anyone with the subject who may be or become a hostage or victim, law enforcement should attempt to separate the innocents from the subject. If they are unwilling to separate, or the subject is alone, consider disengagement.
- Attempt to determine if the subject is armed in a public place and a risk to innocent by-standers. If the subject is in a public place and is a risk to others, attempt to limit the subject's movements and consider use of a less lethal option. If the subject does not appear to be a risk to others, attempt to contain the subject and negotiate to try to learn his/her willingness to receive help. If the subject is unwilling to receive help, consider disengagement.
- Attempt to determine if the suicidal person is a threat to officers or first responders. Be aware of "suicide by cop." Many times, the mere presence of law enforcement escalates the situation to a use of force scenario. Avoid approaching the suicidal person unnecessarily.
- If the subject is alone and does not appear to be a threat to others, disengagement may be considered as an option. Attempts may be made by a Crisis Intervention Trained (CIT) officer or crisis worker to contact the subject by phone to offer them services. If the subject does not answer, expresses no interest, or clearly tells you, by word or action not to bother him/her, do not force a confrontation.

417.4.1 RESPONSE OPTIONS

Based on the factors and guidelines above, continue to evaluate the need for engagement or disengagement at all option levels:

Option 1: Engage verbally. If possible, safely make contact by phone or other means and talk with the subject, offering crisis resources to assist him/her.

Option 2: Provide surveillance and loose containment of the area to keep innocents safe.

Option 3: Contain the area and consult SWAT and/or HNT. Consider evacuation of others near the scene.

This is not an exhaustive list of possible response options.

417.4.2 DE-ESCALATION

For the purposes of this section violence de-escalation means tactics, actions, and communication methods used by officers to achieve the following objectives:

1. Manage the pace of an interaction;
2. Increase the distance between the officer and person involved;
3. Create shielding to protect the officer and others from an imminent threat; and
4. Engage in communication to gain cooperation to increase options for resolving the incident and reduce the likelihood of injury to all parties involved.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Response to Suicidal Subject Calls

Once it is determined that a situation is a mental health crisis and immediate safety concerns have been addressed, responding members should be aware of the following considerations and should generally:

- Evaluate safety conditions
- Introduce themselves and attempt to obtain the person's name.
- Be patient, polite, calm, courteous and avoid overreacting.
- Speak and move slowly and in a non-threatening manner.
- Moderate the level of direct eye contact.
- Remove distractions or disruptive people from the area.
- Utilize active listening skills (e.g., summarize the person's verbal communications to build rapport).
- Provide for sufficient avenues of withdrawal or escape, should the situation become volatile.
- Use cover and distance to create time to start a dialogue.

Responding officers generally should not:

Use stances or tactics that can be interpreted as aggressive.

Allow others to interrupt or engage the person.

Corner a person who is not believed to be armed, violent or suicidal.

Argue, speak with a raised voice or use threats to obtain compliance.

Rush the situation exclusively for the sake of time.

Do not tell the suicidal person or family members that certain actions will be taken or outcomes obtained. In particular do not say that other persons will do particular things when you do not control those other persons.

417.5 GUIDELINES FOR SUICIDE CALL RESPONSE

417.5.1 NOTIFICATION

Notification of suicidal person and/or threats may occur in several different ways. The suicidal subject could call in themselves, a third party (family/friend/citizen) could call in, or Law Enforcement / Emergency Medical Staff (EMS) could discover the suicidal threat while making contact with the person for other reasons.

417.5.2 THREAT ASSESSMENT

Whether the call comes in to dispatch (CRESA) or the Crisis Line, an assessment is made to determine routing of the call. If it is a suicide in progress or a suicide just occurred, the call is routed to law enforcement through 911. If the call is a suicidal threats or suicidal referral, the call is routed to or stays with the Crisis Line. For the latter, Crisis Line staff members are trained and

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Response to Suicidal Subject Calls

have the resources to evaluate the subject over the phone and can either resolve the crisis or let law enforcement know if the threat is imminent.

For example:

1. A call comes in to dispatch from the subject, family member, friend or concerned citizen. The call involves suicidal threats where no criminal activity has occurred, the scene is stable, and the subject does not have a gun or weapon in hand that would cause immediate death or serious injury. The call is transferred to the Crisis Line. The Crisis Line staff will evaluate for an imminent threat or work to resolve the crisis.
2. A suicidal call comes in to the Crisis Line from the subject, family member, friend or concerned citizen. Crisis Line staff will evaluate to determine if the threat is imminent. If the threat is imminent, Crisis Line staff will facilitate contact with dispatch.
3. Law enforcement contacts a suicidal subject in the field while on other business. The officer will attempt to facilitate contact with the Crisis Line for evaluation.

417.5.3 CRISIS RESOLVED

For the CRESA call referred to the Crisis Line or for the call coming directly into the Crisis Line, many times Crisis Line staff will be able to resolve the situation over the phone. They will talk the person through the crisis and schedule follow-up care with the subject, putting a plan in place.

417.5.4 CRISIS NOT RESOLVED

For the imminent threat coming in to 911, law enforcement will be dispatched or if the call transferred to Crisis is not resolved and threat is imminent, Crisis Line staff will contact CRESA for a law enforcement response.

1. The dispatched law enforcement officer, will obtain from CRESA relevant information gathered by the Crisis Line regarding the incident while en route to the scene. Current laws allow the giving of patient information to law enforcement in crisis situations.
2. EMS should not be dispatched until requested by law enforcement. If for some reason they are, they should be directed to a staging area until requested by law enforcement to come in to the scene. (This is done so that if law enforcement makes a decision to disengage, Fire/EMS personnel will not be faced with the decision to abandon their patient at the direction of law enforcement.)

417.5.5 ENGAGE/ENAGEMENT

The determination to engage may be based on the situation (e.g., hostages or innocents in the house or area who need to be protected; contact with the suicidal subject was established and they want help getting through the crisis and it has been determined that contact can be made safely for all parties; suicidal subject is unconscious.

The decision to engage may be transitioned to disengagement if needed. For example, if at first there are innocents in the house and they are removed, and the subject is uncooperative, law enforcement may decide to disengage.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Response to Suicidal Subject Calls

When appropriate, the suicidal subject will be taken into custody and transported to the hospital for continued mental evaluation and treatment by medical and mental health personnel, in accordance with RCW 71.05.

417.5.6 DISENGAGE/DISENGAGEMENT

Disengagement could include removing all units from the scene.

Each call is different, and all facts available to officers and sergeants should be taken into account when addressing the situation. The totality of the circumstances should be considered and decisions based upon what is known. Clear and articulable reasons should be present, acted on and documented in a police report.

In all cases of disengagement, law enforcement should attempt to provide the suicidal subject with resources they can call for help (Crisis Line).

417.6 EMERGENT DETENTIONS

In all circumstances where a person is taken into custody or involuntary detention or hold, the officer shall complete a police report. (Refer to Policy 418 – Emergent Detentions)

Emergent Detentions

418.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy provides guidelines for when officers may place an individual under an emergent (mental health) detention (RCW 71.05.153).

418.2 POLICY

It is the policy of the Vancouver Police Department to protect the public and individuals through legal and appropriate use of the emergent detention process.

418.3 DEFINITIONS

Danger to Others - Behavior which has caused harm or places others in a reasonable fear of sustaining harm. The behavior can either be written, verbal, or actual assaultive acts.

Danger to Property - Behavior which has caused substantial loss or damage to property of others.

Danger to Self - A substantial risk of serious harm indicated by threats (written or verbal) or attempts to commit suicide or inflict physical harm to self.

Gravely Disabled – Condition in which a person, as a result of a mental disorder: (a) Is in danger of serious physical harm resulting from a failure to provide for his/her essential human needs of health and safety; or (b) manifests severe deterioration in routine functions evidenced by repeated and escalating loss of cognitive or volitional control over his/her actions and is not receiving such care as is essential for his/her health and safety. (RCW 71.05.020(17))

418.4 AUTHORITY

An officer who has reasonable cause to believe that a person is suffering from a mental disorder and presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm, or is in imminent danger because of being gravely disabled, may take the person into emergent detention and immediately transport the person to a triage facility, crisis stabilization unit, evaluation and treatment facility, or the emergency department of a local hospital (RCW 71.05.153).

An officer may also take a person into emergent detention and deliver the person to an evaluation and treatment facility upon the written request of a mental health professional designated by the county or other authority who has determined that the person, as the result of a mental disorder, presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm, or is in imminent danger because of being gravely disabled (RCW 71.05.153).

418.4.1 VOLUNTARY EVALUATION

If an officer encounters an individual who may qualify for an emergent detention, the officer may inquire as to whether the person desires to voluntarily be evaluated at an appropriate facility. If the individual so desires, the officer should:

- (a) Transport the individual, or have the individual transported via an ambulance, to an appropriate facility that is able to conduct the evaluation, and admit the person pursuant to emergent detention.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Emergent Detentions

- (b) If at any point the individual changes his/her mind regarding voluntary evaluation, the officer should proceed with the emergent detention if appropriate.

418.4.2 INVOLUNTARY EVALUATION

If an officer encounters an individual who may qualify for emergent detention and refuses to a voluntary evaluation, at least one of the following articulable grounds are necessary for an officer to take a person into custody for an involuntary evaluation and request a 72-hour hold:

- a. Danger to others,
- b. Danger to self,
- c. Danger to property; or
- d. Grave disability.

Officers will complete a case report documenting the incident and the reasonable belief the person met the criteria for emergent commitment.

418.5 CONSIDERATIONS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Any officer handling a call involving an individual who may qualify for an emergent detention should consider, as time and circumstances reasonably permit:

- (a) Available information that might assist in determining the cause and nature of the individual's action or stated intentions.
- (b) Community or neighborhood mediation services.
- (c) Conflict resolution and de-escalation techniques.
- (d) Community or other resources available to assist in dealing with mental health issues.

While these steps are encouraged, nothing in this section is intended to dissuade officers from taking reasonable action to ensure the safety of the officers and others.

Emergent detentions should be preferred over arrest for individuals with mental disorders, who are suspected of committing minor crimes or creating other non-criminal public safety issues.

418.6 TRANSPORTATION

When transporting any individual for an emergent detention, the transporting officer should have Dispatch notify the receiving facility of the estimated time of arrival, the level of cooperation of the individual and whether any special medical care is needed.

Officers may transport individuals in a patrol vehicle and shall secure them in accordance with applicable department policy.

Violent individuals, or those that are medically unstable, may be restrained and transported by ambulance and ambulance personnel.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Emergent Detentions

418.7 TRANSFER TO APPROPRIATE FACILITY

Upon arrival at the facility, the officer will escort the individual into a treatment area designated by a facility staff member. If the individual is not seeking voluntary treatment, the officer should provide the staff member with the completed 72 Hour Involuntary Mental Evaluation Hold Form for an emergent detention and remain present to provide clarification of the grounds for detention upon request.

Absent exigent circumstances, the transporting officer should not assist facility staff with the admission process, including restraint of the individual. However, if the individual is transported and delivered while restrained, the officer may assist with transferring the individual to facility restraints and will be available to assist during the admission process, if requested. Under normal circumstances, the officer will not apply facility-ordered restraints.

418.8 DOCUMENTATION

Law enforcement agencies must have a system in place for officers to document, as part of an incident report, the need for a mental health evaluation of a person who meets the criteria for an emergent detention (RCW 71.05.120).

418.8.1 INVOLUNTARY EVALUATIONS

The officer should complete an application for emergency admission (72 Hour Involuntary Mental Evaluation Hold Form), provide it to the facility staff member assigned to the individual, and, if necessary, retain a copy of the emergency application for inclusion in the police report.

The officer should also provide a verbal summary to any evaluating staff member regarding the circumstances leading to the involuntary emergent detention, upon request.

In all circumstances where a person is taken into custody on an emergent detention, the officer shall complete a police report.

418.8.2 VOLUNTARY EVALUATIONS

Should an individual, who meets the criteria for an emergent detention, decide to voluntarily submit to a mental health evaluation and is transported to a facility, the reporting officer shall complete a police report.

The report shall clearly outline the circumstances causing the officer to believe the individual met the criteria for an emergent detention, but the individual clearly submitted to a voluntary mental health evaluation. The location of the mental health facility and mode of transportation shall also be documented in the police report.

418.9 CRIMINAL OFFENSES

Officers investigating an individual who is suspected of committing a minor criminal offense and who is being taken on an emergent detention should resolve the criminal matter by issuing a warning or a citation as appropriate.

When an individual who may qualify for an emergent detention, has committed a serious criminal offense that would normally result in an arrest and transfer to a jail facility, the officer should:

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Emergent Detentions

- (a) Arrest the individual when there is probable cause to do so.
- (b) Notify the appropriate supervisor of the facts supporting the arrest and the facts that would support the emergent detention.
- (c) Facilitate the individual's transfer to the jail facility.
- (d) Advise jail staff of the circumstances that indicate the individual may qualify for an emergent detention.

In the supervisor's judgment, the individual may be arrested or booked and transported to the appropriate mental health facility. The supervisor should consider the seriousness of the offense, the treatment options available, the ability of this Department to regain custody of the individual, Department resources (e.g., posting a guard) and other relevant factors in making this decision.

418.10 FIREARMS AND OTHER WEAPONS

Whenever an individual is taken into custody for an emergent detention, the handling officer should seek to determine if the individual owns or has access to any firearm or other deadly weapon. Officers should consider whether it is appropriate and consistent with current search and seizure law under the circumstances to seize any such firearms or other dangerous weapons (e.g., community caretaking, safekeeping, evidence, consent).

Officers are cautioned that a search warrant may be needed before entering a residence or other place to search, unless lawful, warrantless entry has already been made (e.g., exigent circumstances, consent). A warrant may also be needed before searching for or seizing weapons.

The handling officer should further advise the individual of the procedure for the return of any firearm or other weapon that has been taken into custody.

418.11 TRAINING

This Department will endeavor to provide department-approved training on interaction with mentally disabled persons, emergent detentions and crisis intervention. (Refer to Policy 463 - Crisis Intervention Incidents)

Citation Releases

420.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy provides procedures for citation and release in lieu of arrest.

420.2 POLICY

The Vancouver Police Department authorizes officers to use citation and notice to appear release procedures in lieu of arrest for misdemeanor and gross misdemeanor offenses with applicable law.

420.2.1 DISCRETION TO ARREST

Whenever a person is arrested or could have been arrested for a violation of law which is punishable as a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor, the arresting officer may release the person in the field and serve upon the person a citation and a Notice to Appear in court. The officer shall call attention to the time and place for appearance and take any other steps deemed necessary to ensure that the defendant understands his/her promise to appear.

420.3 RELEASE

A suspected offender may be released on issuance of a citation and notice to appear in court by an officer whenever a person is arrested or could have been arrested pursuant to statute for a violation of law which is punishable as a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor (Criminal Rules, CrRLJ 2.1(b)(1)).

420.4 PROHIBITIONS

The release of a suspected offender on a citation and notice to appear is not permitted when:

- (a) A person has been arrested pursuant to RCW 10.31.100(2) (restraining orders).
- (b) An officer has probable cause to believe that the person arrested has violated RCW 46.61.502 (DUI) or RCW 46.61.504 (physical control of a vehicle while DUI) or equivalent local ordinance and the officer has knowledge that the person has a prior offense as defined in RCW 46.61.5055 (alcohol and drug violators) within the last 10 years (RCW 10.31.100; Criminal Rules, CrRLJ 3.2(o)(3)).

For release restrictions related to domestic violence investigations, refer to Policy 319 - Domestic Violence.

420.5 CONSIDERATIONS

In determining whether to cite and release a person, officers shall consider whether (Criminal Rules, CrRLJ 2.1(b)(2)):

- (a) The suspected offender has identified him/herself satisfactorily.
- (b) Detention appears reasonably necessary to prevent imminent bodily harm to the suspected offender or another, property damage or breach of the peace.
- (c) The suspected offender has ties to the community reasonably sufficient to assure his/her appearance or whether there is substantial likelihood that he/she will refuse to respond to the citation and notice.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Citation Releases

- (d) The suspected offender previously has failed to appear in response to a citation and notice issued pursuant to the court rule or to other lawful process.

420.6 JUVENILE ACTIONS

Completion of criminal citations for juveniles is generally not appropriate except for traffic violations.

Misdemeanor violations for juveniles shall be documented with a police report and referred to juvenile court.

Immigration Law

428.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The purpose of this policy is to provide guidelines to members of the Vancouver Police Department relating to immigration laws and interacting with federal immigration officials (RCW 43.10.315).

428.2 POLICY

It is the policy of the Vancouver Police Department that all members make personal and professional commitments to equal enforcement of the law and equal service to the public. Confidence in this commitment will increase the effectiveness of this Department in protecting and serving the entire community and recognizing the dignity of all persons, regardless of their immigration status.

428.3 VICTIMS AND WITNESSES

To encourage crime reporting and cooperation in the investigation of criminal activity, all individuals, regardless of their immigration status, must feel secure that contacting or being addressed by members of law enforcement will not automatically lead to immigration inquiry and/or deportation. While it may be necessary to determine the identity of a victim or witness, members shall treat all individuals equally and not in any way that would violate the United States or Washington constitutions.

428.4 ENFORCEMENT

The Immigration and Nationality Act provides that the enforcement of the nation's immigration laws is the primary responsibility of the U.S. Bureau of Immigrations and Customs Enforcement (ICE). State and local law enforcement agencies do not have the authority to enforce civil immigration violations. Therefore, VPD shall not undertake immigration-related investigations and shall not routinely inquire into the immigration status of persons encountered during police operations.

A. Officers are committed to providing service and enforcing laws in a fair and equitable manner. Officers do not use race, ethnicity, national origin or immigration status as the sole basis for probable cause or reasonable suspicion or as a motivating factor in making law enforcement decisions.

B. Officers shall not contact, detain or arrest an individual solely because he/she is suspected of violating immigration laws.

C. Requesting adequate identification as part of a criminal investigation is necessary and appropriate. However, officers shall not:

1. Request specific documents relating to someone's civil immigration status such as a passport, alien registration card or "green card", unless the officers are conducting a criminal investigation where the civil immigration status is relevant to the crime under investigation. Officers may also use immigration documents if the documents are offered by the person upon a general non-specific request such as, "May I see some identification?"

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Immigration Law

2. Initiate any inquiry or enforcement action based solely on a person's:

- Civil immigration status, or
- Race, or
- Inability to speak English, or
- Inability to understand the officer.

3. Use stops for minor offenses or requests for voluntary information as an excuse for discovering a person's immigration status.

D. Officers who come into contact with a person who is suspected of being in this country unlawfully as the result of a criminal investigation shall follow the same procedures and afford the person the same rights and privileges as any other criminal suspect.

E. Officers will cooperate with federal immigration officials when requested.

428.5 ARREST NOTIFICATION TO IMMIGRATION AND CUSTOMS ENFORCEMENT

Generally, an officer will not need to notify immigration officials when booking arrestees at the county jail. Immigration officials routinely interview suspected undocumented aliens who are booked into the county jail on criminal charges. Notification will be handled according to jail operation procedures. No individual who is otherwise ready to be released should continue to be detained solely for the purpose of notification.

428.6 ICE REQUEST FOR ASSISTANCE

Requests by ICE, or any other federal agency, for assistance from this Department should be directed to a supervisor. The Department may provide available support services, such as traffic control or peacekeeping efforts, to ICE or other federal agencies.

428.7 INFORMATION SHARING

No member of this Department will prohibit, or in any way restrict, any other member from doing any of the following regarding the citizenship or immigration status, lawful or unlawful, of any individual (8 USC § 1373; RCW 2.28.310):

- (a) Sending information to, or requesting or receiving such information from federal immigration officials
- (b) Maintaining such information in Department records
- (c) Exchanging such information with any other federal, state, or local government entity

428.7.1 IMMIGRATION HOLDS

No individual should be held based solely on a federal immigration detainer under 8 CFR 287.7 unless the person has been charged with a federal crime or the detainer is accompanied by a judicial warrant. Notification to the federal authority issuing the detainer should be made prior to the release.

1. U and T Visa certification requests received by the Department should be in writing and contain a completed unsigned Form I-918B with all relevant police reports and other documentation attached.
2. U and T Visa certification requests under the Washington Safety and Access for Immigrant Victims Act, RCW 7.98.020, shall be forwarded without delay to the Office of the Chief, or authorized designee.
 - (a) The fact of any request for U or T Visa certification and any personal information submitted with such request shall not be disclosed or shared outside of the Vancouver Police Department, City of Vancouver Legal Counsel or Prosecuting Attorney's Office without a court order or judicial warrant, or approval by the Office of the Chief or authorized designee, unless expressly authorized, in writing, by the subject of the request or the subject's guardian, or as otherwise required by law.
 - (b) The Office of the Chief or authorized designee shall review any U or T Visa certification request submitted to the Vancouver Police Department in full and verify all information submitted in support of the certification request using existing records, personal knowledge, or other available evidence. The Office of the Chief, or authorized designee may confer with City of Vancouver Legal Counsel and/or the Prosecuting Attorney's Office to determine whether certification is proper.
 - (c) The Vancouver Police Department shall not leverage U or T Visa certifications as a means to compel any victim or witness to cooperate with their investigations.
3. The Office of the Chief or authorized designee shall process U and T Visa certification requests within 90 days of receipt, except under circumstances requiring a shorter timeframe.
 - (a) Any U or T Visa certification request for a person in federal removal proceedings shall be immediately processed such that the certification, if approved, is executed within 14 days of receiving the request.
 - (b) U or T Visa certifications shall be expedited upon request for any person who will, or whose child(ren) will, reach age 21 before the 90-day processing deadline date and thus will otherwise lose their benefits. In any such instance, the Office of the Chief or authorized designee shall execute the certification, if approved, no later than 14 days before the person or child turns 21 years old.
4. The Office of the Chief or authorized designee shall ensure that all forms that are requested by a victim, signed, denied and/or withdrawn are documented and reported to the Office of Crime Victims Advocacy pursuant RCW 7.98.020.

NOTE: A U Visa Law Enforcement Resource Guide and instructions for completing certification and declaration forms can be found on the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) website and may be used as a reference.

Mobile Data Computer Use

446.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines for the proper access, use and application of the Mobile Data Computer (MDC) system in order to ensure appropriate access to confidential records from local, state and national law enforcement databases, and to ensure effective electronic communications between Department members and Dispatch.

446.2 POLICY

Vancouver Police Department members using the MDC shall comply with all appropriate federal and state rules and regulations and shall use the MDC in a professional manner, in accordance with this policy.

446.3 PRIVACY EXPECTATION

Members forfeit any expectation of privacy with regard to messages accessed, transmitted, received or reviewed on any Department technology system.

446.4 AUTHORIZATION FOR USE OF AN MDC

VPD employees are authorized to use the MDC for official police communications only. When using the MDC:

1. Radio communications will be conducted in a clear, business-like manner using prescribed procedures.
2. Transmissions will be kept to a minimum.
3. Lengthy conversations are to be made by telephone, or on a secondary frequency.
4. Unnecessary radio use will be avoided so that frequencies are available for official and emergency business.

Messages may be reviewed by supervisors at anytime without prior notification.

446.5 RESTRICTED ACCESS AND USE

Members shall not access the MDC system if they have not received prior authorization and the required training. Members shall immediately report unauthorized access or use of the MDC by another member to their supervisors or Shift Sergeants.

Use of the MDC system to access law enforcement databases or transmit messages is restricted to official activities, business-related tasks and communications that are directly related to the business, administration or practices of the Department. In the event a member has questions about sending a particular message or accessing a particular database, the member should seek prior approval from his/her supervisor.

Sending derogatory, defamatory, obscene, disrespectful, sexually suggestive, harassing or any other inappropriate messages on the MDC system is prohibited and may result in discipline.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Mobile Data Computer Use

It is a violation of this policy to transmit a message or access a law enforcement database under another member's name or to use the password of another member to log in to the MDC system. Members are required to log off the MDC or secure the MDC when it is unattended. This added security measure will minimize the potential for unauthorized access or misuse.

446.5.1 USE WHILE DRIVING

The use of the MDC while the vehicle is being operated creates a potential risk to the officer because of the change of focus from driving to operating the MDC. Generally, use of the MDC by the operator should be limited to times when the vehicle is stopped. However:

1. Short transmissions, such as entry of a license number for a stolen or registration check are permitted if they can be done safely.
2. Reading messages while in motion by the operator should only be attempted when the message requires the operator's immediate attention.
3. In no case shall an operator attempt to send or review lengthy messages while the vehicle is in motion.

446.6 DOCUMENTATION OF ACTIVITY

MDCs and voice transmissions are used to record the officer's daily activity. To ensure the most accurate recording of these activities, the following are required:

1. When communicating with dispatch, officers will first give their complete call number.
2. Officers shall promptly answer all calls from dispatchers.
3. Officers shall not argue with a dispatcher. An officer with cause for complaint shall notify their supervisor.

446.6.1 STATUS CHANGES

All changes in status (e.g., arrival at scene, meal periods, in service) will be transmitted over the police radio or through the MDC system.

Members responding to in-progress calls should advise changes in status over the radio to assist other members responding to the same incident. Other changes in status can be made on the MDC when the vehicle is not in motion.

446.6.2 EMERGENCY SITUATION

If there is an emergency activation and the member does not respond to a request for confirmation of the need for emergency assistance or confirms the need, available resources will be sent to assist in locating the member.

All units should limit radio traffic during vehicle pursuits and other emergency situations so that the units in pursuit, or in an emergency situation, can maintain continuous communications with dispatch.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Mobile Data Computer Use

Officers not responding to the emergency shall refrain from transmitting on the police radio until a no-further-assistance broadcast is made or if they are also handling an emergency.

446.7 MALFUNCTIONING MDC

Whenever possible, officers will not use a vehicle with a malfunctioning MDC. Whenever officers must drive a unit in which the MDC is not working, they shall notify Dispatch via police radio or phone. It shall be the responsibility of Dispatch to record all information that will then be transmitted verbally over the police radio.

446.8 REQUEST FOR DISPATCH RECORDS

Officers must obtain approval from a supervisor prior to making a request for a recording of dispatch transmissions.

Bicycle Patrol Unit

451.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The Vancouver Police Department has established the Bicycle Patrol Unit (BPU) for the purpose of enhancing patrol efforts in the community. Bicycle patrol has been shown to be an effective way to increase officer visibility in congested areas and their quiet operation can provide a tactical approach to crimes in progress. Bike officers are responsible for patrol issues, problem solving, protecting life and property through the enforcement of laws and ordinances, responding to patrol calls for service, preventing, detecting and investigating crimes, issuing civil infractions and decreasing crime and increasing livability. The purpose of this policy is to provide guidelines for the safe and effective operation of the patrol bicycle.

The Bike Unit will be expected to make an impact on crime and livability related issues and crimes. The Bike Unit will perform expected patrol duties (i.e. basic patrol, respond to 911 calls for service, make field contacts, take enforcement action, and make arrests). Because patrolling by bicycle has proven to be an effective way of increasing officer visibility in congested areas such as public parks, waterfront neighborhoods and business districts, the Bike Unit will be expected to patrol in these areas and will comply with RCW 46.61.035(4).

451.2 POLICY

Patrol bicycles may be used for regular patrol duty, traffic enforcement, parking control, or special events. The use of the patrol bicycle will emphasize their mobility and visibility to the community. Bicycles may be deployed to any area at all hours of the day or night, according to Department needs and as staffing levels allow.

Requests for specific deployment of bicycle patrol officers shall be coordinated through the Patrol Division.

451.3 TRAINING

Participants in the program must complete an initial Department approved bicycle-training course before or after acceptance into the program. Bicycle patrol officers will receive ongoing training throughout the year to improve skills and refresh safety, health and operational procedures. The initial training shall minimally include the following:

- (a) Bicycle patrol strategies.
- (b) Bicycle safety and accident prevention.
- (c) Bicycle handling
- (d) Bicycle maintenance

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Bicycle Patrol Unit

451.4 UNIFORMS AND EQUIPMENT

Officers shall wear the Department-approved uniform and safety equipment while operating the department bicycle. Safety equipment includes Department-approved helmet, riding gloves, protective eyewear and approved footwear.

451.5 CARE AND USE OF PATROL BICYCLES

Officers will be assigned a specially marked and equipped patrol bicycle. Bicycles are considered vehicles and therefore are subject to all laws, regulations, and privileges applicable to other vehicles operated upon the highway (RCW 46.04.670).

Every bicycle shall be equipped with front lights and rear reflectors or lights, and brakes satisfying the requirements of RCW 46.61.780. Bicycles utilized for uniformed bicycle patrol shall be equipped with a rear rack and/or saddle bags sufficient to carry all necessary equipment to handle routine patrol calls. Each bicycle gear bag shall include a first aid kit, tire pump, repair tool, tire tube, and security lock. These items are to remain with/on the bicycle at all times.

RCW 46.37.190(3) Vehicles operated by public agencies whose law enforcement duties include the authority to stop and detain motor vehicles on the public highways of the state may be equipped with a siren and lights of a color and type designated by the state patrol for that purpose.

Bicycle officers shall conduct an inspection of the bicycle and equipment prior to use to insure proper working order of the equipment. Officers are responsible for the routine care and maintenance of their assigned equipment (e.g., tire pressure, chain lubrication, overall cleaning). If a needed repair is beyond the ability of the bicycle officer, a repair work order will be completed and forwarded to the District 1 Lieutenant for review and approval. Repairs shall be conducted by an approved technician. If necessary, the bike will be tagged for repair and removed from service until needed repairs are completed.

Each bicycle will have scheduled maintenance twice yearly; to be performed by a Department certified/approved bike mechanic. Officers shall not modify the patrol bicycle, remove, modify or add components except with the expressed prior approval of the District 1 Lieutenant, or in the event of an emergency. At the end of bicycle assignment, the bicycle shall be returned clean and ready for the next tour of duty. Bicycles will not be taken home without the prior approval of the District 1 Lieutenant.

Vehicle bicycle racks are available should the officer need to transport the patrol bicycle. Due to possible component damage, transportation of the patrol bicycle in a trunk or on a patrol car push-bumper is discouraged. Bicycles shall be properly secured when not in the officer's immediate presence.

451.6 OFFICER RESPONSIBILITY

Officers must operate the bicycle in compliance with applicable codes under normal operation. Officers may operate the bicycle without lighting equipment during hours of darkness when such

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Bicycle Patrol Unit

operation reasonably appears necessary for officer safety and/or tactical considerations. Officers must use caution and care when operating the bicycle without lighting equipment.

Foot Pursuits

453.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

Foot pursuits are inherently dangerous and require sound decision making, trained tactics and heightened officer safety awareness. This policy sets forth guidelines to assist officers in making the decision to initiate or continue the pursuit of suspects on foot by balancing the objective of apprehending the suspect with the risk of potential injury to the officer, the suspect or the public.

453.1.1 POLICY

It is the policy of this Department when deciding to initiate or continue a foot pursuit that officers must continuously balance the objective of apprehending the suspect with the risk and potential for injury to Department personnel, the suspect or the public.

Officers are expected to act reasonably, based on the totality of the circumstances. Absent exigent circumstances, the safety of department personnel and the public should be the primary consideration when determining whether a foot pursuit should be initiated or continued. Officers must be mindful that immediate apprehension of a suspect is rarely more important than the safety of the public and Department personnel.

453.2 DECISION TO PURSUE

Officers may be justified in initiating a foot pursuit of any individual they have probable cause to believe committed a crime. The decision to initiate or continue such a foot pursuit, however, must be continuously re-evaluated in light of the circumstances presented at the time.

If circumstances permit, surveillance and containment are generally the safest tactics for apprehending fleeing persons. In deciding whether to initiate or continue a foot pursuit, an officer should continuously consider reasonable alternatives to pursuit based upon the circumstances and resources available, such as the following:

- Containment of the area.
- Canine search.
- Saturation of the area with patrol personnel.
- Aerial support.
- Apprehension at another time when the identity of the suspect is known or there is information available that would likely allow for later apprehension, and the need to immediately apprehend the suspect does not reasonably appear to outweigh the risk of continuing the pursuit.

453.3 GUIDELINES FOR FOOT PURSUIT

Unless the officer reasonably believes that exigent circumstances exist (e.g., a serious threat to the safety of personnel or members of the public), officers should consider alternatives to engaging in or continuing a foot pursuit under the following conditions:

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Foot Pursuits

- (a) When directed by a supervisor to terminate the foot pursuit. Such an order shall be considered mandatory.
- (b) When the officer is acting alone.
- (c) When two or more officers become separated, lose visual contact with one another, or obstacles separate them to the degree that they cannot immediately assist each other should a confrontation take place. In such circumstances, it is generally recommended that a single officer keep the suspect in sight from a safe distance and coordinate the containment effort.
- (d) The officer is unsure of his or her location and direction of travel.
- (e) When pursuing multiple suspects and the pursuing officers do not reasonably believe they would be able to control the suspect should a confrontation occur.
- (f) When the physical condition of the officer renders them incapable of controlling the suspect if apprehended.
- (g) When the officer loses radio contact with Dispatch or with backup officers.
- (h) The suspect enters a building, structure, confined space or a wooded or otherwise isolated area and there are insufficient officers to provide backup and containment. The primary officer should consider discontinuing the pursuit and coordinating containment pending the arrival of sufficient officers.
- (i) The officer becomes aware of unanticipated or unforeseen circumstances that unreasonably increase the risk to officers or the public.
- (j) The officer reasonably believes the danger to the pursuing officers or public outweighs the objective of immediate apprehension.
- (k) The officer loses possession of his/her firearm or other essential equipment.
- (l) The officer or a third party is injured during the pursuit, requiring immediate assistance, and there are no other emergency personnel available to render assistance.
- (m) The suspect's location is no longer definitely known.
- (n) The identity of the suspect is established or other information exists that will allow for the suspect's apprehension at a later time, and it reasonably appears there is no immediate threat to Department personnel or the public if the suspect is not immediately apprehended.
- (o) The officer's ability to safely continue the pursuit is impaired by inclement weather, darkness or other conditions.

453.4 RESPONSIBILITIES IN FOOT PURSUITS

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Foot Pursuits

453.4.1 INITIATING OFFICER RESPONSIBILITIES

Unless relieved by another officer or a supervisor, the initiating officer shall be responsible for coordinating the progress of the pursuit. When acting alone and when practicable, the initiating officer should not attempt to overtake and confront the suspect but should attempt to keep the suspect in sight until sufficient officers are present to safely apprehend the suspect.

Early communication of available information from the involved officers is essential so that adequate resources can be coordinated and deployed to bring a foot pursuit to a safe conclusion. Officers initiating a foot pursuit should broadcast the following information as soon as it becomes practicable and available:

- (a) Unit identifier.
- (b) Location and direction of travel.
- (c) Reason for the foot pursuit.
- (d) Description of the suspect.
- (e) Whether the suspect is known or believed to be armed.

Officers should be mindful that radio transmissions made while running may be difficult to understand and may need to be repeated.

Absent extenuating circumstances, any officer unable to promptly and effectively broadcast this information should terminate the pursuit. If the foot pursuit is discontinued for any reason, immediate efforts for containment should be established and alternatives considered based upon the circumstances and available resources.

When a foot pursuit terminates, the officer will notify Dispatch of his/her location and the status of the pursuit termination (e.g., suspect in custody, lost sight of suspect), and will direct further actions as reasonably appear necessary to detain the suspect.

Should the pursuing officer gain custody of the suspect, that officer will turn custody over to a backup or responding officer as soon as the scene is rendered safe and it is practical to do so. This will allow the pursuing officer to recover from the physical and emotional exertion resulting from the pursuit before re-engaging with the suspect for processing procedures.

453.4.2 ASSISTING OFFICER RESPONSIBILITIES

Whenever any officer announces he/she is engaged in a foot pursuit, all other officers should minimize non-essential radio traffic to permit the involved officers maximum access to the radio frequency.

Any officers who is in a position to intercept a fleeing suspect, or who can assist the primary officer with the apprehension of the suspect, shall act reasonably and in accordance with Department policy, based upon available information and his/her own observations.

The assisting officers must be ready to accept the temporary custody of the suspect as soon as it is safe and practical post-pursuit, in order that the pursuing officer can compose themselves after the physical and emotional exertion of the pursuit.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Foot Pursuits

453.4.3 SUPERVISOR RESPONSIBILITY

Upon becoming aware of a foot pursuit, the supervisor shall make every reasonable effort to ascertain sufficient information necessary to direct responding resources and to take command, control and coordination of the foot pursuit. The supervisor should respond to the area whenever possible; the supervisor does not, however, need not be physically present to exercise control over the pursuit. The supervisor shall continuously assess the situation in order to ensure the foot pursuit is conducted within established Department guidelines.

The supervisor shall terminate the foot pursuit when the danger to pursuing officers or the public unreasonably appears to outweigh the objective of immediate apprehension of the suspect.

Upon apprehension of the suspect, the supervisor shall promptly proceed to the termination point to direct the post-pursuit activity.

453.4.4 DISPATCH RESPONSIBILITIES

CRESA's policies regarding foot pursuit events offer some response flexibility, depending upon how the situation is initiated. The following aspects are handled by dispatch:

- (a) Clear the radio channel of non-emergency traffic.
- (b) Repeat the transmissions of the pursuing officer as needed.
- (c) Ensure that a field supervisor is notified of the pursuit.
- (d) Relay all pertinent information to responding personnel.
- (e) Contact additional resources as directed by a supervisor.
- (f) Coordinate response of additional resources to assist with the foot pursuit.

453.5 REPORTING

The initiating officer shall complete the appropriate crime/arrest reports documenting, at minimum, the following:

- (a) The reason for initiating the foot pursuit.
- (b) The identity of involved personnel.
- (c) The course and approximate distance of the pursuit.
- (d) Whether a suspect was apprehended, as well as the means and methods used.
 - 1. Any use of force shall be reported and documented in compliance with the Department Use of Force Policy.
- (e) Any injuries or property damage.

Assisting officers taking an active role in the apprehension of the suspect shall complete supplemental reports as necessary or as directed.

In any case in which a suspect is not apprehended and there is insufficient information to warrant further investigation, a supervisor may authorize that the initiating officer need not complete a formal report.

Homelessness, Camping and Outside Habitation

461.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that personnel understand the needs and rights of the homeless and to establish procedures to guide officers during all contacts with the unsheltered and homeless community, whether consensual or for enforcement purposes.

The Vancouver Police Department recognizes that members of the homeless community are often in need of special protection and services. The Vancouver Police Department will address these needs in balance with the overall mission of this Department.

461.1.1 POLICY

It is the policy of the Vancouver Police Department to provide appropriate law enforcement services to all members of the community including those who are unsheltered or experiencing homelessness.

The Department recognizes procedures for interacting with people who are unsheltered or experiencing homelessness may change over time due to many factors. Responsibility is placed on the HART Officer and District 1 Lieutenant to maintain a current Homelessness, Camping & Outside Habitation Procedure Manual for use by Department personnel. The procedures in this Manual should be followed by employees with any exceptions based on articulable reasons and supervisory approval, if feasible.

461.2 FIELD CONTACTS AND PATROL RESPONSE

Officers will respond to complaints and crimes from or about people experiencing homelessness and take appropriate police action. Depending on the information, the Hart Team or the District NPO should be notified for additional follow-up when appropriate.

461.3 HOMELESS ASSISTANCE & RESOURCES TEAM (HART) OFFICER

HART is a City resource, managed by the City of Vancouver Homeless Response Manager, with a VPD officer assigned to the team. The responsibilities of the HART Officer include the following, but not limited to:

- (a) Maintain and make available to all Department employees a list of assistance programs and other resources that are available to people experiencing homelessness.
- (b) Coordinate with Social Services and representatives of other organizations that provide assistance and support to people experiencing homelessness.
- (c) Provide regular outreach and engagement services to encampments and people experiencing unsheltered homelessness and connect individuals with needed stabilizing/supportive services through outside service providers and nonprofits.
- (d) Remain knowledgeable of current laws and City policies regarding outdoor habitation and dealing with the removal and/or destruction of the personal property of people experiencing homelessness.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Homelessness, Camping and Outside Habitation

- (e) Provide notice to people living in encampments of planned encampment clean-up and/or removal operations
- (f) In conjunction with other HART members, coordinate, and be present during, any encampment clean-up or removal operation.
- (g) Monitor, and respond to, HART related communications.

461.4 NEIGHBORHOOD POLICE OFFICERS (NPO)

The Chief of Police will designate each district Neighborhood Police Officer (NPO) to act as the Homeless Liaison Officer for that district. NPOs coordinate with HART on homelessness issues within their districts. The responsibilities of the Homeless Liaison Officer include the following:

- (a) Meet with HART, Social Services and representatives of other organizations that provide assistance to people experiencing homelessness.
- (b) Be aware of those areas within their district that are used as frequent homeless encampments, and coordinate outreach to those areas with HART as feasible.
- (c) Remain knowledgeable of current laws and City policies regarding outdoor habitation, and dealing with the removal and/or destruction of the personal property of people experiencing homelessness.

461.5 TRAINING

Officers will receive annual training on applicable current laws, City policies and Department Procedures regarding outdoor habitation, and how to appropriately handle the removal and/or destruction of the personal property of people experiencing homelessness.

Crisis Intervention Incidents

463.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy provides guidelines for interacting with those who may be experiencing a mental health or emotional crisis. Interaction with such individuals has the potential for miscommunication and violence. It often requires an officer to make difficult judgments about a person's mental state and intent in order to effectively and legally interact with the individual.

463.1.1 DEFINITIONS

Crisis – A personal experience of intensified psychological, emotional, and/or mental disease that can be precipitated by situational stress, trauma, non-compliance with treatment, failure to appropriately take prescribed medications, loss and/or acute episode of a pre-existing mental illness.

Crisis Intervention Training (CIT) – A training program established to enhance the skills of Department members responding to incidents involving persons in crisis.

CIT Program Coordinator – A Vancouver Police Command Staff member designated by the Chief of Police to supervise the general oversight of the Crisis Intervention Training (CIT) Program.

463.2 POLICY

The Vancouver Police Department is committed to providing a consistently high level of service to all members of the community and recognizes that persons in crisis may benefit from intervention. The Department will collaborate, where feasible, with mental health professionals to develop an overall intervention strategy to guide its members' interactions with those experiencing a mental health crisis. This is to ensure equitable and safe treatment of all involved.

463.3 RECOGNIZING A PERSON IN CRISIS

Dealing with people who are known or suspected to have a mental health issue or be in crisis carries the potential for violence. Officers should exercise special skills and abilities to effectively manage the person in crisis. Officers are not expected to make a judgment of the mental or emotional disturbance but rather recognize behavior that is potentially destructive and/or dangerous to self or others.

There are many behaviors associated with people suffering from mental illness. In RCW 71.05.020, a mental disorder is described as: "Any organic, mental, or emotional impairment which has substantial adverse effects on an individual's cognitive or volitional functions."

Behavior of a mentally ill person may include one or more of the following:

- A known history of mental health issues
- Threats of, or attempted suicide
- Depression, pronounced feelings of hopelessness, extreme sadness or guilt
- Social withdrawal

Crisis Intervention Incidents

- Manic or impulsive behavior, extreme agitation, lack of control
- Rapid mood swings
- Lack of fear
- Unreasonable fears
- Neglect personal hygiene
- Anxiety, aggression, rigidity, paranoia
- Incoherent or disorganized speech
- Delusional
- Talking or laughing to one's self
- Hearing commands from the television or radio
- Rapid speech
- Staring blankly or not moving for long periods of time
- Loss of memory or confusion
- Hearing, smelling or seeing things that are not there

Not all mentally ill persons are dangerous while some may represent danger only under certain circumstances or conditions. Officers may use several indicators to determine whether an apparently mentally ill person represents an immediate or potential danger to himself or others. These include the following:

- Availability of weapons
- Threatening statements by the person
- Past history of violence
- The amount of control the person exhibits over their emotions

Members should be aware that this list is not exhaustive. These behaviors may be changed or intensified by the use of alcohol, illicit drugs, foreign / mind altering substances or the failure to take prescribed medications.

463.4 DE-ESCALATION

For the purposes of this section violence de-escalation means tactics, action, and communication methods used by officers to achieve the following objectives:

1. Manage pace of an interaction;
2. Increase the distance between the officer and person involved;
3. Create shielding to protect the officer and others from an imminent threat; and

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Crisis Intervention Incidents

4. Engage in communication to gain cooperation to increase options for resolving the incident and reduce the likelihood of injury to all parties involved.

Once it is determined that a situation is a mental health crisis and immediate safety concerns have been addressed, responding members should be aware of the following considerations and should generally:

- Evaluate safety conditions.
- Introduce themselves and attempt to obtain the person's name.
- Be patient, polite, calm, courteous and avoid overreacting.
- Speak and move slowly and in a non-threatening manner.
- Moderate the level of direct eye contact.
- Remove distractions or disruptive people from the area.
- Utilize active listening skills (e.g., summarize the person's verbal communication to build rapport).
- Provide for sufficient avenues of withdrawal or escape should the situation become volatile.
- Use cover and distance to create time to start a dialogue.

Responding officers generally should not:

- Use stances or tactics that can be interpreted as aggressive.
- Allow others to interrupt or engage the person.
- Corner a person who is not believed to be armed, violent or suicidal.
- Argue, speak with a raised voice or use threats to obtain compliance.
- Rush the situation exclusively for the sake of time.

463.5 RECOGNIZING EXCITED DELIRIUM

While the subject's behavior may be of law enforcement concern and the person must be controlled for the safety of themselves and those around them (a primary law enforcement duty), he/she must also be evaluated by medical professionals as soon as practical. Generally, this requires recognizing Excited Delirium. This is much different than the often slowed, dulled, and inappropriate behavior of simple alcohol intoxication.

Subjects can demonstrate some or all of the indicators below in law enforcement settings:

- Extremely aggressive or violent behavior
- Constant or near constant physical activity
- Does not respond to police presence
- Attracted to glass and reflection

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Crisis Intervention Incidents

- Attracted to bright lights and loud sounds
- Naked or inadequately clothed
- Attempted “self-cooling” or hot to the touch
- Rapid breathing
- Profuse sweating
- Making unintelligible animal-like noises
- Impervious to pain
- Excessive strength
- Does not tire despite heavy exertion

When you recognize a subject is suffering from Excited Delirium, call for backup. These subjects are difficult to control and can demonstrate paranoia, violence, and feats of great strength.

Excited Delirium subjects are at a high risk for sudden death, so emergency medical staff should also be dispatched, as soon as practicable, staged in the area and ready to respond once the subject is under police control.

If an officer or emergency medical staff believes the subject is suffering from Excited Delirium, the subject should, when practical, be transported by ambulance to a hospital for treatment. If a subject is not transported to a hospital, the officer or supervisor making that decision must articulate the reason why.

463.6 COORDINATION WITH MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONALS

The Chief of Police should designate a CIT Program Coordinator to collaborate with mental health professionals to develop an education and response protocol. The CIT Program Coordinator will work with CRESA to maintain a current list of resources to be accessed by VPD employees upon request.

463.7 FIRST RESPONDER SAFETY MEASURES

Safety is a priority for first responders. It is important to recognize that individuals under the influence of alcohol, drugs or both may exhibit symptoms that are similar to those of a person in a mental health crisis. These individuals may still present a serious threat to officers; such a threat should be addressed with reasonable tactics. Nothing in this policy shall be construed to limit an officer’s authority to use reasonable force when interacting with a person in crisis.

Additionally, employees are reminded that persons suffering from or displaying behaviors associated with a mental health crisis may not be involved in criminal acts. Erratic or unusual behavior by itself is not considered a crime. Employees should be aware that persons exhibiting mental health crisis behavior may benefit from treatment as opposed to incarceration: However, nothing in this section should be construed as preventing an officer from making a good faith arrest in accordance with probable cause, if criminal activity has occurred.

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Crisis Intervention Incidents

An officer responding to a call involving a person in crisis should:

- (a) Promptly assess the situation along with the reported information and determine whether a mental health crisis may be a factor.
- (b) Request available backup officers, and if it is reasonably believed that the person is in a crisis situation, use conflict resolution and de-escalation techniques to stabilize the incident as appropriate.
- (c) If feasible, and without compromising safety, turn off flashing lights, bright lights or sirens.
- (d) Attempt to determine if weapons are present or available.
- (e) Consider any past history of violence and threatening statements made by the subject.
- (f) Take into account the person's mental and emotional state, and potential inability to understand commands or to appreciate the consequences of his/her action or inaction as perceived by the officer.
- (g) Secure the scene and clear the immediate area as necessary.
- (h) Move slowly and provide reassurance that you are there to help and provide care.
- (i) Allow them to vent their frustrations safely.
- (j) Do not threaten the person with arrest.
- (k) Avoid topics that may agitate the person, and guide the conversation toward the subject that help bring them back to calm.
- (l) Always attempt to be truthful.
- (m) Employ tactics to preserve the safety of all participants by removing any dangerous weapons or items from the immediate area.
- (n) Determine the nature of any crime.
- (o) Request a supervisor as warranted.
- (p) Evaluate any available information that might assist in determining cause or motivation for the person's actions or stated intentions.
- (q) If circumstances reasonably permit, consider and employ alternatives to force.

463.8 INCIDENT ORIENTATION

When responding to an incident that may involve mental illness or a mental health crisis, the officer should request that dispatch provide critical information as it becomes available. This includes:

- (a) Whether the person relies on drugs or medication, or may have failed to take his/her medication.
- (b) Whether there have been prior incidents, suicide threats/attempts, and whether there has been previous police response.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Crisis Intervention Incidents

- (c) Contact information for a treating physician or mental health professional.

Officers should speak directly to the reporting party, if feasible, by phone or in person in order to gather relevant information about the subject in crisis.

Additional resources and a supervisor should be requested as warranted.

463.9 SUPERVISOR RESPONSIBILITIES

When a supervisor responds to the scene of any interaction with a person in crisis, the responding supervisor should:

- (a) Attempt to secure appropriate and sufficient resources.
- (b) Closely monitor any use of force, including the use of restraints, and ensure that those subjected to the use of force are provided with timely access to medical care.
- (c) Consider strategic disengagement. Absent an imminent threat to the public and, as circumstances dictate, may include removing or reducing law enforcement resources or engaging in passive monitoring.
- (d) Ensure that all reports are completed and that incident documentation uses appropriate terminology and language.
- (e) Evaluate whether a critical incident stress management debriefing for involved members is warranted.

463.10 INCIDENT REPORTING

Members engaging in any oral or written communication associated with a mental health crisis should be mindful of the sensitive nature of such communications and should exercise appropriate discretion when referring to or describing persons and circumstances.

Members having contact with a person in crisis should keep related information confidential, except to the extent that revealing information is necessary to conform to Department reporting procedures or other official mental health or medical proceedings. (Refer to Policy 418 - Emergent Detentions)

463.10.1 DETENTIONS

Individuals who are detained for a mental health evaluation and not being arrested should be processed in accordance with Policy 418 - Emergent Detentions.

463.11 MEDICAL RESPONSE FOR ARRESTEE

During booking, each prisoner will be observed closely for apparent medical problems or injuries, and questioned concerning current illness, injury, medication and treatment. The prisoner's responses, or lack thereof, and the booking officer's observations will be recorded in the arrest report.

During booking, each prisoner will be observed and any visible body deformities, trauma markings, bruises, lesions, jaundice, or obvious physical limitations will be documented in the case report.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Crisis Intervention Incidents

If a prisoner appears mentally ill and either incapacitated or a danger to self or others, a Mental Health Professional will be consulted to determine if the prisoner should be transferred to an approved hospital or if s/he can be detained in the Clark County Jail. Any prisoner appearing to be under the influence of drugs shall be questioned as to what type of drug they have ingested and their condition shall be monitored closely. If necessary, the prisoner shall be transported to an approved hospital or Medical Center for examination by a qualified medical professional prior to being booked and placed in detention.

If the suspect is refused by Clark County Jail due to their mental illness related behavior, the suspect should be taken to an approved hospital.

If a prisoner is taken to a hospital for any reason, the officer should fill out a pre-book and notify the next shift supervisor of the suspect's location and need of transport to jail when released. Officers should indicate that charges will be pressed when stabilized and who to call for transport to jail for booking.

463.12 CIVILIAN INTERACTION WITH PEOPLE IN CRISIS

Civilian members may be required to interact with persons in crisis in an administrative capacity, such as a front counter contact or records request.

- (a) Members should treat all individuals equally and with dignity and respect.
- (b) If a member believes that he/she is interacting with a person in crisis, he/she should proceed patiently and in a calm manner.
- (c) Members should be aware and understand that the person may make unusual or bizarre claims or requests.

If a person's behavior makes the member feel unsafe, if the person is or becomes disruptive or violent, or if the person acts in such a manner as to cause the member to believe that the person may be harmful to him/herself or others, an officer should be promptly summoned to provide assistance.

463.13 CRISIS INTERVENTION TEAM PROGRAM COORDINATOR

The Vancouver Police Department will maintain a CIT Program Coordinator. The coordinator acts as a liaison to mental health professionals and the community organizations that provide services for people with mental illness or developmental disabilities. The coordinator will also provide oversight to the CIT program.

463.14 TRAINING

As required by Washington law and certified by the Criminal Justice Training Commission, the Vancouver Police Department will follow the Crisis Intervention Team Model established by Memphis Police Department. To become certified, an officer must complete a 40-hour training course. Ongoing training of two hours per year is required to maintain certification. Areas that may be covered in training are causes of mental health crisis, symptoms and treatments for persons in a mental health crisis; communication and de-escalation techniques for dealing with these situations, and the available resources and civil processes for persons with mental illness.

Public Order Events

464.1 POLICY

It is the policy of this Department not to unreasonably interfere with persons engaged in the lawful exercise of their rights, while also preserving the peace, protecting life and preventing the destruction of property.

This policy is to be read in conjunction with the Public Order Events Procedures Manual.

464.2 DEFINITIONS

Mobile Field Force: A rapid, organized response to events requiring specialized tactics to restore order and public safety. This response may or may not include POST officers initially.

Public Order Specialist Team (POST): A specialty team of officers trained and equipped to handle the planning and implementation phases of any Public Order operation.

464.3 GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

Individuals or groups present on the public way, such as public facilities, streets or walkways, generally have the right to assemble, rally, demonstrate, protest or otherwise express their views and opinions through varying forms of communication, including the distribution of printed matter.

These rights may be limited by laws or ordinances regulating such matters as the obstruction of individual or vehicle access or egress, trespass, noise, picketing, distribution of handbills and leafleting, and loitering. However, officers shall not take action or fail to take action based on the opinions being expressed.

Participant behavior during a demonstration or other public assembly can vary. This may include, but is not limited to:

- Lawful, constitutionally protected actions and speech.
- Civil disobedience (typically involving minor criminal acts).
- Criminal Mischief (rioting).

All of these behaviors may be present during the same event. Therefore, it is imperative that law enforcement actions are measured and appropriate for the behaviors officers may encounter. This is particularly critical if force is being used. Adaptable strategies and tactics are essential. The purpose of a law enforcement presence at the scene of public assemblies and demonstrations should be to preserve the peace, to protect life and prevent the destruction of property.

464.4 UNPLANNED EVENTS

For unplanned events, follow the procedures outlined in the Special Occurrences Manual under Appendix B-Civil Unrest/Disturbance Checklist.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Public Order Events

464.5 PLANNED EVENT

For planned events, follow the procedures outlined in the Public Order Procedures Manual.

464.6 USE OF FORCE

Use of force is governed by current Department policy and applicable law.

464.7 TRAINING

Sworn personnel should receive periodic training regarding this policy, Mobile Field Force training, and the dynamics of crowd control and incident management as outlined in the Public Order Procedures Manual.

The Public Order Specialist Team will train in accordance with its Standard Operating Procedures in the Public Order Procedures Manual.

Medical Aid and Response

465.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy recognizes that officers often encounter persons who appear to be in need of medical aid and establishes a law enforcement response to such situations.

465.2 POLICY

In compliance with RCW 36.28A.445 and the WSCJTC First Aid Guidelines, it is the policy of the Vancouver Police Department that all sworn personnel and other designated employees receive approved courses of instruction in cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), first aid, automated external defibrillator (AED) usage, Naloxone administration and Tactical Emergency Casualty Care.

465.3 FIRST RESPONDING MEMBER RESPONSIBILITIES

Whenever practicable, employees should take appropriate steps to provide initial medical aid in accordance with their training and current certification levels. This should be done for those in need of immediate care and when the employee can safely do so.

The employee should contact Dispatch and request response by emergency medical services (EMS) as appropriate.

465.3.1 INJURY DOCUMENTATION

When officers are in a situation requiring police documentation and they contact a visibly injured subject related to the situation, the officer should attempt to determine the cause of the injury, ask if the subject requires medical aid, and document all visible injuries and care rendered. If the subject is uncooperative, refuses aide or refuses to answer questions, the officer should document what they observed and the subject's response.

465.4 TRANSPORTING ILL AND INJURED PERSONS

Except in extraordinary cases where alternatives are not reasonably available, members should not transport persons who are unconscious, who have serious injuries or who may be seriously ill. EMS personnel should be called to handle patient transportation.

Officers should search any person who is in custody before releasing that person to EMS for transport.

An officer may accompany any person in custody during transport in an ambulance when requested by EMS personnel, when it reasonably appears necessary to provide security, when it is necessary for investigative purposes or when so directed by a supervisor.

Members should generally not provide emergency escort for medical transport or civilian vehicles.

Subjects in custody who are deemed an escape risk while receiving care at a medical facility may be restrained pursuant Department policy. The officer(s) maintaining custody are expected to remain reasonably present with the person in custody as long as they are being held in restraints at the facility.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Medical Aid and Response

465.5 PERSONS REFUSING EMS CARE

If a person who is not in custody refuses EMS care or refuses to be transported to a medical facility, an officer shall not force that person to receive care or be transported unless authorized pursuant RCW 10.120.020.

In cases where mental illness may be a factor, the officer should consider proceeding with an emergent detention in accordance with Policy 418 - Emergent Detentions.

Officers shall not sign refusal-for-treatment forms or forms accepting financial responsibility for treatment.

465.5.1 SICK OR INJURED ARRESTEE

Police officers are responsible for the well-being and protection of persons in their custody, and must ensure that a person in custody receives appropriate medical assistance. This can be accomplished by administering first aid and/or by obtaining medical care.

Whenever an officer observes a medical emergency experienced by a person in custody or other injury (i.e., the subject is obviously injured or exhibits signs of physical distress such as a broken bone, bleeding, difficulty breathing, head injury, mental incapacity, excited delirium, severe intoxication, or other visible injury), the officer shall:

- (a) Provide first aid to the extent they are trained and certified to do so and can do so safely, OR depending on the severity of the injury
- (b) Obtain medical assistance as soon as practical

Additionally, officers should obtain medical assistance in the following instances:

- (a) When a subject asks for medical care
- (b) When a subject expresses a complaint of injury or continuing pain
- (c) When a subject is unconscious

Where there is any doubt about the need for medical attention for a person in custody, members should resolve this doubt in favor of obtaining medical attention.

Any individual exhibiting the above signs should be continuously monitored until he/she can be medically assessed.

Medical assistance may consist of examination by fire personnel, paramedics, hospital staff or medical staff at the jail or custody facility.

If any such individual refuses medical attention, such a refusal shall be documented in related reports and, whenever practicable, should be witnessed by another officer and/or medical personnel.

Incidents where a person in custody receives medical care beyond examination and cursory care at the incident scene, officers shall notify a supervisor and any person taking custody of the arrestee that such medical care was performed.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Medical Aid and Response

Known or readily observable injuries and medical care on a subject in custody shall be properly documented on booking sheets and necessary police reports.

465.5.2 NALOXONE (NARCAN) ADMINISTRATION

In cases involving medical emergencies as a result of a suspected opioid overdose, members who have been properly trained in accordance with RCW 69.41.095 - may prescribe, dispense, distribute, and deliver an opioid antagonist directly to a person at risk of experiencing a suspected opioid-related overdose. Employees will only administer Naloxone intranasally.

465.6 MEDICAL ATTENTION RELATED TO USE OF FORCE

Specific guidelines for medical attention for injuries sustained from a use of force may be found in Policy 300 - Use of Force and Restraints.

465.7 AUTOMATED EXTERNAL DEFIBRILLATOR (AED) USE

A semi-automatic external defibrillator or AED should only be used by members who have completed a course approved by the Washington State Department of Health that includes instruction in CPR and the use of an AED (RCW 70.54.310).

465.7.1 AED REPORTING

Any member using an AED during which a shock was advised and delivered will complete a CPR/AED Use Report and forward to the Training Sergeant or designee for review.

See attachment: 465 CPR-AED Use Report.pdf

465.7.2 AED TRAINING AND MAINTENANCE

The Training Sergeant or designee is responsible for ensuring AED devices are inventoried, appropriately maintained and tested consistent with the manufacturer's operational guidelines, and will retain records of all maintenance in accordance with the established records retention schedule (RCW 70.54.310).

Any AED that is not functioning properly will be taken out of service and given to the Training Sergeant or designee who is responsible for ensuring appropriate maintenance.

465.8 POLICE MEDICS

Certified Police EMT/Paramedics will follow Clark County Public Health medical protocols to their level of certification.

Chapter 5 - Traffic Operations

Traffic Function and Responsibility

500.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The ultimate goal of traffic law enforcement is to reduce traffic collisions. This may be achieved through education programs, coordinating with traffic engineers, and the application of such techniques as geographic/temporal assignment of personnel and equipment and establishing preventive patrols to deal with specific categories of unlawful driving behavior. Traffic enforcement techniques are based on collision data, enforcement activity records, traffic volume and traffic conditions. This Department provides enforcement efforts toward violations, not only in proportion to the frequency of their occurrence in collision situations, but also in terms of traffic-related needs.

500.2 TRAFFIC OFFICER DEPLOYMENT

Several factors are considered in the development of deployment schedules for officers of the Vancouver Police Department, to include information provided by data retrieval systems showing traffic collision occurrences and citizen complaints. Some of the factors for analysis include:

- Location
- Time
- Day
- Violation factors

All officers assigned to patrol or traffic enforcement functions will emphasize enforcement of collision-causing violations during high collision hours and at locations of occurrence. All officers will take directed enforcement action on request of a supervisor and random enforcement action when appropriate against violators as a matter of routine. All officers shall maintain high visibility while working in general enforcement, especially at high-collision locations, construction zones, special events, and in response to citizen requests.

500.3 ENFORCEMENT

Enforcement actions are commensurate with applicable laws and consider the degree and severity of the violation committed. This Department does not establish ticket quotas and the number of arrests or citations issued by any officer shall not be used as the sole criterion for evaluating an officer's overall performance. The visibility and quality of an officer's work effort will be commensurate with the philosophy of this policy.

500.3.1 WARNINGS

Warnings or other non-punitive enforcement actions may be considered in each situation.

500.3.2 CITATIONS

Citations may be issued when an officer believes it is appropriate. It is essential that officers fully explain the rights and requirements imposed on motorists upon issuance of a citation for a traffic violation. Officers should provide the following information at a minimum:

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Traffic Function and Responsibility

- a. Explanation of the violation or charge.

Photographs of the collision scene and vehicle damage shall be taken by the investigator or supervisor.

If a traffic collision occurs with a police employee driving a police vehicle, whether on or off-duty outside the jurisdiction of the City of Vancouver, it shall be the responsibility of the agency of jurisdiction to investigate and report the collision according to their policies and state law. If the responding agency does not complete a collision report, and it is unreasonable for a VPD supervisor to respond and investigate, the employee shall obtain the necessary information from the scene to complete and submit a Washington State Motor Vehicle Collision Report and a Vancouver Police Property Damage Loss and Vehicle Incident Damage Report to their immediate supervisor upon their return to work.

Vehicle Towing and Release

510.1 POLICY

The Vancouver Police Department authorizes officers to take custody of vehicles for evidence, forfeiture or impound and to conduct searches of the vehicles as allowed under applicable laws.

510.2 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy provides the procedures for towing a vehicle by or at the direction of the Vancouver Police Department.

510.3 AUTHORIZATION TO TAKE CUSTODY OF A VEHICLE

A police officer may take custody of a vehicle, at his or her discretion, and provide for its prompt removal to a place of safety under any of the circumstances outlined in RCW 46.55.113 and otherwise by law. This includes impounding a vehicle from private property, if allowed by law.

Officers should consider reasonable alternatives to the impound. Officers do not have to exhaust all possible alternatives before impounding a vehicle. Reasonable alternatives include, but are not limited to:

- (a) Allowing the operator to retain custody of the vehicle, if the operator is not likely to continue to engage in unlawful conduct
- (b) Transferring custody of the vehicle to another person at the scene or someone who can respond in a reasonable period of time to take custody of the vehicle
- (c) Securing the vehicle where it was stopped, if the vehicle is parked legally and safely
- (d) Moving the vehicle to a safe and legal parking location
- (e) Asking the owner, manager, or employee of the parking lot or business if the vehicle can remain on their property
- (f) Contacting the registered and/or legal owner to move the vehicle in a reasonable period of time if the vehicle has been abandoned

If the vehicle is impounded, officers should document, in their report, any alternatives that were considered and why those alternatives were not reasonable under the circumstances.

510.4 EMPLOYEE RESPONSIBILITIES

The responsibilities of those Vancouver Police Department employees impounding, towing or moving a vehicle are as follows.

510.4.1 REMOVAL OF VEHICLE DISABLED IN A TRAFFIC COLLISION

When a vehicle has been involved in a traffic collision and must be removed from the scene, unless the operator of the vehicle arranges for the prompt removal of the vehicle, a company will be selected from the VPD rotational list of towing companies in Dispatch.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Vehicle Towing and Release

510.4.2 DRIVING A NON-CITY VEHICLE TO AVOID A TOW

Vehicles may be driven by police personnel when necessary to move the vehicle a short distance to mitigate a hazard or prevent the obstruction of a fire hydrant in the event of a fire emergency.

510.4.3 RECORDS NOTIFICATION

Whenever a vehicle is towed under the authority of an officer, VPD Records Division shall be notified as soon as practicable before the end of their current work shift. Officers should notate the name and PSN of the Records employee notified into their related report.

510.4.4 RECORDS RESPONSIBILITIES

Whenever a recovered stolen vehicle is impounded by the Vancouver Police Department, VPD Records Division personnel will promptly attempt to notify the legal owner of the recovery. All notification attempts will be documented.

510.5 TOWING SERVICES FOR FORFEITURE AND EVIDENCE IMPOUND

The City of Vancouver periodically selects a firm to act as the official tow service and awards a contract to that firm. This firm will be used in the following situations:

- (a) When a vehicle is seized for forfeiture.
- (b) When a vehicle is being held as evidence in connection with an investigation and service of a search warrant.

510.5.1 ASSET FORFEITURE IMPOUND

If the case officer has reason to seize the vehicle per RCW for an asset/civil forfeiture, the officer will follow established Department procedures regarding asset forfeiture.

The vehicle will be taken to the VPD Evidence Facility and placed in the secured parking lot if there is room available. If there is not room, or the facility is not accessible, a supervisor will determine where the vehicle will be placed. All documents will be forwarded to the Logistics Unit Supervisor.

Every contact, attempted contact and event regarding this process will be documented in a police report. It is vital to include all dates, times, and names for documentation purposes.

510.5.2 EVIDENCE / SEARCH WARRANT IMPOUND

Vehicles believed to contain vital evidence shall be placed in a secured, designated evidence area while applying for a search warrant. The seized vehicle should be marked by the orange markers in evidence, unless marking the vehicle will interfere with the investigation or may destroy or damage evidence. The vehicle should be marked after the warrant has been served if there is no further risk of destruction of evidence or additional need to maintain the vehicle in the same condition it was in when it was seized. The vehicles should have the date and case number placed on the windshield. The vehicle will be processed as soon as reasonable. If the vehicle cannot be processed within the current work week, the case officer will notify their supervisor and advise of the reasons for the delay.

Once the vehicle is processed, the case officer will make a reasonable attempt to notify the owner and/or responsible party to have the vehicle released back to them. If the officer does not contact

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Vehicle Towing and Release

the owner and/or responsible party, the vehicle will be towed using the next available tow from the tow company rotational list. All interest by VPD will be released.

Every contact, attempted contact and event regarding this process will be documented in the related police reports to include all dates, times, and names.

510.6 VEHICLE SEARCHES

Vehicles may be searched with a search warrant or valid exception.

If the search is of a vehicle under the control of a juvenile, the provisions of youth access to counsel under RCW 13.40.740 must be followed.

510.7 VEHICLE INVENTORY SEARCH

Any property located or identified as having an obvious high value may be submitted into the evidence system for safekeeping.

510.8 SECURITY OF VEHICLES AND PROPERTY

Unless it would cause an unreasonable delay in the completion of a vehicle impound/storage or create an issue of officer safety, officers should make reasonable accommodations to permit a driver/owner to retrieve items of value or personal need (e.g. cash, jewelry, cell phone, prescriptions) which are not considered evidence or contraband.

Impaired Driving

514.1 POLICY

The Vancouver Police Department will pursue fair but aggressive enforcement of Washington's impaired driving laws. All officers are expected to enforce impaired driving laws with due diligence.

The Department recognizes that Impaired Driving procedures change over time due to many factors and places responsibility on the Traffic Unit to maintain a current DUI Procedures Manual for use by Department personnel. The procedures in the DUI Procedures Manual should be followed by officers with any exceptions based on articulable reasons and supervisory approval, if feasible.

All sworn employees at the rank of Sergeant and below assigned to patrol and traffic enforcement must ensure their breath test and Standardized Field Sobriety Tests (SFST) training is current.

514.2 FIELD SOBRIETY TESTS

Officers conduct Standardized Field Sobriety Tests (SFSTs) according to Department approved training.

514.3 IMPLIED CONSENT

- A. Implied Consent only applies to breath tests.
- B. Officers utilize the WSP DUI Arrest Report form for the implied consent process.

514.4 BREATH TESTS

Officers utilize BAC instruments consistent with Washington State Patrol (WSP) training. The State of Washington uses breath tests as the primary testing procedure for impaired drivers.

514.4.1 BREATH TESTING INSTRUMENTS

WSP is responsible for servicing all BAC instruments used for the collection and analysis of breath samples. If a BAC instrument is malfunctioning, officers should notify their supervisor and WSP by calling CRESA dispatch.

The Department issues and maintains instruments known as Preliminary Breath Tests (PBTs). The PBTs are to be calibrated every 6 months and are to be used according to WAC 448-15.

514.5 BLOOD TESTS

An officer may obtain a blood sample for testing purposes when the officer has reasonable grounds to believe the individual was driving or was in physical control of a vehicle under the influence. An individual's refusal to provide a breath sample does not prevent an officer from obtaining a blood sample pursuant to a warrant or valid exception to the warrant requirement.

Only persons authorized by law to withdraw blood shall collect blood samples (RCW 46.61.506).

The withdrawal of the blood sample should be witnessed by the processing officer.

The Training Unit shall ensure that all sworn officers receive training on impaired driver investigations and procedures.

Chapter 6 - Investigation Operations

Criminal Street Gangs

601.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy establishes a procedure for identifying criminal street gangs, participants of criminal street gangs, and patterns of criminal activity.

The Department recognizes that criminal gangs, by their very nature, pose a grave threat to the safety of police and citizens who encounter them. The Department may gather and organize information about participants in criminal gang activity in order to effectively address the law enforcement problem which criminal gangs present.

The Department also recognizes that it is not a crime to be associated with a gang. Therefore, the designation of a person as a criminal gang associate or member does not give any police officer the authority to take action against that individual which could not be lawfully taken against a person not designated as a gang associate or member.

601.2 DEFINITIONS

Criminal Street Gang: Shall mean any ongoing organization, association, or group of three or more persons, whether formal or informal, having a common name or common identifying sign or symbol, having as one of its primary activities the commission of criminal acts, and whose members or associates individually or collectively engage or have engaged in a pattern of criminal activity.

Criminal Street Gang Associate or Member: Shall mean any person who actively participates in any criminal street gang and who intentionally promotes, furthers, or assists in any criminal act by the criminal street gang.

Criminal Street Gang Affiliate: An individual who does not meet the criteria for a street gang member but is known to have a close connection with active gang members, and law enforcement personnel have established a reasonable suspicion that the individual is involved in criminal activity or enterprise, or promotes the criminal activity of a gang.

Gang Related Crime: Shall mean any crime, which is committed for the benefit of, at the direction of, or in association with, a criminal street gang with the intent to promote, further or assist any criminal street gang

601.3 IDENTIFICATION OF CRIMINAL STREET GANGS/PARTICIPANTS

2. The person participates in a criminal gang initiation ritual or ceremony.
3. The person conspires to commit, or commits a crime:
 - (a) Which is part of a pattern of street crimes facilitated by the efforts of other gang members or associates which advance the interests of the person; OR

601.4 CRIMINAL STREET GANG DATABASE

VPD will use WSIN, or other state approved gang database, to maintain Department gang information. Members of the Department shall not use the current report writing program as a gang database and shall not use the information contained in the police writing program as such.

The Department will use the following guidelines for entering gang information into WSIN or another state approved gang database:

1. Suspicious incidents, information reports and criminal incidents that appear to be criminal street gang related will be documented in a police report.
 - (a) The reporting officer shall describe why the incident may be criminal street gang related and document statements and information supporting the belief that involvement of a criminal street gang has occurred.
 - (b) The officer shall specifically indicate that a copy of the report be routed to the gang unit supervisor or other person designated by the Office of the Chief for review.
2. The gang unit supervisor or other person designated by the Office of the Chief, will review all submitted reports and determine whether the facts of the report meet the criteria set forth in this policy for designation as a street gang or street gang associate/member.

If the necessary criteria are met, the gang unit supervisor or other person designated by the Office, of the Chief should forward the information for entry into WSIN, or another state approved gang database, on a case by case basis.

2. Photographing known or suspected criminal street gang participants shall be done in accordance with the provisions of Policy Manual § 440 (Photographing of Field Detainees).

601.6 DISSEMINATION OF GANG DATABASE INFORMATION

Information from WSIN, or another state approved gang database, may be furnished to Department personnel and other public law enforcement agencies on a need-to-know basis only and dependent on the individual databases rules of release.

604.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy provides guidelines for arson/explosives investigations and utilizing the Arson/Explosives Unit.

604.2 POLICY

3. Attempts to increase the Department's rate of apprehensions and prosecution in crimes of arson and the use of, or manufacturing of explosives through the use of proper evidence collection and preservation, using established and recognized scientific methods of fire and law enforcement procedures in accordance with applicable local, state, and federal law.
4. Assists the VPD Major Crimes Unit in homicide and suspicious death investigations in which arson or incendiary devices play a part.
5. Attends additional training to adequately investigate arson and explosives in general.

7. The Arson/Explosives Unit includes officer(s) collaterally assigned to conduct arson related crimes as well as the VPD officer(s) assigned to the Portland Metro Explosives Disposal Unit (MEDU). These officers attend additional training to adequately investigate arson and/or explosives in general.

604.3 ARSON UNIT DEPLOYMENT

A. Procedures for utilizing the Arson Investigator

1. The on-call Fire Marshall is responsible for the initial fire response. If the Fire Marshall determines that a VPD arson investigator is required to assist, they will contact CRESA in order to notify an Arson Investigator. An Arson Investigator who is on-duty will be contacted before contacting an investigator who is off-duty.
2. The Arson Investigator will assess the information provided by the Fire Marshall. If the investigator is currently on duty, they will immediately notify their on-duty patrol sergeant that they have been called to an arson or explosives incident.
3. The on-duty Patrol Supervisor should make every effort to allow the investigator to respond to the incident and assist the Fire Marshal. When applicable, the on duty-

Patrol Supervisor will ensure that the Arson Supervisor is notified and make command notifications as well.

4. The investigator will respond to the scene and will work with the Fire Department or other investigative agency in determining the origin and cause of the fire, and the collection and preservation of evidence relating to the cause of the fire. Under most circumstances, the investigator will maintain control of all evidence for court purposes.
5. Evidence shall be processed in accordance with Vancouver Police Department guidelines.

During all other times, including during MEDU related emergency call-outs, the MEDU officer remains under the Special Operations Division chain of command.

C. On Duty Investigators

1. If an on-duty arson/explosives investigator is called to assist with an investigation, the on-duty patrol supervisor will attempt to determine the length of the investigation and ensure that the patrol staffing levels are maintained during the investigation.
2. If a staffing shortage is created on the investigator's original patrol shift(s), the supervisor should make arrangements to call in or hold over personnel for the remainder of the shift.
3. The on-duty patrol supervisor should make every effort to ensure that the investigator(s) are free to investigate the incident without having to perform patrol duties when possible. This in no way prohibits a supervisor from requesting that an investigator leave the scene of an investigation for emergency circumstances as they deem appropriate.

604.3.1 ARSON UNIT SUPERVISOR RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Overall coordination of the unit and for supervising the assigned investigators.
2. Case management of the unit and keeping statistical records detailing the unit activities.

If the Subordinate Custodian returns Investigative Funds or a residual amount of an initial disbursement to the Primary Custodian, that information shall be noted on the VPD Custodian Level Funds Disbursement Record form.

For Investigative Funds temporarily reassigned to a Subordinate Custodian, the Funds Use/Receipts form shall be collected from that individual with all expenditures noted in an on-going method on the form. 607.14 MONEY USED OTHER THAN FOR AN ACTIVE INVESTIGATION

Investigative funds, with supervisory approval, may be used as a method of continuing cooperation with an individual, while not directly paying them for an active investigation. This shall only happen when the cooperating individual meets active informant status under informant establishment procedures in the Confidential Informant Policy (608), and the expenditure can be justified as a benefit to the Department. An example is purchasing a pre-paid cellular telephone or making a payment to a service provider, to be able to maintain communication with the person. In this incident, the expenditure shall be noted on a Funds Use/Receipt form with use documentation noted under "CI Expense" to include an explanation. Other authorized expenditures, not related to a cooperating individual shall be noted under the "Other" box, with an explanation. Money expenditures will occur using the same guidelines in 607.12 Informant Payment Procedures.

Confidential Informants

608.1 POLICY

Confidential Informants may be used subject to this policy to gather criminal intelligence and to further criminal investigations. Only members who have completed Department approved training may utilize confidential informants or maintain informant files. Other employees may refer persons interested in working as a confidential informant to appropriate specialized unit personnel.

608.2 PURPOSE

This policy addresses the selection, development, recruitment, and utilization of confidential informants and will help protect the integrity of the Vancouver Police Department and its members as well as the safety of confidential informants, law enforcement members, criminal suspects and the public.

608.3 DEFINITIONS

Confidential Informant (CI) – A person who provides criminal intelligence or investigative information on more than one occasion, whether or not the person indicates a desire to have their identity kept confidential and is under agreement with law enforcement to cooperate in return for some type of compensation (e.g., the deferment of charges or payment of monies). Agreements must be in writing. The term informant shall be given the same meaning.

Controlling Officer - The officer/detective responsible for the development and use of a Cooperating Individual.

608.4 TRAINING

Officers and Supervisors must complete a Department approved course of instruction regarding informant utilization before working with informants as a Controlling Officer or approving the use and overseeing the Controlling Officer's management of informants. Confidential informant guidelines and training material shall be kept updated by the Investigations Unit and made available to personnel.

608.5 USE OF INFORMANTS

The only units authorized to use Confidential Informants are Investigative Units. The Assistant Chief of the Investigations Bureau may approve exceptions outside of investigative units.

Before using an individual as a confidential informant, the following conditions must be adhered to:

- (a) Informants must be formally established and approved by the officer's on-duty sergeant before their utilization. The informant packet will then be reviewed and approved by the respective lieutenant as soon as practical within the same work week. The sergeant's approval includes an in-person meeting between the CI and sergeant prior to approval. The meeting must be documented in writing. Supervisors and lieutenants must complete a Department approved course of instruction regarding informant utilization before approving the use of informants. Approval documentation must be placed in the CI's file.

- (d) The re-establishment of an informant previously declared unreliable requires prior approval from the Investigations chain of command.
- (e) Informants are assets of the Vancouver Police Department, not specific officers. At their discretion, a lieutenant may transfer an informant to the control of another officer or unit. The lieutenant transferring control shall document the transfer in a memorandum and place it into the Master Informant file.
- (f) Officers utilizing informants shall minimize their access to police facilities.
- (g) Actionable information from informants shall be documented in reports, i.e. police reports, working informant files, contact logs or search warrant, unless an exception is granted specifically by an informed supervisor. An example of inconsequential information is the informant calling the handler to check in or pass along information that would not result in a warrant, controlled buy, etc.
- (h) No informant will be used until their true identity has been established. Identity can be verified by the following resources: criminal history, Department of Licensing, police reports, and AFIS.
- (i) No information shall be provided with a VPD member's personal home address or home or cell phone number. Informants should make contact through business text or business calls only, except as might occur in unscheduled field meeting.

608.5.1 JUVENILE INFORMANTS

The Vancouver Police Department will not use persons under the age of 18 as an undercover or Confidential Informant for the purpose of collecting evidence of criminal activity. This does not restrict or prohibit personnel from accepting and utilizing intelligence type information voluntarily offered by juveniles or obtained from them during the course of an investigation. VPD personnel may actively solicit information and assistance from juveniles in the solving of a crime. Eyewitness Identification

610.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy sets forth guidelines to be used when members of this Department employ eyewitness identification techniques.

610.1.1 DEFINITIONS

Definitions related to the policy include:

Eyewitness Identification Process - Any field identification, live lineup or photographic identification (photo laydowns).

Field Identification - A live presentation of a single individual to a witness following the commission of a criminal offense for the purpose of identifying or eliminating the person as the suspect.

Live Lineup - A live presentation of individuals to a witness for the purpose of identifying or eliminating an individual as the suspect.

Photographic Lineup (Photo Laydown) - Presentation of photographs to a witness for the purpose of identifying or eliminating an individual as the suspect.

610.2 POLICY

This Department will strive to use eyewitness identification techniques, when appropriate, to enhance the investigative process and will emphasize identifying persons responsible for crime and exonerating the innocent.

610.3 INTERPRETIVE SERVICES

Officers should make a reasonable effort to arrange for an interpreter before proceeding with eyewitness identification if communication with a witness is impeded due to language or hearing barriers.

Before the interpreter is permitted to discuss any matter with the witness, the investigating officer should explain the identification process to the interpreter. Once it is determined that the interpreter comprehends the process and can explain it to the witness, the eyewitness identification may proceed as provided for within this policy.

610.4 EYEWITNESS IDENTIFICATION FORM

The Investigations Division Commander or designee shall be responsible for the development and maintenance of an eyewitness identification process for use by Department members when they are conducting eyewitness identifications.

The process and any related forms or reports should provide:

- (a) The date, time and location of the eyewitness identification procedure.
- (b) The name and identifying information of the witness.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Eyewitness Identification

- (c) The name of the person administering the identification procedure.
- (d) If applicable, the names of all of the individuals present during the identification procedure.
- (e) An admonishment that the suspect may or may not be among those presented and the witness is not obligated to make an identification.
- (f) An admonishment to the witness the investigation will continue regardless of whether an identification is made by the witness.
- (g) A signature line where the witness acknowledges he/she understands the identification procedures and instructions.

610.5 EYEWITNESS IDENTIFICATION

Officers are cautioned not to, in any way, influence a witness as to whether any subject or photo presented in a lineup is in any way connected to the case. Officers should avoid mentioning that:

- The individual was apprehended near the crime scene.
- The evidence points to the individual as the suspect.
- Other witnesses have identified, or failed to identify, the individual as the suspect.

In order to avoid undue influence, witnesses should view suspects or a lineup individually and outside the presence of other witnesses. Witnesses should be instructed to avoid discussing details of the incident or of the identification process with other witnesses.

Whenever feasible, the eyewitness identification procedure should be audio and/or video recorded and the recording should be retained according to current evidence procedures.

610.5.1 PHOTOGRAPHIC (PHOTO LAYDOWN) AND LIVE LINEUP CONSIDERATIONS

When practicable, the person composing the lineup and the person presenting the lineup should not be directly involved in the investigation of the case. When this is not possible, the member presenting the lineup must take the utmost care not to communicate the identity of the suspect in any way.

When practicable, the employee presenting a lineup to a witness should not know which photograph or person is the suspect.

Other persons or photos used in any lineup should bear similar characteristics to the suspect to avoid causing him/her to unreasonably stand out. In cases involving multiple suspects, a separate lineup should be conducted for each suspect. The suspects should be placed in a different order within each lineup.

The officer presenting the lineup to a witness should do so sequentially and not simultaneously (i.e., show the witness one person at a time). The witness should view all persons in the lineup.

The order of the suspect or the photos and the fillers should be randomized before being presented to each witness.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Eyewitness Identification

A live lineup should only be used before criminal proceedings have been initiated against the suspect. If there is any question as to whether any criminal proceedings have begun, the investigating officer should contact the appropriate Prosecuting Attorney before proceeding.

610.5.2 FIELD IDENTIFICATION CONSIDERATIONS

Field identifications, also known as field elimination show-ups or one-on-one identifications, may be helpful in certain cases, where exigent circumstances make it impracticable to conduct a photo laydown or live lineup identifications. A field elimination or show-up identification should not be used when independent probable cause exists to arrest a suspect. In such cases, a live or photo lineup is the preferred course of action if eyewitness identification is contemplated.

When initiating a field identification, the officer should observe the following guidelines:

- (a) Obtain a complete description of the suspect from the witness.
- (b) Assess whether a witness should be included in a field identification process by considering:
 1. The length of time the witness observed the suspect.
 2. The distance between the witness and the suspect.
 3. Whether the witness could view the suspect's face.
 4. The quality of the lighting when the suspect was observed by the witness.
 5. Whether there were distracting noises or activity during the observation.
 6. Any other circumstances affecting the witness's opportunity to observe the suspect.
 7. The length of time that has elapsed since the witness observed the suspect.
- (c) If safe and practicable, the person who is the subject of the show-up should not be handcuffed or in a patrol vehicle.
- (d) When feasible, officers should bring the witness to the location of the suspect, rather than bring the suspect to the witness.
- (e) A person should not be shown to the same witness more than once.
- (f) In cases involving multiple suspects, witnesses should only be permitted to view the suspects one at a time.
- (g) A person in a field identification should not be required to put on clothing worn by the suspect, to speak words uttered by the suspect or to perform other actions mimicking those of the suspect.
- (h) If a witness positively identifies an individual as the perpetrator, officers may not need to conduct any further field identifications with other witnesses for that suspect.

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Eyewitness Identification

610.6 DOCUMENTATION

A thorough description of the eyewitness process and the results of any eyewitness identification should be documented in the case report. Witness comments of how certain he/she is of the identification or non-identification should be quoted in the report.

If a photographic lineup (photo laydown) is utilized, a photo copy of the witness signed laydown is made and attached as an orphan document in the case file. The original photo laydown will be submitted into evidence. If more than one photo laydown is presented, the order of the montages presented will be documented in the report.

Brady Material Disclosure

612.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy establishes guidelines for identifying and releasing potentially exculpatory or impeachment information ("PID Material," sometimes referred to elsewhere as "Brady material") to the Vancouver City Prosecutor and the Clark County Prosecuting Attorney ("Prosecutor").

612.1.1 DEFINITIONS

Definitions related to this policy include:

Brady material – from Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), in which the Supreme Court ruled that suppression by the prosecution of evidence favorable to a defendant who has requested it violates due process. Evidence known to the prosecution that is favorable to a defendant's case and material to the issue of guilt or to punishment and that the prosecution is obligated to disclose to the defense.

Potential Impeachment Disclosure (PID) Material - Information known or possessed by the Vancouver Police Department that is both favorable and material to the accused, either because it is exculpatory, or it is impeaching.

Exculpatory - Information that clears or tends to clear someone from alleged fault or guilt.

Impeaching - To raise doubts about; discredit or disparage: impeach a witness's credibility; impeach someone's character.

612.2 POLICY

The Vancouver Police Department (VPD) will conduct fair and impartial investigations and will provide the prosecution with both incriminating and exculpatory evidence, to include information that may adversely affect the credibility of a witness for the State. In addition to reporting all evidence of guilt, VPD will assist the prosecution by complying with its obligation to disclose information that is both favorable and material to the accused. The Department will identify and disclose PID Material to the prosecution as provided in this policy.

612.3 DISCLOSURE OF INVESTIGATIVE INFORMATION

Officers must include in their investigative reports adequate investigative information and reference to all material evidence and facts that are reasonably believed to be either incriminating or exculpatory to any individual in the case. If an officer learns of potentially incriminating or exculpatory information any time after submission of a case, the officer or the handling investigator must prepare and submit a supplemental report documenting such information as soon as practicable. Supplemental reports shall be promptly processed and transmitted to the prosecutor's office.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Brady Material Disclosure

If information is believed to be privileged or confidential (e.g., informant or attorney-client information, attorney work product), the officer should discuss the matter with a supervisor and/or prosecutor to determine the appropriate manner in which to proceed.

Evidence or facts are considered material if there is a reasonable probability that they would affect the outcome of a criminal proceeding or trial. Determining whether evidence or facts are material often requires legal or even judicial review. If an officer is unsure whether evidence or facts are material, the officer should address the issue with a supervisor.

Supervisors who are uncertain about whether evidence or facts are material should address the issue in a written memo to an appropriate prosecutor. A copy of the memo should be retained in the Department case file.

612.4 INVESTIGATING BRADY AND PID ISSUES

If the Department receives information from any source that a member may have engaged in any conduct listed in section 612.6, the information shall be investigated and processed in accordance with the Department Policy 1004.

612.5 BRADY AND PID PROCESS

The Chief of Police shall select a member of the Department to coordinate requests for Brady or PID information. This person shall be directly responsible to the Administration Division Commander or the authorized designee. RCW 10.93.180, the protocol for potential impeachment disclosures, requires the local county prosecuting attorney to develop guidance for:

- (a) The types of conduct that should be recognized as potentially exculpatory or as creating potential impeachment material.
- (b) How information about an officer or officer conduct should be shared and maintained.
- (c) What circumstances an officer's information or name may be removed from any list of potential impeachment disclosures.

612.5.1 BRADY/PID COORDINATOR RESPONSIBILITIES

The Department designated coordinator of Brady/PID information disclosures shall:

- (a) Comply with RCW 10.93.180 (Protocol for potential impeachment disclosures).
- (b) Within 10 days of discovery of the following information, notify the prosecuting authority of any jurisdiction in which the officer may testify as a witness:
 1. Any sustained findings regarding an act by the officer that may be potentially exculpatory to a criminal defendant.
 2. Any sustained finding of misconduct that the officer has engaged in that affects his or her credibility.
 3. Newly hired officers with prior PID material from a previous law enforcement agency.
- (c) Implement the protocols adopted by the county prosecutor under RCW 10.93.180.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Brady Material Disclosure

- (d) Maintain a current list of members who have Brady/PID information in their files or backgrounds:
 - 1. Updating this list whenever potential Brady/PID information concerning any department member becomes known to the Department or is placed into a personnel or internal affairs file.
 - 2. If a Department member is cleared of allegations involving potential Brady information, removing the officer's name from the Department list, consistent with the County prosecutor's protocols.
 - 3. Notify and keep subject members apprised of any Brady/PID designation, inquiry or release of materials. If Brady/PID material is sent to the prosecutor's office, the employee shall be notified within 7 days of the information being disseminated.
 - 4. If information about a pending IA or criminal investigation is communicated to the prosecutors' officer under this Policy and/or the County protocols adopted pursuant to RCW 10.93.180, notify the prosecutors' offices of the finding for the investigation once complete.

612.5.2 PROSECUTING ATTORNEY'S LIST OF PID MATERIAL

The Clark County Prosecuting Attorney's Office has published local protocols for Brady/PID material which requires local law enforcement to report. This material must be reported to the local prosecutor within 10 days:

- (a) Sustained findings for:
 - 1. Truthfulness (as described in policy 339)
 - 2. Demonstrating bias (as described in policy 402)
 - 3. Racial profiling (as described in policy 402)
 - 4. Malicious harassment (RCW 9A.36.080: Hate crime offense—Definition)
 - 5. Excessive force (as defined by policy 300)
- (b) Criminal convictions pursuant to CrR 4.7 (Washington State Courts - Court Rules)
- (c) Summary of any pending Investigations for allegations of:
 - 1. Truthfulness (as described in policy 339)
 - 2. Bias (as described in policy 402)
 - 3. Criminal conduct
 - 4. Excessive force (as defined by policy 300)
 - 5. For those employees who provide expert witness testimony such as Drug Recognition Experts (DRE), Crash Analysis Reconstruction Experts, Forensic Scientists, specifically related to their area of expertise, any Competent Performance or Neglect of Duty issues that compromise an expert's conclusions (as described in policy 339).

612.6 SUBPOENA PROCESSING

The individual processing subpoenas (or the supervisor of the subpoenaed member) shall check the subpoenaed member's name against the current list of those who are known to have Brady information in their files or background and shall alert the coordinator if a person on the list is subpoenaed.

612.7 LAW ENFORCEMENT DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS – POTENTIAL IMPEACHMENT LIST

Any disciplinary actions taken as a result of an employee being placed on a Brady impeachment list will be consistent with current Guilds contractually binding agreements (CBAs) and VPD Policy 1004.

613.6 ADMINISTRATION

The policies and procedures outlined here are issued by the Vancouver Police Department. This policy is not intended to be all-inclusive. In addition to this policy, UAS Operators shall know and understand FAA Regulations, Certificate of Authorization (COA), and the UAS manufacturer's flight manual.

A copy of this policy shall be issued to each UAS member. This policy shall be reviewed, at a minimum, annually to ensure it is up to date. Any changes to the policy will be updated and communicated to all Department members.

The UAS Unit leadership will be responsible for maintaining a standard operating procedures manual as a guide for the UAS Unit. Any changes to FAA regulations, local, state, or federal laws, and/or any changes to the Vancouver Police Department's procedures governing UAS operation will be updated in this manual and approved by the UAS chain of command.

613.7 PROCEDURES FOR USE

The Vancouver Police Department must obtain applicable authorizations, permits, or certificates required by the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) prior to deploying or operating the UAS, and these authorizations, permits, and certificates shall be maintained and current.

613.8 UAS OPERATION

Outside of training, the UAS will be operated only by personnel who have been trained and certified in the operation of the UAS and are FAA Certified Remote Pilots. PIC's and TFO's shall operate the UAS pursuant to the procedure manual and current policy. Student pilots may only operate the UAS when in a training environment and under the direct supervision of an FAA Certified Remote Pilot.

613.9 UAS DATA COLLECTION AND RETENTION

Each UAS deployed will be capable of digital recording and photography during each deployment. All recordings captured by a UAS must be retained for a minimum of 90 days. Upon completion of each UAS mission, the recorded data shall be reviewed and evaluated for evidentiary value; recordings which are known to have captured an incident from which criminal prosecution or civil litigation may arise shall be submitted to evidence so it can be retained until the exhaustion of any appeals process.

Data of identifiable individuals captured during a UAS mission shall not be retained longer than the minimum 90 days unless there is reasonable suspicion that evidence of criminal activity is present. All retained data shall be maintained or destroyed pursuant to Vancouver Police Department records retention and evidence policies and in compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

Any video or photographs obtained by the UAS operation may be submitted by the PIC as evidence in accordance with Vancouver Police Department's policies and procedures.

The UAS Unit is responsible for the installation and maintenance of cameras used on the uncrewed aircraft. The UAS Unit is not responsible for monitoring or uploading video deemed as evidence by any other unit or investigator. However, evidentiary videos captured on behalf of an outside

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Uncrewed Aircraft System (UAS)

agency must still be retained by VPD. In such cases, in addition to supplying a copy of the footage to the outside agency, the UAS operator must also author a police report and submit the original video to VPD evidence.

613.10 UAS REQUESTS

Any supervisor may request UAS assistance from a UAS Unit member.

- Immediate requests should be handled by on-duty UAS personnel.
- It is the PIC's responsibility to evaluate each situation and determine whether the use of a UAS is appropriate and reasonable. Both the on-duty supervisor and PIC have the authority to order that the UAS team disengage. It is not necessary that the supervisor and PIC agree. The PIC shall have the authority to decline the use of a UAS whenever he/she deems deployment is unsuitable.
- UAS Unit pilots should notify an on-duty supervisor prior to deployment. The on-duty supervisor may decline the use of a UAS based on the circumstances.
- If no UAS Unit pilots are working when an exigent need arises, any supervisor may request the services of an outside agency UAS unit to provide for quick response.
- If no other UAS Units are available, a supervisor may request a UAS Unit callout. The requesting supervisor will contact a UAS sergeant to discuss the situation and determine if the UAS Unit should be called out.
- Preplanned UAS missions will be coordinated by the requesting unit through a UAS sergeant.

613.10.1 EXIGENT DEPLOYMENTS

During exigent deployments, the PIC will continually weigh the exigency of a deployment against the requirement to obtain a search warrant when feasible. The PIC is responsible for the continual assessment of the mission and if it remains exigent, or if a warrant is required.

If the exigency of a mission appears to be diminishing, the PIC will assess whether to land the aircraft or to keep the point of observation while designating a warrant writer to begin the search warrant application process (based upon the circumstances of the case).

613.11 RESTRICTIONS

The UAS systems shall be deployed and used only to support official law enforcement and public safety missions, as well as for training and public awareness purposes.

The UAS systems shall not be operated in an unsafe manner or in violation of FAA rules.

The UAS system shall not be equipped with weapons of any kind.

The UAS system shall not be used for the purpose of random surveillance.

613.12 TRAINING

All PICs will be certified under FAA Part 107 and National Institute Standards and Technology (NIST) certification course. PICs will complete the agency-approved training to ensure the proper

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Uncrewed Aircraft System (UAS)

and safe operation of their assigned UAS. Additional training shall be required to ensure the continued effective and proper operation of the UAS.

All UAS Unit members will maintain proficiency with the unit UAS platforms, and will maintain knowledge of all pertinent FAA regulations, local, state, and federal laws, and any VPD policies and /or procedures for UAS operation. All UAS Unit members will be trained pursuant to VPD UAS Unit SOP.

Training flights consist of any time spent operating a UAS outside of a documented mission. Training flight will be documented by the PIC and will be logged for retention. Training flights must follow all guidelines within the UAS Unit SOP manual.

Sexual Assault Investigations

614.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines for the investigation of sexual assaults. These guidelines will address some of the unique aspects of such cases and the effects that these crimes have on the victims

Mandatory notifications requirements are addressed in the Child Abuse and Adult Abuse policies.

614.1.1 DEFINITIONS

Definitions related to this policy include:

Sexual Assault - Any unwanted sexual contact from an individual, by means of touching the sexual or other intimate parts of a person or causing such person to touch the sexual or other intimate parts of the actor for the purpose of arousing or gratifying the sexual desire of either party or a third party, is considered an offense under Washington State laws. Sexual assault offenses are defined in RCW 9A.44.010 and RCW 9A.64.020. The commission of or attempted commission of a sexual offense chargeable under State laws include rape, indecent liberties, and voyeurism.

Sexual Assault Response Team (SART) - A multidisciplinary team generally comprised of advocates; law enforcement officers; forensic medical examiners, including sexual assault forensic examiners (SAFEs) or sexual assault nurse examiners (SANEs) if possible; forensic laboratory personnel; and prosecutors. The team is designed to coordinate a broad response to sexual assault victims.

Family or Household Relationship: Spouses, former spouses, persons with a child in common, adult (18+) persons related by blood or marriage, roommates or former roommates (16+), persons in a dating relationship or former dating relationship (16+), parent/child relationship including step-parents, legal guardians and grandparents (RCW 26.50.010).

Sexual Assault Victim Advocates (SAVA) - Advocates from a local non-profit organization specializing in serving victims of sexual assault. These individuals respond to police requests through the hospital to stay with a victim through hospital evaluation and care while also providing support and advocacy as needed.

Sexual Assault Medical Forensic Examination (SAFE) - An examination of a sexual assault patient by a health care provider; ideally one who has specialized education and clinical experience in the collection of forensic evidence and treatment of these patients.

Sexual Assault Kit (SAK) – A collection of evidence gathered from the victim by a medical professional, often a specially trained Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE). The type

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Sexual Assault Investigations

of evidence collected depends on what occurred during the assault. The contents of a kit generally include swabs, test tubes, microscopic slides and evidence collection envelopes for hairs and fibers. The SANE will also complete a report which will be included with the SAK.

Victim-Centered Approach - A victim-centered approach seeks to minimize re-traumatization associated with the criminal justice process by providing the support of victim advocates and service providers, thus empowering survivors throughout the criminal justice process.

614.2 POLICY

It is the policy of the Vancouver Police Department that its members, when responding to reports of sexual assault, will use a victim-centered approach in order to minimize the trauma experienced by the victims, and will proactively investigate all sexual assaults, in coordination with SART members in an effort to protect the safety of victims and the public.

614.3 QUALIFIED INVESTIGATORS/DETECTIVES

Qualified Investigators/Detectives should be available for assignment of the sexual assault investigations. These investigators should

- (a) Have a specialized training in, and be familiar with, interview techniques and the medical and legal issues that are specific to sexual assault investigations
- (b) Conduct follow-up interviews and investigation.
- (c) Present appropriate cases of alleged sexual assault to the Prosecutor's Office for review.
- (d) Coordinate with other enforcement agencies, social service agencies and medical personnel as needed.
- (e) Ensure the victim has received sexual assault (SA) and SA victim's rights information.
- (f) Participate in or coordinate with the SART or other multidisciplinary investigative teams as applicable.

614.4 PROCEDURE

Responding Officer Responsibilities:

- (a) When a call for service results in an Officer investigation of sexual assault, they will attempt to gather as much initial information as possible regarding what has occurred.
- (b) If emergency medical treatment is required, the responding officer shall request ambulance transport for the victim to the nearest hospital or the hospital of their choice.
- (c) Officers shall ensure they advise victims of the following:

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Sexual Assault Investigations

1. If a sexual assault occurred within the past five (5) days, officers shall inform the victim that they have the option to have a forensic medical exam to collect evidence, also known as a sexual assault kit (SAK), for a criminal investigation at no cost to them.
 2. If the victim chooses to go to the hospital for an exam, officers shall advise them not to eat or drink, bathe or change clothes prior to the examination, since evidence present on the victim's body and/or clothing may be destroyed or contaminated. Officers shall also confirm, through the hospital, a SAVA was requested to respond to the hospital and with the victim's consent, officers shall conduct an interview with the victim in the presence of the SAVA.
 3. For an incident older than five (5) days, a forensic exam is not necessary because DNA evidence deteriorates with time and may no longer be present. Officers shall inform the victim of this but also explain that they can still go to the hospital for a wellness exam.
- (d) Officers shall provide the victim with the Sexual Assault Victim Resource and Rights Guide in accordance with RCW 70.125.
 - (e) Officers shall complete the Sexual Assault Report Supplemental form in all cases where the victim is 16+ years of age.
 - (f) Officers shall take photos of the victim and the scene whenever possible and appropriate.
 - (g) Officers shall determine the location of the clothing worn by the victim during and/or immediately after the sexual assault. If the victim is still wearing the same clothes worn during the assault, recommend the victim bring a complete change of clothing to the hospital due to possible seizure of the clothes. If the victim is not wearing the same clothes worn during the assault, collect and place into evidence the clothes the victim wore during the assault. Officer shall package the clothing items separately, never in plastic, and allow wet clothing to dry prior to submitting it to evidence.
 - (h) All evidence shall be collected in accordance with Vancouver Police Department policy.
 - (i) Officers shall forward reports of sexual assault in which the victim (16+ years old) and suspect share a family or household relationship to the Domestic Violence Unit (DVU). The DVU Supervisor may consult with the Major Crimes Unit (MCU) Supervisor to determine if specific cases would be better investigated by MCU.
 - (j) Officers shall complete an appropriate police report submitted through their Patrol Sergeant and forward a copy to the appropriate Detective Unit prior to the end of shift. No opinion of whether the case is unfounded should be included in the patrol officer's report.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Sexual Assault Investigations

Investigator Responsibilities:

In the event detective contact is needed, responding officer(s) shall inform their supervisor. The supervisor shall make contact with the appropriate investigations unit supervisor who shall determine the appropriate response. The patrol supervisor may contact an investigative supervisor under any circumstances they deem appropriate. The circumstances outlined below require investigative unit notification.

When practical, a supervisor will assign a Sexual Assault Investigator to respond to the initial report and conduct the initial victim interview.

Barring circumstances in which there is a significant delay in the arrival of the SANE, an in-depth follow-up interview should not be conducted until after the medical and forensic examination are completed and the personal needs of the victim have been met (e.g., change of clothes, bathing). The follow-up interview may be delayed based upon the circumstances. Whenever practicable, the follow-up interview should be conducted by a qualified investigator.

Circumstances requiring Investigative Unit notification:

- (a) The victim is able to articulate a crime has been committed or the member is able to determine a crime was committed, and
- (b) The crime is no more than 24 hours old, and
- (c) The victim is willing to cooperate with an investigation, and
- (d) The nature or complexity of the crime requires a detective response.
- (e) A detective sergeant or shift sergeant may determine a detective response is necessary when circumstances do not fall within the above criteria.

Investigative Unit Responsibilities:

- (a) A Major Crime Unit (MCU) Detective may be requested and assigned when the victim(s) are 16 years old and older and the perpetrator is a non-family member.
- (b) Cases in which an individual 18 years old or older decides to report an offense that occurred when they were juvenile shall be referred to the CJC detectives.
- (c) A Children's Justice Center (CJC) Detective may be requested and assigned when the victim(s) are less than 16 years old.
- (d) A Domestic Violence Unit (DVU) Detective may be requested when the victim is over 16 years old and the perpetrator and victim share an intimate partner or family-household relationship.
- (e) The Investigations Lieutenant shall determine which unit will investigate cases that involve both sexual assault and DV, if unit supervisors are unable to make the determination.
- (f) The Detective Division shall investigate further and coordinate with the Prosecuting Attorney's Office.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Sexual Assault Investigations

614.5 POLYGRAPH EXAMINATION OF VICTIM

Victims of sex offenses shall not be asked or required to submit to a polygraph examination or other truth telling device as a condition for proceeding with the investigation of the offense.

614.6 VICTIM PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE

A victim may choose a personal representative to accompany him/her to the hospital or other health care facility and to any proceeding concerning the alleged sexual assault, including interviews. A personal representative includes a friend, relative, attorney, employee or volunteer from a community sexual assault program or specialized treatment service provider (RCW 70.125.030; RCW 70.125.060).

614.7 RELEASING INFORMATION TO THE PUBLIC

In cases where the perpetrator is not known to the victim, and especially if there are multiple crimes where more than one appear to be related, consideration should be given to releasing information to the public whenever there is a reasonable likelihood that doing so may result in developing helpful investigative leads. The Investigations supervisor should weigh the risk of alerting the suspect to the investigation with the need to protect the victim and the public, and to prevent more crimes.

614.8 SEXUAL ASSAULT KIT (SAK) COLLECTION

- (a) Upon receiving notification from a medical facility that a SAK has been collected, a PST or sworn officer shall retrieve the SAK and accompanying SANE report within seven days.
- (b) Officers shall take a courtesy report and collect SAKs at the request of outside agencies when a victim is reporting within Vancouver Police jurisdiction. Officers should notify the agency in which the assault occurred prior to taking the report.
- (c) Once in possession of a SAK from the medical facility, officers involved in investigating sexual assaults shall ensure evidence is appropriately packaged, enter the SAK into evidence and complete the required lab forms. Blood and urine collected with a SAK shall be submitted for lab testing when drug and/or alcohol facilitated sexual assault is suspected
- (d) Sexual assault examination kits shall be submitted to an approved lab within 30 days with a request for testing prioritization when an adult victim has consented to the submission or the victim is an un-emancipated person 18 years of age or younger (RCW 70.125.090). Additional guidance regarding evidence retention and destruction is found in the Property and Evidence Policy.

614.8.1 EVIDENCE AND PROPERTY RESPONSIBILITY

The Evidence Unit shall ensure that that sexual assault kits are submitted to the Washington State Patrol Crime Laboratory in accordance with RCW 70.125 and tracked appropriately in the statewide sexual assault kit tracking system (RCW 35.21.195; RCW

Sexual Assault Investigations

36.28.200). The Evidence Unit shall retain DNA evidence in accordance with RCWs 5.70.010 and 10.73.170.

614.8 TRAINING

Subject to available resources, periodic training should be provided to officers who are first responders. Training should include:

- (a) Initial response to sexual assaults.
- (b) Legal issues.
- (c) Victim advocacy.
- (d) Victim's response to trauma.
- (e) DNA collection procedures.

Qualified investigators should receive advanced training on additional topics. Advanced training should include:

- (a) Interviewing sexual assault victims.
- (b) SART.
- (c) Medical and legal aspects of sexual assault investigations.
- (d) Serial crimes investigations.
- (e) Techniques for communicating with victims to minimize trauma.
- (f) The course provided by the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission on investigating and prosecuting sexual assault cases developed pursuant to RCW 43.101.270.
- (g) Proper protocol for the use of the statewide sexual assault kit tracking system (RCW 35.21.195; RCW 36.28.200).

614.10 DISPOSITION OF CASES

If the assigned investigator has reason to believe the case is without merit, the case may be classified as unfounded only upon review and approval of the assigned Investigations Sergeant.

Classification of a sexual assault case as unfounded requires the assigned Investigations Sergeant to determine that the facts have significant irregularities with reported information and that the incident could not have happened as it was reported. When a victim has recanted his/her original statement, there must be corroborating evidence that the allegations were false or baseless (i.e., no crime occurred) before the case should be determined as unfounded.

Search Warrants

615.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

As a general rule, searches require a search warrant. There are exceptions to the general rule, wherein a search warrant is not required as a prerequisite to conducting a search:

1. Administrative,
2. Community caretaking,
3. Consent,
4. Emergency aid,
5. Exigent circumstances,
6. Hot pursuit,
7. Incident to arrest,
8. Probation searches, or
9. Protective sweeps.

In order to search without a warrant, officers must comply with the requirements for an exception as currently set down by the courts. This policy sets forth the guidelines to assist officers with applying for and serving a search warrant.

615.2 POLICY

It is the policy of this Department to provide guidelines for the execution of search warrants that protect the constitutional rights of community members, provide for a high degree of safety for all involved and ensure that searches are conducted with a high level of professionalism.

615.3 DEFINITIONS

Administrative Warrant: A warrant that is served in a police-controlled environment (e.g. police precinct, vehicle processing room, etc.). Examples include bank records, cell phone data, unoccupied vehicles, and electronic devices in police control.

Non-Administrative Warrant: A warrant or warrant/probable cause apprehension that is operationally served in the field. This includes, but is not limited to

- locations that may be occupied, and
- locations where forced entry is possible, and
- It is unknown if persons present are armed.

Though higher risk than an administrative warrant, it does not rise to the level of a high-risk warrant.

High-Risk Warrant: A non-administrative warrant or warrant/probable cause apprehension that is characterized by known or suspected hazards and risks (i.e. armed or potentially armed suspect(s) where there is a likelihood of resistance) to such a degree that the service of which poses a significant threat to the safety of others, or there are articulable facts which indicate service is outside the training and/or capabilities of the involved officers.

Level of risk will be determined by Policy 616.6 - Processing of Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form

615.4 SEARCH WARRANT APPLICATION

Application for a search warrant may be made by any police officer. Search warrants and affidavits will normally be written by the officer requesting the warrant. Warrant preparation will be coordinated with the appropriate investigating unit.

Search warrants are only issued upon a finding of probable cause to believe that an offense has or will be committed. The probable cause is based upon the officer's personal knowledge and/or hearsay information from another officer, a named citizen or undisclosed informant. The probable cause is relayed to the magistrate through use of an affidavit. The affidavit should:

1. Contain a clear and distinct description of the place(s) to be searched and the item(s) to be seized.
2. Provide facts and circumstances which provide probable cause for the search. This includes:
 - A. Information justifying the search; and
 - B. Information leading to the belief that the object(s) of the search are in the places or the possession of the subject(s) to be searched.
3. Affiant/officer's background and experience.
4. Execution details.
 - A. In the event that known officer safety risks present a situation where special warrant execution procedures will be needed (e.g., nighttime execution of the warrant), officers should specifically articulate such circumstances and request the magistrate to expressly authorize law enforcement to use such procedures in the execution of the warrant.
5. All search warrants related to the search of a structure or vehicle should contain the below verbiage:

During the execution of this search warrant, officers may encounter property which may need to be altered, trespassed, moved, damaged, destroyed, or otherwise manipulated in an effort to safely access the premises, avoid detection, preserve evidence, apprehend suspects, and/or otherwise further the investigation. Officers are authorized to interact with property on/near the premises in this manner when no other reasonable means of accomplishing these goals is presented.

This verbiage should be used when circumstances dictate, by placing it at the end of the search warrant, above the signature line area as noted below:

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Search Warrants

"And if you find same, or any part thereof, then bring same and items of identification to identify the residents and residence thereof before the Honorable District Court Judge _____ to be disposed of according to law."

Before issuing the warrant, the magistrate will need to be satisfied that probable cause exists. The magistrate may examine the affiant or any witnesses under oath.

When hearsay information of an undisclosed confidential informant is relied upon to establish probable cause, that information must be independently corroborated (i.e., information demonstrating past reliability of the informant or by personal observation and corroboration). When using information of an informant, members will comply with the Department policy related to confidential informants.

When information from a confidential informant is relied upon to establish probable cause, any information corroborating or refuting the credibility of a confidential informant, to include crimes of dishonesty, shall be disclosed.

615.5 SEARCH WARRANT APPROVAL

Administrative Warrants may be reviewed and served at the discretion of a unit supervisor.

Non-Administrative Warrants shall be reviewed, prior to submission to a magistrate, by a unit supervisor and, prior to service, by a lieutenant or higher.

In order for VPD personnel to serve a warrant outside the City of Vancouver, the warrant must be associated with criminal activity inside the City of Vancouver.

Exceptions:

- Regional Units
- A commander or their designee may approve exceptions on a case-by-case basis.

615.6 OPERATIONAL PLAN/RISK ASSESSMENT

All non-administrative and high-risk warrants require an Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form to be completed prior to execution.

The Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form is listed on SharePoint. Follow this file directory:

SharePoint~Departments~PoliceDepartment~VPDNET~Forms~Service:SearchWarrants-Sis~Risk Assessment Form

The supervisor responsible for the search warrant execution is responsible for the proper completion of the Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form and any other necessary planning to ensure the safe and effective service of the warrant. The supervisor will ensure that the SWAT commander, or designee, is consulted, as required by the completed Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form. This will assist the evaluation for need of Special Weapons and Tactics (SWAT) and/or Crisis Negotiations Team (CNT) in the execution of the warrant.

If SWAT/CNT are needed or requested, the SWAT commander, or designee, will coordinate with SWAT and the originating division/unit commander or designee, to ensure all tactical considerations have been discussed. The original completed Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form, if not forwarded to SWAT as a request for their services, will be retained by the supervisor of the originating unit.

Members will comply with Policy 616 - Planned Operations Risk Assessment when completing the Planned Operations Risk Assessment.

615.7 EXECUTION OF THE WARRANT

Search warrants generally state the period for which they are valid. All warrants, if served, must be done within the stated period in the search warrant.

Before entering any premises, the executing member will knock and give appropriate notice of identity, authority, and purpose to the person to be searched or to the person in apparent control of the premises to be searched. If the member is not admitted after such notification, force may be used to enter the premises consistent with RCW 10.31.040. Before undertaking any search or seizure pursuant to the warrant, the executing member will, as soon as reasonable:

1. Give a copy of the warrant (not the affidavit) to the person to be searched, or to the person in apparent control of the premises to be searched.
2. Leave a copy of the warrant in a readily apparent location at the premises if the premises are unoccupied, or there is no one in apparent control.

Only a police officer may serve a search warrant. In the course of executing a search warrant, the member may take reasonable precautions to ensure that property will not be removed while the search is being conducted and to prevent interference with the search. Members have the same power and authority in all respects to break open any door or window and to use all necessary and reasonable means to overcome any forcible resistance as they do in executing or serving a warrant of arrest. In securing the premises to be searched, the member may seek out all persons on the premises and bring them to a controlled location for observation during the search.

Members of the media will not be allowed to enter private property without the consent of the property owner or individual in charge of the involved property.

615.8 LIMITATIONS OF WARRANTS

The scope of searches pursuant to search warrants is limited to the premises specified in the warrant and only for those items specified in the warrant to be seized.

1. The search must be terminated once all items specified in the warrant are discovered.
2. Unless the warrant(s) authorize the search of a named person(s), a search warrant for a residence or other premises does not permit a search of all the persons present during the time of the search. If there is probable cause to believe that persons on the premises are carrying or concealing items which reasonably could be the objects of the search warrant, those persons may be detained and searched to the extent necessary to determine whether they are concealing items covered by the warrant.

A member may remain on the premises in a search warrant only during the time reasonably necessary to conduct the search for the property described in the warrant.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Search Warrants

615.9 POST EXECUTION RESPONSIBILITIES

Upon execution of the search warrant, the member will:

1. Leave a copy of the warrant and property receipt(s) specifying, in detail, the property taken. This copy will be left with the person from whom the property was taken, or in whose possession the property is found. In the absence of any person, the copy of the warrant/receipt(s) will be left in a conspicuous place.
2. Secure the location if the owner or other responsible party is unavailable.
3. File all affidavits, search warrants and returns, regardless of any associated cases, with the appropriate court. Members will file the search warrant return and receipts as soon as reasonably possible, but generally no later than 3 business days, after the execution of the warrant.

Operational Plan/Risk Assessment

616.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The purpose of the Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form is to evaluate risk factors associated with people, locations and specific circumstances relating to pre-planned tactical operations. The completed Operational Plan/Risk Assessment information can then be used to help determine the appropriate service methods for accomplishing the objective while attempting to mitigate, eliminate or avoid the associated risk.

616.2 POLICY

The risk assessment process outlined in this policy is intended to ensure consistency in the completion and use of the Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form.

616.3 DEFINITIONS

Non-Administrative Warrant: A warrant or warrant/probable cause apprehension that is operationally serviced in the field. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Locations that may be occupied, and
- Locations where forced entry is possible, and
- It is unknown if persons present are armed

Though higher risk than an administrative warrant, a non-administrative warrant does not rise to the level of a high-risk warrant.

High-Risk Warrant: A non-administrative warrant or warrant/probable cause apprehension that is characterized by known or suspected hazards and risks (i.e. armed or potentially armed suspect(s) where there is a likelihood of resistance) to such a degree that the service of which poses a significant threat to the safety of others, or there are articulable facts which indicate service is outside the training and/or capabilities of the involved officers.

Pre-planned: Any event planned in advance of its occurrence. This does not include incidents that rapidly evolve with a very short timeline between notification of the incident and the need to respond.

Undercover Officer (UC): An undercover officer is any law enforcement officer dressed in civilian clothing who is being inserted into the criminal sub-culture and is presenting themselves as part of the criminal element with the purpose of actively interacting with the suspect as part of a surreptitious police operation. A UC is not to be confused with a plain clothes officer acting in strictly surveillance capacity.

616.4 OPERATIONAL PLAN/RISK ASSESSMENT FORM

The Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form contains a compilation of risk factors which either individually or combined indicate a heightened potential for violence, danger or harm as part of a lawful police action. In addition to the specific criminal history or history of violence by offenders and associates, consideration of police service type, location characteristics and terrain are also

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Operational Plan/Risk Assessment

considered. The Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form offers a method of identifying the risk associated with planned police operations and allows the Department the opportunity to eliminate, to mitigate or to avoid those risks through proper planning.

The Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form is listed on the VPD Intra-net.

616.5 USE OF OPERATIONAL PLAN/RISK ASSESSMENT FORM

A basic police function is to complete criminal investigations. Many investigations require the service of search warrants and/or the apprehension of wanted subjects. With the understanding that executing search warrants and arresting wanted subjects is potentially dangerous, the Department requires an Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form be completed during the pre-planning phase of all search warrants involving a potential threat to members or community members. Therefore, the form will be completed on:

- All non-administrative warrants; and
- All high-risk warrants; and
- Pre-planned events where police resources will be deployed; or
- At the direction of a supervisor.

It is understood that officers attempt contact with wanted subjects known to have warrants on a daily basis. Wanted/fugitive information is derived from WACIC/NCIC name checks, distributed warrant lists and other street-level sources. Not every contact requires an Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form to be completed. However, it is expected that initiating officers complete due diligence with regard to assessing potential risks associated with such contacts.

General rules of thumb for when an Operational Plan/Risk Assessment should be completed are:

- The wanted subject's criminal history shows crimes of violence or weapons charges; or
- Occupied location where a search warrant is to be served; or
- The operation requires dynamic tactics (forced breaching with a dynamic entry technique) or advanced team tactics such as a vehicle intervention (vehicle pin); or
- Any high-risk warrant service; or
- An undercover officer is being inserted into a location; or,
- Pre-planned apprehensions of subjects based on probable cause for felony crimes.

616.6 PROCESSING OF OPERATIONAL PLAN/RISK ASSESSMENT FORM

The investigator, or another officer with knowledge of the investigation, will complete the Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form. A criminal history of the subject, previous police reports and other investigative information may be used to complete the form. Officers should initially complete the cover page and risk assessment portion of the form.

If initial risk factors indicate the need for a Special Weapons and Tactics (SWAT) service, the investigative unit can defer operational planning to SWAT.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Operational Plan/Risk Assessment

If the completed Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form has been processed within the division and risk factors do not warrant a service by SWAT, the investigating unit will retain the signed Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form and proceed with planning and executing the operational plan for that mission.

If the Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form indicates the need for a SWAT consultation, the form should be forwarded to the SWAT Commander or Team Leader for review. A consultation between the investigating unit supervisor and SWAT designee shall take place using the completed Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form.

Based on the Operational Plan/Risk Assessment and the information obtained during the consultation, the SWAT Commander or designee will then make a service recommendation to the investigating division lieutenant for the operation regarding the service type and whether SWAT should be utilized during the operation. The recommendation will be documented on the Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form.

The decision to utilize SWAT for service will be a consensus between SWAT team leadership and the requesting unit's command. The decision will be documented on the Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form.

The investigative unit supervisor will ensure the Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form is completed in its entirety. If it is determined that SWAT will serve the warrant, SWAT Leadership will work with the investigative unit supervisor to ensure the Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form is completed.

Once the Operational Plan/Risk Assessment form has been completed, it will be reviewed and signed by the investigator's immediate supervisor or designee. The form will then be forwarded to the division lieutenant for review and signature.

A copy of all completed Operational Plan/Risk Assessment forms will be stored in a designated Department shared computer drive for data collection and retention.

An operational briefing will occur prior to the event involving all members assigned. This may consist of a single briefing, or multiple briefings.

616.7 COMMUNICATION PLAN

All operational plan forms shall include a communication plan that delivers clear and concise language to avoid conflicting commands. Recognizing each operational plan may be different, there is not one standardized tactic to deliver compliance instructions. During the service of a search warrant, officers will provide their identity, their authority, and commands for compliance. Only one person should be giving compliance instructions at a time and ideally one member should be assigned as communicator in the plan with one alternate. Communication plans may change based on the evolving nature of an operation.

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Operational Plan/Risk Assessment

616.8 DECONFLICTION

The day before the planned warrant service, the detective or sergeant in charge of a search warrant must check the target location for simultaneous warrants or investigations by other law enforcement agencies.

Before conducting a pre-planned, Non-Administrative Warrant, the investigator, or another officer with knowledge of the investigation shall contact WSIN for deconfliction.

For a warrant to be served outside the City of Vancouver, the unit supervisor shall contact the local agency having jurisdiction and VPD chain of command.

616.9 AFTER ACTION

- A. Operations Plan After Action Report should be completed after the operation and filed with the plan.
- B. For non-administrative and high-risk warrants, the sergeant or above who was in charge of the warrant service will complete the After Action Report section of the operation plan.
- C. For all other operations, the Incident Commander or designee will be responsible for completing the After Action Report.
- D. The completed Operations Plan After Action Report will be stored in a designated Department shared computer drive for data collection and retention.

Chapter 7 - Equipment

Department Issued Equipment

700.1 POLICY

This policy establishes accountability for the proper use and care of Department issued property and equipment used in the conduct of official duties and provides procedures in the event of loss or damage to the equipment.

700.2 EMPLOYEE RESPONSIBILITIES

Employees shall be responsible for the safekeeping, serviceable condition, proper care, use and replacement of Department property assigned or entrusted to them.

- (b) Employees will maintain all Department equipment and property assigned to them in good condition.
- (c) Employees will not convert Department equipment to their own use.

An employee's intentional or negligent abuse or misuse of Department property may lead to discipline.

700.3 INVENTORY PROCEDURE

Department property and equipment assigned to employees will be tracked through the inventory software system and will be verified regularly. Items valued at less than $300 that can be reused may not be included in the inventory system (i.e., holsters, uniforms, etc.); however, these items are expected to be maintained and kept by the employee and may be required to be returned at the end of the assignment.

700.3.1 AUDITS

Logistics will perform an annual audit by providing each employee with a list of assigned property and equipment that must be physically verified, submitted to their supervisor for review and returned to Logistics.

Records will be subject to audit by internal, state, and federal auditors.

700.4 PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT STORAGE AND SECURITY

Employees must exercise accountability and control of Department issued equipment at all times. While not in use, employees will secure their equipment in areas that are not readily accessible to the public.

700.5 LOST, BROKEN, DEFECTIVE OR END OF LIFE EQUIPMENT

The use of damaged or unserviceable Department property should be discontinued as soon as practical and replaced with comparable Department property. Property or equipment no longer needed or usable must be returned to Logistics for disposal or reassignment.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Department Issued Equipment

Employees do not have authority to donate, scrap, recycle, auction, trade, or otherwise dispose of any Department owned property or equipment.

In the event property or equipment is damaged, lost or stolen, employees must notify their supervisor immediately and submit a Damaged/Lost/Stolen Property and Equipment Affidavit to Logistics.

Follow this file directory: SharePoint~Departments~Police Department~VPDNET~Forms~Service Area:VPD Employee Specific Forms~Lost-Stolen-Damaged Equipment Affidavit to obtain a Damaged/Lost/Stolen Property and Equipment Affidavit

If the occurrence requires a Police Report, the details of the loss or damage to or equipment will be included. If the damage occurred as the result of criminal activity, a notation will also be made noting that restitution is requested if a suspect is successfully prosecuted.

In the event that lost or stolen equipment is recovered, employees will report the recovery to their supervisor as soon as possible.

700.5.1 UNIFORMS AND PATCHES

When a Department issued uniform, shoulder patch or cloth badge is no longer serviceable, the employee has the option to return the item to Logistics, destroy the item so that it is no longer recognizable and serviceable, or kept for personal memorabilia.

700.6 RETURNING EQUIPMENT UPON REASSIGNMENT

Upon reassignment to/from a specialty unit (SWAT, K-9, detectives, etc.) or upon promotion or a reduction in rank, personnel will be required to return property or equipment (badges, holsters, etc.) which may no longer be applicable to the new assignment.

700.7 RETURNING EQUIPMENT UPON SEPARATION FROM EMPLOYMENT

At the time of separation from employment, employees must return all Department owned property and equipment. The items will be compared with the inventory tracking system.

700.8 REIMBURSEMENT OF PERSONAL ITEMS

Generally, only personal items listed on the Reimbursable Personal Items Affidavit will be covered for reimbursement by the Department. This form must be completed and on file with Logistics prior to the reporting of any damaged items. Once reimbursement is made, the damaged item becomes the property of the Department. These items are:

- a. Flashlights
- b. Knives
- c. Utility Tools
- d. Watches
- e. Sunglasses

If any personal items not listed on the Reimbursable Personal Items Affidavit are damaged and need repairing/replacement, the employee may submit a memorandum describing the item, explaining how the item was damaged and the cost to repair/replace the item. The memorandum shall be submitted through their chain of command for review by the Division Commander. It is the discretion of the Division Commander if the Department will repair/replace the item.

Police Camera Program

701.1 PURPOSE

The Vancouver Police Department (VPD) Police Camera Program includes both Body Worn Cameras (BWC) and Vehicle Cameras (VC) either worn by its members or mounted in its vehicles for the purpose of contemporaneously and objectively documenting citizen contacts.

Throughout this policy, the term "Body Worn Camera" (BWC or BWCs) or Vehicle Camera (VC or VCs) is used to reference these cameras. For clarity, BWCs and VCs do not include covert or undercover camera systems used specifically for other investigative or undercover operation purposes.

BWCs and VCs are a valuable tool for promoting transparency in law enforcement by recording community member contacts with police officers. Video/audio footage produced by BWCs and VCs may be used as evidence in civil or criminal investigations, reviewed administratively for employee compliance with Department policies (as set forth below), used as a tool in law enforcement training, and utilized as a reference in incident documentation.

701.2 POLICY INTENT

It is the VPD's intent to use BWCs and VCs to effectively document in-person (non-telephonic) law enforcement related community contacts when incidents of use of force or negative interaction most frequently occur and, due to the nature of the work, is more likely to occur (e.g., patrol, traffic, SWAT and specialty team enforcement activity).

Simultaneously, this policy takes legitimate individual privacy interests into account. Facial recognition software will not be utilized under this program or policy without legal authorization.

701.3 DEFINITIONS

Advisement: Statement made by a Department member that a communication, conversation, or interaction with a community member is being recorded.

Activation: The process that turns on the BWC and VC and causes it to record or to store audio and video data.

Body Worn Camera (BWC): Camera system that captures audio and video signals, capable of being worn on an officer that includes, at minimum, a camera, microphone, and data storage ability. In this policy, VC refers to vehicle mounted camera/audio recording systems.

Employee: In this policy, employee refers to any VPD member, regardless of rank, or commissioned / non-commissioned status.

Involved Employee: Any officer who used or directed the use of force.

Surreptitious Recording: A surreptitious recording is a recording made without the knowledge of one or more of the parties to a conversation of communication and is a violation of the Washington Privacy Act, RCW Chapter 9.73.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Police Camera Program

Vehicle Cameras (VC): Camera system that captures audio and video signals and is vehicle mounted, typically configured with a front-facing camera and a rear seat camera.

Witness Employee: A Vancouver Police Department member who observes or has firsthand knowledge of the events surrounding an in-custody death or the use of force by another Department member and did not use physical force. Additionally, this refers to an employee who observes or has firsthand knowledge of the events surrounding a Department member's direction to another to use force.

701.4 TRAINING

Prior to wearing and operating a BWC or VC, employees are required to successfully complete Department authorized training. The training, at a minimum, will include the following:

- VPD BWC/VC policy
- System preparation and operation
- Placement of the BWC
- Procedure for downloading and tagging recorded data

701.5 EMPLOYEE RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Inspection – Department members shall inspect their assigned camera(s) at the start of every shift. If an employee discovers the BWC or VC equipment is not functioning during this inspection or at any other time, they are responsible for notifying their supervisor and arranging for repairs as soon as practical. Officers will obtain a spare BWC/VC from their supervisor while their camera is being repaired.
2. Requirement to wear the BWC: The intent for this policy is to ensure BWCs are used by Department personnel who have the most frequent contact with the public. This includes all uniformed Department members working in a Patrol / Patrol support capacity while on-duty and serving in this capacity. This requirement includes Neighborhood Police Officers (NPOs), Neighborhood Response Team (NRT) Detectives, Homeless Assistance and Response Team (HART) Team members and Traffic Officers.
 - Non-uniformed personnel, such as Detectives, shall activate their assigned BWC during pre-planned investigative events including but not limited to, residential search warrants, serving an arrest warrant, or those instances that may result in the arrest of a subject. The use of a BWC will be discretionary for interviews with witnesses and victims during ongoing/evolving investigations. It is permissible under this policy for Detectives to exercise reasonable discretion to record or not record events and circumstances in accordance with state law. Detectives may activate their BWC any time they determine it would be beneficial to capture an event or activity. If a Detective works in a patrol capacity, they will be governed by the policy referencing uniformed department members.
 - Personnel performing tasks as part of a specialty team or unit will activate their camera while performing enforcement activities (e.g., SWAT, CNT deployments and/or serving arrest/search warrants, etc.) It is permissible under this policy

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Police Camera Program

for SWAT/CNT or other specialty units not to record either pre and/or post operational briefings, tactical planning sessions or law enforcement intelligence/information gathering sessions in regards to tactical operations.

- Employees assigned to duties involving explosives (e.g. MEDU) and/or personnel dispatched or otherwise present at the scene of a bomb threat are not required to wear or otherwise turn on their assigned BWC/VC.
- Officers shall affix their camera on their person (e.g., the chest area of their uniform/external vest) where it is unobstructed by the uniform or other equipment. This requirement does not include circumstances in which the camera becomes unintentionally obstructed or dislodged during police activity.
- Exceptions to the requirement include uniformed Department members working in administrative assignments (e.g., modified duty, command personnel, etc.) where there is little to no risk of a negative encounter with the public or use of force.
- Privately owned BWCs or recording with privately owned equipment is not permitted.

701.6 WHEN TO RECORD

When equipped with a BWC system, members shall activate the BWC, when circumstances and officer safety permit, in any of the following situations:

1. Prior to exiting their vehicle when arriving at a dispatched call. However, nothing in this policy prohibits the officer from activating the camera earlier.
2. As soon as practical upon making the decision to engage in any self-initiated law enforcement activity
3. Specific situations include, but are not limited to:
 - (a) arrests
 - (b) issuance of a restraining order or citation
 - (c) vehicle pursuits
 - (d) foot pursuits
 - (e) victim, witness and suspect interviews
 - (f) consent searches
 - (g) search warrant service
 - (h) staffing a containment position during a K9 search
 - (i) all enforcement and investigative stops including voluntary contacts and investigatory detentions
 - (j) vehicle stops including traffic violations when possible
 - (k) stranded motorist assistance
 - (l) contact with a person in mental health crisis

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Police Camera Program

- (m) at the request of a citizen when doing so would not violate the prohibitive sections of this policy
 - (n) any other encounter with the community that becomes adversarial after the initial contact in a situation that would not otherwise require recording
4. With the exception of prohibited recordings (Section 701.9), employees may, at their discretion, activate their BWC any time they determine it would be beneficial to capture an event or activity.
 5. If circumstances prevent an employee from activating their BWC at the start of an event, the employee will activate the BWC as soon as practicable. Nothing in this policy should be interpreted as placing the BWC activation over the safety of a VPD member or community member.
 6. Remote BWC/VC activation is not authorized for any purpose under this policy and will not be employed.
 7. Live Feed activation will not be employed except in the following limited circumstance: When previously identified employees, prior to deployment in the field and with knowledge they will be livestreaming are tasked with gathering intelligence during a civil unrest/riot/protest response, and such information is solely used for the purpose of providing situational awareness information to Command Post personnel.
 8. Activation Amnesty
 - (a) No employee will be subject to discipline for failing to activate a camera for any reason for the first month or 16 shifts, whichever occurs later, after he or she is assigned to wear a BWC. Evidence of a failure to activate a BWC during the amnesty period shall not be used or considered for performance evaluations or discipline after this amnesty period.
 - (b) The amnesty period will apply again anytime an employee is reassigned to a position without a BWC for a period of six months or more, and then returns to an assignment with a BWC.
 - (c) Employees assigned to positions without a BWC who work extra shifts on assignments with a BWC will not be subject to discipline for an unintentional failure to activate the BWC.

701.6.1 AUTOMATIC RECORDING

In addition to an officer's manual activation of the BWC or VC, there are automatic recording triggers built into the system. These available automatic recording triggers are: light bar activation, holster sensor activation, CEW (Taser) powered on activation, vehicle rifle rack sensor activation, vehicle door sensor activation, and an officer's proximity to any of the above situations.

701.7 ADVISEMENT - WHEN REQUIRED

Conversations between uniformed police employees and community members that occur during the performance of official duties are not recognized as private conversations under Washington State law and therefore generally do not require an advisement the interaction is being recorded. The exceptions to this are traffic stops and custodial interrogations.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Police Camera Program

- Employees conducting traffic stops while equipped with a BWC/VC shall notify the occupants there is an audio and video recording occurring. This statement should be given at the beginning of the contact, absent an emergent situation, and captured on the recording.
- Prior to custodial interrogation, employees shall inform arrested people they are being audio and video recorded with a BWC. This statement, along with the Miranda advisement (if given), shall be included in the recording.

Nothing in this policy precludes an employee from advising a community member they are being recorded. If a community member asks if an employee is recording the event, employees must answer truthfully.

701.8 WHEN TO STOP RECORDING

Once activated, the employee shall not purposely turn off the BWC/VC until the employee's involvement in the incident has concluded. The Department member should cease recording when their part of the active investigation is completed and there is little possibility the employee will have further contact with any person involved in the event.

If a supervisor is required to obtain a Public Safety Statement, he/she will ensure their BWC/VC as well as the BWC/VC of the involved officer(s) is not recording to prevent compelled information from accidentally being provided to the IIT-OIS Policy 309. Exceptions may occur when recording has commenced and a prohibition (see below) situation follows.

701.9 RECORDING PROHIBITED

The BWC/VC shall not be used to record:

- Anything not involved with official duties.
- Communications with other police personnel while not on a call.
- Communications with undercover officers or confidential informants.
- While on break or otherwise engaged in personal activities.
- While in the jail unless for an in-progress call for service. Transferring custody of a suspect to jail staff is not considered an in-progress call for service. For this section, the jail sallyport will not be considered part of the jail. Recording should end at the point of entering the secured booking area.
- While inside a police station, except for taking law enforcement actions such as: Conducting interviews, taking an in-person report, processing a DUI, or guarding an in-custody person. The employee should announce as they enter the station that they are recording.
- Any privileged conversations, such as attorney-client, peer support or labor privileged conversations.
- During community policing activities where no law enforcement action is anticipated, like Shop with a Cop, Police Activity League events or community meetings.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Police Camera Program

- VPD employees are prohibited from surreptitiously or overtly recording any employee of the Department or any other person in a manner inconsistent with this policy. It is understood that cameras will record the activity of other employees during calls for service.

701.10 DISCRETIONARY RECORDING

It is permissible under this policy for employees to exercise reasonable discretion not to record events in only the following circumstances:

- When the employee is in a location where people have a reasonable expectation of privacy, such as a bathroom or locker room, and the employee is not there for an official law enforcement purpose.
- When consideration and respect for a person's privacy or dignity outweighs the need to record an event. Examples may include death notifications, child or sexual assault victim interviews and a person's cultural or religious objections to being recorded.
- Sensitive communications that include law enforcement intelligence information, tactical planning or safety planning with a crime/domestic violence victim. If these sensitive communications occur mid-call, the Department member shall turn the BWC back on when these conversations are over unless there is another approved exception to keep it off.
- If a community member objects to being recorded, the Department member may elect to record despite the objection. Since conversations with police officers are not considered private under Washington State law, there is no requirement that an employee turn off the camera for a community member who objects to having the interaction recorded.

Prior to deactivating a BWC/VC during a call, and if the circumstances permit, the officer shall document the reason for stopping the recording on camera prior to deactivation.

701.11 END OF SHIFT RESPONSIBILITIES

Employees shall, prior to the end of their shift, or as soon as practical, follow the protocol to label, categorize and upload videos to the storage system. Additionally, Department members shall upload their BWC footage during their shift if the BWC storage capacity is reaching its limit.

- All BWCs shall be docked at the end of the assigned work shift.
 - Department members unable to complete these end of shift responsibilities will notify a supervisor prior to leaving for the day and will complete the process at the beginning of their next regular or overtime shift, whichever occurs first.

701.12 DOCUMENT USE OF THE BWC

Employees shall document in their police report they operated a BWC during the incident. In situations where no police report is needed, Department members shall indicate through Computer Assisted Dispatching (CAD) notes they operated a BWC during the call.

701.13 REPORT WRITING

An incident recorded on the BWC/VC is not a substitute for a complete and thoroughly written police report. In situations that require an employee to write a police report, the employee may not use the BWC/VC video as a substitute for, or basis to abbreviate, their documentation of the incident.

701.14 UNAUTHORIZED USE OF BODY WORN CAMERAS AND VIDEO

All employees of the Vancouver Police Department shall abide by the policies and procedures related to BWCs and BWC/VC video as set forth in this policy.

- Employees may not use BWCs/VCS for non-work-related purposes or otherwise operate the BWC/VC outside their legitimate law enforcement duties.
- All BWC/VC videos are the property of the Vancouver Police Department. Dissemination outside of the agency is strictly prohibited except as required by law and pursuant to the provisions of Vancouver Police Department policy. Any dissemination outside this policy is prohibited without the consent of the Office of the Chief.
- Employees are prohibited from accessing stored camera data, except for legitimate law enforcement purposes, including authorized review as described in this policy.

701.15 DOWNLOADING OF VIDEOS

The only personnel allowed to download BWC/VC videos will be Records staff assigned to public disclosure assignments, Professional Standards Unit (PSU) staff for administrative investigation purposes, Investigations Units for investigative purposes, and the Training Unit Sergeant for training purposes. When a video is downloaded, the employee conducting the download will note in the system the purpose for the download and where the video will be maintained, if possible.

If any downloads are needed from an employee not listed above, a request will be sent to PSU.

701.16 REVIEW OF BWC VIDEO

1. Employees may view their own BWC/VC video at any time in accordance with this policy.
2. Recordings may be reviewed by individuals other than the recording employee in any of the following situations:
 - (a) By employees prior to completing their police report or providing a statement pursuant to an internal affairs or criminal investigation, subject to the following:
 - i. All employees in any administrative investigation will be allowed to view all footage of the incident prior to any interview or answering questions related to any administrative investigation.
 - ii. Involved and witness employees in a use of force investigation will be provided with and allowed to review relevant BWC/VC footage prior to any interview, answering questions or writing reports. The BWC/VC footage viewed by the involved and witness employees should show actions, items or other relevant factors the employee could have seen or heard from their vantage point and could have been used in making

- (b) By any supervisor/investigator conducting an internal affairs investigation or reviewing a reported Use of Force incident. Discovery of other allegations during this review shall require the supervisor to articulate the purpose of expanding the scope of the review. Inadvertent discovery of certain policy violations (e.g., those defined as those violations that would amount to a crime, excessive force, or retaliation/discrimination/biased-based policing) noted during this review, but not mentioned in the complaint or force review, shall be addressed at the lowest reasonable level in accordance with VPD Policy 1004. Inadvertent discovery of other policy violations (e.g., rudeness or procedural violations) should not be the basis of disciplinary action and may be addressed through appropriate corrective action. Any disagreements about the processing of these violations shall be handled between the Office of the Chief and the collective bargaining unit's president or representative.
- (c) By technical support staff for the purposes of assessing proper functioning of BWCs.

If an involved employee objects to showing a recording, they will submit a department memo to the Administrative Bureau Lieutenant documenting their objection. The Administrative Bureau Lieutenant will determine whether other training resources exist that serve the same purpose. Only in unique circumstances should the recording be used after approved through the employee's chain of command and the Office of the Chief. Inadvertent discovery of minor policy violations shall not be the basis of disciplinary action.
- (h) By an employee's legal representative and/or bargaining unit representative who is involved in representing the employee in an administrative investigation or a criminal investigation.

1. In general, videos related to officer-involved shootings, critical incidents, homicides, sexual assaults, and cases in which VPD has received notice to preserve evidence shall be retained in the system until all trial and appellate litigation has been completed. The Investigations Bureau shall be responsible for Records notification under these circumstances. Videos related to unsolved homicides and sexual assaults shall be kept consistent with the State of Washington record retention requirements.
2. Videos related to PSU investigations shall be transferred to a format compatible with Blue Team and made part of the file. PSU will be responsible for downloading relevant BWC footage related to any administrative investigation.
3. All other videos shall be retained in the system in accordance with the State of Washington record retention requirements.
4. Accidental Activation - An employee may inadvertently/accidentally record themselves or others. These particular inadvertent/accidental recordings typically do not meet the statutory definition of a public recording (as defined in RCW 40.14.010) because they are not made "in connection with the transaction of public business" and, as such, may be deleted. In the event of an accidental activation of the BWC, the employee may request the BWC video in question be deleted forthwith by submitting a written request by email, including the date and time of the inadvertent / accidental recording through their chain of command to the Lieutenant or designee. The Lieutenant or designee shall approve or deny the request and forward the decision to the VPD Records Unit.
5. Employees shall not intentionally tamper with, alter, or delete video. This does not apply to personnel tasked with system maintenance who purge videos under established guidelines or who redact videos as part of their duties.

701.18 RELEASE OF BWC VIDEOS

1. For Criminal Justice Purposes: BWC/VC videos may be accessed for criminal discovery purposes directly by Prosecuting Attorneys / City of Vancouver (COV) Attorneys, who have an account in the video cache system. Prosecutors will be able to locate the existence of a BWC/VC video by its reference in the police report and/or CAD notes and a search for videos related to pending cases by inputting the law enforcement incident report number into the system. Discovery of videos to the defense bar shall be made through the prosecutor.
2. To the Public: BWC/VC videos will be made available to the public through public records requests pursuant to RCW 42.56. Public records requests for videos should be processed by VPD Records. The release of any public record involving BWC/VC

In the event GPS or other location capabilities (hereinafter "GPS") are available with the BWC, the GPS will not be randomly reviewed or used for disciplinary purposes, but may be used for operational reasons for the purpose of officer safety, public safety, or efficient deployment of resources.

701.20 BWC LIMITATIONS

BWC/VC recordings provide only a two-dimensional perspective with limited vantage points of an incident. Consequently, no employee will ever rely solely upon the review of video recordings as the basis for discipline against an employee. Instead, the department shall review and consider all available evidence (including witness statements, employee interviews, forensic analysis, documentary evidence, etc.), prior to imposing discipline against an officer.

701.21 PRE-EVENT RECORDING

Pre-event recording is a feature that allows the Body Worn and Vehicle Cameras to capture footage for a pre-determined amount of time prior to the activation of the camera (e.g., the time period the camera records to memory prior to the camera being turned on). The agreed upon pre-

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

event recording time between the respective labor parties and the City of Vancouver for this policy will be thirty (30) seconds video only.

701.22 MANDATORY BARGAINING

The parties agree that the implementation and wearing of Body Worn Cameras/Vehicle Cameras is a mandatory subject of bargaining. Any changes to this Body Worn/Vehicle Camera policy shall be developed jointly between the affected labor organization and the Office of the Chief. However, nothing in this section should be construed as preventing the addition or removal of language regarding body worn cameras based upon a change in State or Federal law.

809.2 DEFINITIONS

Privacy Violation (right of privacy, right to privacy, personal privacy) - An invasion or violation of privacy occurs only if disclosure of information about the person would be highly offensive to a reasonable person, and is not of legitimate concern to the public. The rights to privacy in certain public records do not create any right of privacy beyond those rights that are specified by law as express exemptions from the public's right to inspect, examine, or copy public records (RCW 42.56.050).

Public Record - Includes any writing containing information relating to the conduct of government or the performance of any governmental or proprietary function prepared, owned, used, or retained by any state or local agency regardless of physical form or characteristics (RCW 42.56.010(2)).

Writing - Means handwriting, typewriting, printing, photostating, photographing, and every other means of recording any form of communication or representation, including, but not limited to, letters, words, pictures, sounds, or symbols, or combination thereof, and all papers, maps, magnetic or paper tapes, photographic films and prints, motion picture, film and video recordings, magnetic or punched cards, discs, drums, diskettes, sound recordings, and other documents including existing data compilations from which information may be obtained or translated (RCW 42.56.010(3)).

809.3 PUBLIC RECORDS OFFICER

The Professional Standards Unit (PSU) Lieutenant is designated as the Vancouver Police Department's Public Records Officer and will serve as the point of contact for members of the public when requesting disclosure of public records and will oversee the agency's compliance with the public records disclosure requirements.

The PSU Lieutenant will post his/her name, role as the Public Records Officer, and contact information in the facility conspicuously visible to the public, and on the Department Internet site, and upon appropriate publications so as to provide easy access to members of the public for directing requests for disclosure of public records (RCW 42.56.580).

The Public Records Officer shall complete a training program as required by RCW 42.56.152 within 90 days of assuming responsibilities for public records and complete refresher training as required (RCW 42.56.152).

Vancouver Police Department

Records Release and Security

809.4 PUBLIC REQUESTS FOR RECORDS

The Public Records Act provides that public records created by a public agency shall be subject to inspection and copying pursuant to request, except pursuant to exemptions set forth in the Act or otherwise established by statute (RCW 42.56.070(1)).

The Public Records Officer shall maintain business hours for record inspection or copying shall be posted on the Department's website and made known by other means designed to provide the public with notice (RCW 42.56.090).

The Public Records Officer shall also establish, maintain and make available for public inspection and copying a statement of the actual per page cost or other costs, if any, that it charges for providing photocopies of public records and a statement of the factors and manner used to determine the actual per page cost or other costs, if any (RCW 42.56.070(7) and (8)).

Public requests for records of this Department shall be processed as follows (RCW 42.56.070):

809.4.1 PROCESSING OF REQUESTS

Any member of the public, including the media and elected officials, may access unrestricted records of this Department by submitting a request for each record sought and paying any associated fees. The processing of requests is subject to the following limitations:

- (a) The employee processing the request shall determine if the requested record is available and/or subject to any exemption from disclosure. Processing of such requests shall be in accordance with this policy and RCW 42.56.520.
- (b) The Department shall not be required to create records that do not otherwise exist in order to accommodate any request under the Public Records Act.

809.4.2 PROMPT RESPONSE REQUIRED

Responses to requests for public records shall be made promptly. Within five business days of receiving a public record request, the Department must respond by either (RCW 42.56.520):

- (a) Providing the record.
- (b) Acknowledging receipt of the request and providing a reasonable estimate of the time required to respond to the request.
- (c) Denying the public record request.
- (d) Providing an Internet address and link on the agency's web site to the specific records requested, except that if the requester notifies the agency that he/she cannot access the records through the Internet, then the agency must provide copies of the record or allow the requester to view copies using an agency computer.

Additional time required to respond to a request may be based upon the need to clarify the intent of the request, to locate and assemble the information requested, to notify third persons or agencies affected by the request, or to determine whether any of the information requested is exempt and that a denial should be made as to all or part of the request. In acknowledging receipt of a public record request that is unclear, a request to clarify what information the requestor is seeking may be made. If the requestor fails to clarify the request, the Department need not respond to it.

Denials of requests must be accompanied by a written statement of the specific reasons for denial. The Public Records Officer will establish mechanisms for the most prompt possible review of decisions denying inspection.

Requests that are denied are subject to judicial review and the burden of proof is on the Department to show that the records requested are exempt or prohibited in whole or part by statute (RCW 42.56.660).

809.5 REPORT RELEASE RESTRICTIONS

Absent a valid court order or other statutory authority, records and/or unrestricted portions of such records of this Department shall be made public subject to the following restrictions:

809.5.1 GENERAL CASE AND CRIME REPORTS

Examples of release restrictions include (RCW 42.56.240):

The Vancouver Police Department has adopted the following security measures to comply with applicable laws and regulations and to prevent unauthorized access to the system data and/or unauthorized use of data obtained from the computerized file.

Members accessing or receiving protected information shall ensure the information is not accessed or received by persons who are not authorized to access or receive it. This includes leaving protected information, such as documents or computer databases, accessible to others when it is reasonably foreseeable that unauthorized access may occur (e.g., on an unattended table or desk; in or on an unattended vehicle; in an unlocked desk drawer or file cabinet; on an unattended computer terminal).

812.4.1 SYSTEM SECURITY

1. ACCESS terminal locations have adequate physical security to protect against any unauthorized personnel gaining access to the computer equipment or to any stored data.
2. VPD will establish usage restrictions and implementation guidelines for wireless technologies; and authorize, monitor, and control wireless access to the information system. Wireless technologies will maintain at least the minimum security applied to wired technology.
3. VPD personnel can only utilize ACCESS and CJIS information from secure terminals. A secure terminal is

ACCESS

- any Department owned or approved electronic device, mobile data computer (MDC), desk top computer, laptop, or wireless device used inside a VPD building or police vehicle.
4. If a VPD employee utilizes one of these devices to obtain ACCESS or CJIS information in a non-secure location, then Advanced Authentication is mandatory.
 5. If a police vehicle is left in a non-secure location and no Advanced Authentication is on the MDT, personnel must adhere to one of the following:
 - A. The MDT must be removed from the vehicle and secured in a VPD building.
 - B. A fingerprinted criminal justice employee must remain with the MDT at all times.
 - C. The staff/personnel servicing the vehicle must be fingerprinted and background checked and review the Security Awareness training available on CJIS Online.
 6. A secure location is considered to be inside the secured area in any VPD police building or police vehicle.

The source documents used for hit confirmation may be electronic if the agency has implemented the proper controls for electronic documents supporting WACIC/NCIC records.

A confirmed hit can be adequate grounds to arrest the wanted person, detain the missing person, seize the stolen property, or charge the subject with violating a protection order, etc.

When an agency receives a record(s) in response to an inquiry, and no enforcement action is contemplated or possible because of extenuating circumstances, the hit should not be confirmed, and the record must not be located.

A copy of the Addendum must be provided to the ACCESS Section.

ACCESS

812.10 MISUSE OF THE ACCESS SYSTEM

The ACCESS System shall only be used for official law enforcement business. The Vancouver Police Department will investigate allegations of ACCESS misuse. Examples of misuse include:

- Running criminal history for yourself, family or friends.
- Running information for a civilian or non-criminal justice employee for non-law enforcement use.
- Using the system for any personal reasons.
- “Visiting” or sending inappropriate administrative messages across a mobile data terminal (MDT) ACCESS connection

Users do not have to disseminate information in order to be in violation. Accessing CJIS data for personal reasons is prohibited by state and federal law.

Violations of the rules, regulations, policies, or procedures developed by NCIC and adopted by the Washington State Patrol or any other misuse or abuse of the ACCESS system may result in agency disciplinary measures and/or criminal prosecution.

812.10.1 REPORTING ACCESS/NCIC VIOLATIONS

- (a) If the Department initiates an internal investigation for ACCESS misuse, the PSU Lieutenant or designee must immediately notify the Department’s TAC. The TAC then must submit an ACCESS Violation Incident Report to the ACCESS Manager at the Washington State Patrol.
- (b) Whether the allegations are sustained or unfounded, the TAC must again be advised in order to notify the ACCESS manager of the investigation’s outcome.
- (c) If the allegations are sustained, the Vancouver Police Department will choose the level of internal discipline.

ACCESS

The Washington State Patrol may work in conjunction with the Department to impose additional sanctions if warranted. This may include, but not limited to, additional training, revocation of individual certification, or termination of system access to the Department.

- (d) Even if the allegations are unfounded, the Washington State Patrol will then determine if there was indeed any violation of the ACCESS/NCIC system.

Computers and Digital Evidence

813.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy establishes procedures for the seizure and storage of computers, personal communications devices (PCDs), digital cameras, digital recorders and other electronic devices that are capable of storing digital information; and for the preservation and storage of seized digital evidence. All evidence seized and/or processed pursuant to this policy shall be done so in compliance with clearly established Fourth Amendment and search and seizure provisions.

This policy does not address the disposition of recordings by body worn cameras or those created in compliance with mandatory electronic recording requirements.

813.2 SEIZING COMPUTERS AND RELATED EVIDENCE

Computer equipment requires specialized training and handling to preserve its value as evidence. Officers should be aware of the potential to destroy information through careless or improper handling, and utilize the most knowledgeable available resources. When seizing a computer and accessories, the following steps should be taken:

- (a) Photograph each item, front and back, specifically including cable connections to other items. Look for a phone line or cable to a modem for Internet access.
- (b) Do not overlook the possibility of the presence of physical evidence on and around the hardware relevant to the particular investigation such as fingerprints, biological or trace evidence, and/or documents. To safeguard against the possibility of destroying physical evidence, wear latex gloves when handling these items.
- (c) If the computer is off, do not turn it on.
- (d) If the computer is on, move the mouse or touch any key to awake the computer.
 1. Photograph the screen, if possible, and note any programs or windows that appear to be open and running.
 - (a) If it appears there is any program open and running, do not do anything with the computer and immediately contact any member of the Digital Evidence Cybercrime Unit (DECU) for assistance and instruction.
 - (b) If it does not appear any program is running, disconnect the power cable from the back of the computer box or if a portable notebook style, disconnect and power cable from the case and remove the battery.
- (e) Label each item with case number, evidence sheet number, and item number.
- (f) Handle and transport the computer and storage media (e.g., tape, discs, memory cards, flash memory, external drives) with care so that potential evidence is not lost.
- (g) Lodge all computer items in the Property Room. Do not store computers where normal room temperature and humidity is not maintained.
- (h) At minimum, officers should document the following in related reports:
 1. Where the computer was located and whether or not it was in operation.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Computers and Digital Evidence

2. Who was using it at the time.
 3. Who claimed ownership.
 4. If it can be determined, how it was being used.
- (i) In most cases when a computer is involved in criminal acts and is in the possession of the suspect, the computer itself and all storage devices (hard drives, tape drives, and disk drives) should be seized along with all media. Accessories (printers, monitors, mouse, scanner, keyboard, cables, software and manuals) should not be seized unless as a precursor to forfeiture.
 - (j) Since most laptops have proprietary power cords, seize the power cord as well as the laptop being taken as evidence.

813.2.1 BUSINESS OR NETWORKED COMPUTERS

If the computer belongs to a business or is part of a network, it may not be feasible to seize the entire computer. Cases involving networks require specialized handling. Officers should contact a certified forensic computer examiner for instructions or a response to the scene.

It may be possible to perform an on-site inspection, or to image the hard drive only of the involved computer. This should only be done by someone specifically trained in processing computers for evidence.

813.2.2 FORENSIC EXAMINATION OF COMPUTERS

If an examination of the contents of the computer's hard drive, or floppy disks, compact discs, or any other storage media is required, forward the following items to a computer forensic examiner:

- (a) Copy of report(s) involving the computer, including the Evidence/Property sheet.
- (b) Copy of a consent to search form signed by the computer owner or the person in possession of the computer, or a copy of a search warrant authorizing the search of the computer hard drive for evidence relating to investigation.
- (c) A listing of the items to search for (e.g., photographs, financial records, e-mail, documents) including any known relevant "keywords" such as victim's names, addresses, credit card numbers or other information related to the investigation.
- (d) A forensic copy of a drive or disk will be made using a forensic computer and a forensic software program by someone trained in the examination of computer storage devices for evidence.

813.3 SEIZING DIGITAL STORAGE MEDIA

Digital storage media (e.g., hard discs, floppy discs, CDs, DVDs, tapes, memory cards, flash memory devices) should be seized and stored in a manner that will protect them from damage.

- (a) Do not review, access or open digital files prior to submission.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Computers and Digital Evidence

- (b) Many kinds of storage media can be erased or damaged by magnetic fields. Keep all media away from magnetic devices, electric motors, radio transmitters or other sources of magnetic fields.
- (c) Do not leave storage media where they would be subject to excessive heat such as in a parked vehicle on a hot day.
- (d) Use plastic cases designed to protect the media, or other protective packaging, to prevent damage. Then place the item into the appropriate size paper evidence envelope for submission into property.

813.4 SEIZING PERSONAL COMMUNICATION DEVICES

Personal communication devices (PCD) such as cell phones or other hand-held devices connected to any communication network must be handled with care to preserve evidence that may be on the device including messages, stored data and/or images.

- (a) Officers should not attempt to access, review or search the contents of such devices prior to examination by a forensic expert. Unsent messages can be lost, data can be inadvertently deleted and incoming messages can override stored messages.
- (b) If unable to turn the device off, either place the item into "airplane" mode or remove the battery.
- (c) When seizing the devices, also seize the charging units and keep them plugged in to the chargers until they can be examined. If the batteries go dead all the data may be lost.
- (d) If possible, obtain any pass codes or pattern locks.

813.5 DIGITAL EVIDENCE RECORDED BY OFFICERS

Officers handling and submitting recorded and digitally stored evidence from digital cameras and audio or video recorders will comply with these procedures to ensure the integrity and admissibility of such evidence.

When confronted with a case where they are unsure how to proceed with the collection of any type of digital evidence, officers should contact a member of the Digital Evidence Cybercrime Unit (DECU) for assistance.

813.5.1 COLLECTION OF DIGITAL EVIDENCE

Photographs of evidence taken by members of VPD shall be done with either a Department issued digital camera or their Department issued cell phone. Officers should not use their personal devices to take photographs since the devices could be subject to seizure at a later time.

Photographs of evidence taken with digital cameras should be uploaded to the RMS. Once uploaded, they can be deleted from the camera or phone used to take the photos.

813.5.2 ADULT NUDITY OR PORNOGRAPHY

If evidence photographs involve any type of adult nudity or pornography, the photographs should generally not be uploaded into the RMS but instead placed on a digital media device and submitted

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Computers and Digital Evidence

into evidence. This will prevent others from viewing the photos. If there is a need for a Department member to see the photos, they will have to contact evidence staff to arrange the transfer of the evidence.

a. Members should never have any type of images depicting adult nudity or pornography of any kind sent to them via email, nor should they ever send these types of images over email themselves.

813.5.3 CHILD PORNOGRAPHY

Child pornography, or photos of child pornography taken in the field by a Department member should not be uploaded into the RMS. Instead, photographs will be downloaded from the camera to removable storage media (e.g., SD card, flash drive, CD Rom) and placed into evidence. The outside of the evidence envelope should have a marking indicating that there is child pornography on the media.

a. Members should never have any type of images depicting child pornography of any kind sent to them via email, nor should they ever send these types of images over email themselves.

813.5.4 CLOUD BASED STORAGE

Officers confronted with a case where criminal evidence is found in an email or in a cloud-based storage site (e.g., Microsoft One Drive, Dropbox, Google Drive, etc.) have the following options:

a. Seize the computer the email or cloud storage is being accessed on and place into evidence following the evidence seizure criteria outlined in this policy.

b. Take photographs of the photos that are present on the screen, then later download onto a media storage device or upload into the RMS as appropriate.

c. Obtain all relevant information regarding the email or cloud storage account the child pornography is located on and, if appropriate, obtain a signed consent for its examination. Relevant information includes:

1. Account type (e.g., email, cloud storage, etc.),
2. Account name,
3. Account owner,
4. Logins, and;
5. Passwords.

Officers should take steps to preserve the account from tampering/destruction by sending a preservation letter to the appropriate Electronic Service Provider. If members are unsure how to complete this task, they should consult a member of the Digital Evidence Cybercrime Unit (DECU) for assistance.

1003.7 EMPLOYEE FEEDBACK

Candidates are encouraged to seek constructive feedback regarding their performance during the examination process by:

1. Requesting information regarding strengths and areas that could be improved from the raters and decision-makers. Strengths and areas for improvement may involve performance during the exam process or in an employee's work performance, experience, training, or other job related issue that was considered during the promotional process.
2. Reviewing exam information provided that information may not be reviewed between the time the exam schedule is approved by the Civil Service Commission and the exam. "Exam information" includes written exams and exam answer keys, and rater comments from the interview panels or other assessment. "Exam information" does not include rater names or a right to review the actual written rater notes.

Sick Leave and Modified Duty

1007.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy provides general guidance regarding the use and processing of sick leave and modified duty. The accrual and terms of use of sick leave for eligible employees are detailed in the City personnel manual (211 Sick leave/Short-Term Disability) or applicable labor agreement.

This policy is not intended to cover all types of sick or other leaves. For example, employees may be entitled to additional paid or unpaid leave for certain family and medical reasons as provided for in the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) or the Washington Family Leave Act (FLA)(29 USC 2601 et seq.; RCW 49.78.220 et seq)

1007.2 POLICY

It is the policy of the Vancouver Police Department to provide eligible employees with a sick leave benefit.

1007.2.1 DEFINITIONS

Planned Vacancy - A vacancy for which an employee give notice at least 24 hours prior to the start of the shift.

Unplanned Vacancy - A vacancy fo which notice is given less than 24 hours before the normally scheduled start of the shift.

1007.3 USE OF SICK LEAVE

Sick leave is intended to be used for qualified absences (RCW 49.46.210). Sick leave is not considered vacation. The Department may also provide opportunities for employees to work in temporary modified duty status if they are unable to perform the full scope of their job duties due to on or off duty injury or illness.

Employees on sick leave shall not engage in other employment or self-employment or participate in any sport, hobby, recreational activity or other activity that may impede recovery from the injury or illness (see the Outside Employment Policy -1038).

1007.3.1 NOTIFICATION

All employees should notify the Shift Sergeant or appropriate supervisor as soon as they are aware that they will not be able to report to work. If, due to an emergency, the employee is unable to contact the supervisor, every effort should be made to have a representative for the employee contact the supervisor (WAC 296-128-650).

When the necessity to be absent from work is foreseeable, such as planned medical appointments or treatments, the employee shall, whenever possible and practicable, provide the Department with no less than 10 day notice of the impending absence (WAC 296-128-650).

Upon return to work, employees are responsible for ensuring their time off was appropriately accounted for, and for completing and submitting the required documentation describing the type of time off used and the specific amount of time taken.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Sick Leave and Modified Duty

Failure to report to work for three consecutive days or shifts for which the employee is scheduled to work, without receiving authorization, may be considered a voluntary resignation for reasons of job abandonment.

1007.4 EXTENDED ABSENCE / FREQUENT ABSENCE

For absences exceeding three days, an employer may require verification that an employee's use of paid sick leave is for an authorized purpose. If an employer requires verification, verification must be provided to the employer within a reasonable time period during or after the leave. An employer's requirements for verification may not result in an unreasonable burden or expense on the employee, and may not exceed privacy or verification requirements otherwise established by law. (RCW 49.46.210)

The City recognizes that each individual situation is different, and the requirements of each job position is different. The City will consider all the circumstances of each situation, and the effect it has on the workgroup and/or work product.

Factors a manager may consider in determining whether poor attendance is an issue include, but are not limited to, the following:

- A pattern of tardiness or absences that disrupts the flow of work, burdens co-workers with extra tasks, lowers morale, increases labor costs or adversely affects the quality of services;
- A pattern of tardiness or absences the day before and/or the day after a holiday or days off;
- A pattern of tardiness or absences on scheduled work weekends, Saturdays, Sundays and/or holidays;
- A pattern of tardiness or absences the day after payday; or
- A pattern of calling in sick as rapidly as sick time is accrued.

If there is a reasonable concern about an employee's ability to return to work or to perform their essential job functions, the Department may request a fit for duty examination be conducted.

1007.5 ELIGIBILITY FOR MODIFIED / LIGHT DUTY

The Department may offer an employee a modified/light duty assignment if a suitable and available assignment exists. The Department will determine the type of work that is suitable according to the medical documentation and work that is available within the Department.

1. Modified duty is considered temporary, and normally does not exceed six months.
2. Employees are only eligible for modified/light duty assignments if the employee is in a regular full time or part time position, the employee has a short term injury or illness that prevents them from performing the full scope of their job duties, and the employee is expected to recover from the injury or illness and return to full job duties.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Sick Leave and Modified Duty

An employee who is medically released for, and offered light duty, but chooses not to accept the assignment, will use their allotted sick time instead.

Failure to provide timely notification of release to return to work may result in loss of pay and/or benefits.

1007.6 WORKERS' COMPENSATION

Employees may use accrued sick leave hours on the date of injury and the three consecutive days following. On the fourth day, employees are considered on "time loss" and entitled to Workers' Compensation time loss benefits. Employees may use accrued leave hours to supplement the time loss payment up to their base salary.

Prior to modified duty being approved, the employee must provide medical documentation from his/her treating physician which states that the employee is unable to perform the essential duties of his/her current position but may be able to work a modified duty assignment. The documentation should identify the specific physical limitations or restrictions. Modified duty is considered temporary and normally does not exceed six months. An employee who is medically released for and offered light duty, but chooses not to accept the assignment, will not be entitled to further time loss benefits.

For additional information see applicable CBAs: <http://cvsharepoint/departments/HR/Pages/EmpLaborRelations.aspx>

1007.7 TRAINING

Employees must obtain authorization from a supervisor prior to attending training during medical leave. Authorization may only be provided if it is consistent with the information obtained from the employee's treating physician.

1007.8 SUPERVISOR RESPONSIBILITIES

The responsibilities of supervisors include, but are not limited to:

Monitoring and regularly reviewing the attendance of those under their command to ensure that the use of sick leave and absences is consistent with this policy. If deemed necessary, advise their supervisor of the amount of sick leave being used in order to ensure proper staffing.

Monitor the use of overtime being worked if the employee is using sick time during their normal shift or work duty, and if appropriate, limit overtime and collateral duty assignments.

When appropriate, counseling employees regarding inappropriate use of sick leave.

Referring eligible employees to an available employee assistance program when appropriate.

Notify employee that they may be eligible for additional leave programs (FMLA, WFLA, etc.) and should contact Human Resources.

Ensure no retaliation or discrimination against an employee for using leave for authorized purposes under this policy (RCW 49.46.210)

Body Armor and Helmets

1013.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

Soft body armor vests and ballistic helmets have been shown to be effective in reducing deaths and serious injuries. This policy outlines the requirements for use of the protective vests and helmets.

1013.2 POLICY

The Department provides soft body armor and ballistic helmets for officers and Police Service Technicians (PST) assigned to patrol in an effort to ensure that personnel engaged in uniformed field duties or high-risk situations are wearing necessary protective equipment. While body armor and helmets provide a significant level of protection, it is not a substitute for the observance of officer safety procedures.

(Police Service Technicians assigned to patrol will only be issued soft body armor.)

1013.3 AUTHORIZED BODY ARMOR AND HELMET

Body armor and helmets must be either Department issued or Department approved. The Department will replace the protective vests and helmets according to manufacturer recommendations.

1013.3.1 EXTERNAL VEST CARRIER

Officers are authorized to wear an optional external vest carrier for soft body armor after being fitted and trained on use of the vest.

VPD recognizes that a standardized configuration of the external vest carrier may not be appropriate for all personnel due to variations in body types. VPD authorizes officers to wear certain equipment on an external vest carrier with the following guidelines:

- a. All pouches must be affixed to the external carrier utilizing a load-bearing system that is compatible with and designed for use with the integrated nylon webbing, i.e., M.O.L.L.E./PALS.
- b. All pouches affixed to the carrier must be black or patrol blue in color.
- c. The following items must be affixed to the vest:
 1. Badge or badge patch
 2. Name tape
 3. "Police" patch (front and back)
- d. The following items may be worn:
 1. Department issued equipment, such as handcuffs, Taser, OC spray, radio and ammunition magazines
 2. Flashlight

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Body Armor and Helmets

3. First-aid medical equipment, such as trauma shears, tourniquet or gauze
4. Utility pouch
5. Patrol knife
6. Cell phone
7. Keys
8. Pens
9. American flag patch (2"x3", subdued silver, red & blue w/no other design, insignia or logo)

Carrier attachments shall not obstruct or impede access to firearm, Taser, magazines or radio.

In order to maintain the ability to properly identify as the police and insure professional appearance, all visible items attached to the external carrier should be muted and/or subdued in color. Attached items should not be brightly colored, excessive or detract from a professional appearance.

Officers are required to perform a weak hand draw with a Taser. Therefore, the Taser must be placed on the vest so the officer can perform a weak-hand draw. Transitioning to the strong hand after drawing with the weak hand is allowed.

Employees may not carry any other item, tool or piece of equipment on an external vest carrier unless specifically authorized by policy or by the Chief of Police or designee.

Officers must wear a Department issued or authorized shirt under an external carrier.

An external carrier vest may be removed when in a police facility or other secured facility with no public access.

1013.4 ISSUANCE OF BODY ARMOR AND HELMET

The Police Resource Technician shall ensure that body armor and a ballistic helmet is issued to all officers and Police Service Technicians assigned to patrol when they begin service at the Vancouver Police Department and that, when issued, the body armor and helmet meets or exceeds the standards of the National Institute of Justice. Prior to being issued body armor, each person will be fitted by a manufacturer/sales representative to assure proper fit.

The Police Resource Technician shall establish a body armor and helmet replacement schedule based on the manufacturer's recommended replacement schedule and ensure that replacement body armor and helmets are issued whenever the body armor or helmet become worn or damaged to the point that its effectiveness or functionality has been compromised.

(Police Service Technicians assigned to patrol will only be issued soft body armor.)

1013.4.1 USE OF SOFT BODY ARMOR AND HELMETS

Generally, the use of body armor is required subject to the following:

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

- (d) An officer may be excused from wearing body armor when he/she is involved in undercover or plainclothes work that his/her supervisor determines could be compromised by wearing body armor, or when a supervisor determines that other circumstances make it inappropriate to mandate wearing body armor.

If feasible, officers are required to wear a helmet in the following circumstances:

- a. During pre-planned tactical and other high-risk situations.
- b. Whenever a patrol rifle or shotgun is deployed by the officer.

Vests and helmets must be accessible to all sworn personnel during working hours.

1013.4.2 CARE AND MAINTENANCE OF SOFT BODY ARMOR AND HELMETS

Soft body armor and helmets should be stored, cared for and cleaned pursuant to the manufacturer's care instructions provided with the equipment. The instructions can be found on labels located on the external surface of each ballistic panel or within the packing material. The armor carrier should also have a label that contains care instructions. Failure to follow these instructions may damage the ballistic performance capabilities.

Hours of Work and Overtime Scheduling

1022.1 POLICY

The Vancouver Police Department utilizes an electronic scheduling system to schedule regular work hours, training hours, overtime hours, special deployments, leave hours and to backfill vacant shifts for all personnel. The time entered in the system is the record of the employee's hours worked.

1022.2 DEFINITIONS

Planned Vacancy - A vacancy for which an employee gives notice at least 24 hours prior to the start of the shift.

Unplanned Vacancy - A vacancy for which notice is given less than 24 hours before the normally scheduled start of the shift.

Special Deployment - A working opportunity not part of the employee's regular shift assignment such as school events, traffic emphasis and special details.

1022.3 EMPLOYEE RESPONSIBILITY

All VPD personnel are responsible for maintaining and ensuring the accuracy of their own calendar in the scheduling system as follows:

1. Employees are responsible for making accurate entries and the appropriate notes when changes to their normal work schedule occur. Employees are also responsible for monitoring their leave banks (Vacation, PTO, Comp and Sick), and shall have sufficient leave balances available prior to taking Vacation, PTO, Comp or Sick leave. Employees will submit and obtain supervisor approval for anticipated leave in advance as required by policy and/or applicable collective bargaining agreements (CBAs). Examples include, but are not limited to, the following:
 - (a) Personal/Other Leave (vacation, military, bereavement, comp time etc.)
 - (b) All requests for paid days off, with the exception of actual, sudden and temporary illness, will be submitted at least five (5) working days in advance of the absence and shall be in accordance with established departmental practice. Requests may be submitted with less than the required notice when agreed to by the immediate supervisor. VPD Policy 1012.3.1
 - (c) Sick Leave:
 - i. If a member is unable to report for work due to illness or injury, the employee shall notify his/her immediate supervisor or the on-duty supervisor as soon as possible prior to the regularly scheduled work shift. Policy 1012 3.1 Notification
 - (d) Training (including regular squad training, specialty training, and other training)
 - (e) Bereavement (employees must enter the relationship of the deceased).
 - (f) Overtime (including a detail code stating what the overtime was for and how the overtime is paid (call back, middle day, comp)).

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Hours of Work and Overtime Scheduling

- (g) Confirmed court (including case number). Refer to Policy 347 Subpoenas and Court Appearances for additional guidance.
 - i. Employee will enter the actual amount of timespent at court upon completion of a court appearance or defense interview, including the case number, and will be paid in accordance with the parties' CBAs.
- (h) Schedule adjustments (should articulate the reason for the adjustment and corresponding date).

The Department payroll personnel will be notified of all changes to work assignments such as change in work location, supervisor, shift, trainee status, or position through the use of a Department Personnel Order.

If an employee needs to make a change to the schedule after the payroll deadline, they will notify the appropriate supervisor and Department payroll personnel.

1022.3.1 UNAVAILABLE STATUS

The Unavailable justification must be listed in the notes section of the electronic entry. Generally, an employee's regular days off does not justify their unavailability. Employees must document a reason for being unavailable on their days off. Regular days off do not count for unavailable.

In the event a member receives a subpoena for a date they are unavailable, it is the sole responsibility of the member to contact the assigned prosecutor, explain the reason for their unavailability and reschedule a date they are able to appear.

For guidance on the subpoena process, see Policy 347 - Subpoenas and Court Appearances.

1022.4 SUPERVISOR RESPONSIBILITY

Supervisors will make every effort to review and approve entries and schedule changes for their personnel by the date required by payroll. Scheduling system entries that are not leave related should not be approved until the event has concluded. If overtime entries remain unapproved after the payroll deadline, payroll personnel will wait for supervisor approval. If leave entries remain unapproved at the payroll deadline, payroll personnel will process as is and send a follow up e-mail to the supervisor for accuracy.

Supervisors will attempt to fill vacancies on other shifts when notified of an employee's unanticipated absence from another shift which will result in a staffing shortage for that shift.

Supervisors will notify the Department payroll personnel of any changes to their employee's schedule after the payroll deadline.

1022.5 DIVISION LIEUTENANT RESPONSIBILITY

Division Lieutenants will review scheduling system entries for their assigned staff when working to help reduce errors and to ensure current policy and Collective Bargaining Agreements (CBAs) are being applied appropriately (i.e., justification is appropriate for the entry). The purpose for the regular review is to ensure oversight, and timely entries to reduce the need for payroll sending an excess of emails at the end of the payroll period.

Hours of Work and Overtime Scheduling

1022.6 DIVISION COMMANDER RESPONSIBILITY

Division Commanders or their designees will follow-up on notifications from payroll requiring additional information to process scheduling system entries from employees within their Chain of Command.

1022.7 DEPARTMENT PAYROLL PERSONNEL RESPONSIBILITY

The Department payroll personnel are designated by the Office of the Chief to audit scheduling system related entries and to make corrections as needed. Payroll personnel will ensure all City and Department policies, and current CBAs are being followed in regard to time keeping issues, and the correct application of scheduling system work codes are used. Payroll personnel will send a follow up e-mail to the affected employee and their Chain of Command, documenting the reason for any modifications made that affect an employee's wage(s) and/or leave account balances. Any modifications or corrections should be made by the employee's next scheduled pay period.

1022.8 OVERTIME HOURS

If an employee commits to working an overtime shift, they are responsible to work the shift or to find a replacement to work the shift. If the employee is unable to report for the overtime shift due to an unforeseen circumstance and is unable to find a replacement, the employee must notify a supervisor as soon as possible.

Employees must obtain prior approval from a supervisor to work overtime.

Schedules may not be adjusted to work voluntary overtime.

1022.9 SPECIAL DEPLOYMENTS

Special deployments may be offered initially to officers and/or supervisors. If the coordinating lieutenant is unable to fill the special deployment by one day prior to the special deployment, the opportunity may be offered to other qualified personnel (officers, corporals, sergeants or command staff) who were not originally included in the opportunity.

1022.10 AUDITS AND REPORTS

Audits will occur every pay period to verify the accuracy of the data contained in the scheduling system. The audit will review pay types, pay qualifications, FLSA compliance, policy requirements and appropriate coding. Reports will be available for analysis of staffing patterns, attendance, leave usage, and overtime use.

1022.11 SCHEDULING OF TRAINING HOURS

Training entries will reflect the actual amount of time spent in class/training or performing class related tasks. If the training course/class requires homework related tasks such as studying, research, or preparing for presentations, prior approval from the employee's Chain of Command is required if it exceeds the allotted classroom time and/or will cause the employee to work beyond their scheduled hours. If scheduled training takes less time than the employee's allotted workday, the remaining time shall be accounted for by either, vacation, PTO, comp, or a continuing of the workday such as report writing, ongoing investigations, or returning to normal duty. If payroll

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Hours of Work and Overtime Scheduling

personnel, during the course of reconciling payroll, discover shortage of hours, they will adjust the employee's time to accurately reflect their hours of work by deducting hours from accrued leave. If this deduction was made in error, or the employee(s) become aware their time was improperly accounted for, they will notify their respective Chain of Command to correct the deduction.

1. Training Time shall count hour-for-hour for the member's regular assigned work. As used herein, the term "Training Time" shall include time spent actually attending City-directed business, training or conferences.
 - i. Example #1- Patrol Officer #A normally works a 10.5hr day. He/she attends squad training (also a 10.5hr scheduled day). There would be no need to account for time differently (e.g., Flex/Training Time would both account for a 10.5hr day). If training ends 1hr early, the officer will need to account for the 1hr time period with the appropriate code (Schedule Adj Working if the employee continues to work and the notes should clarify what the time was spent on) or 1hr Vacation or Comp time.
 - ii. Example #2- Patrol Officer #A normally works a 10.5hr day. He/she attends training that consists of an 8hr workday. In this case, the employee needs to account for the extra 2.5hrs in the scheduling system by use of the work code Schedule Adj Working (if the employee continues or returns to work).
2. All time spent in Travel Status shall count hour-for-hour for the employee's regular assigned work regardless of the day, or time of day during which the travel occurs. As used herein, the term "Travel Status" shall include reasonable time spent checking-in and awaiting public transit, time spent actively traveling, time spent retrieving baggage and/or Department-owned equipment or Department authorized duty weapons, and time spent traveling between the destination airport and destination hotel. The intent is to account for travel time to destination to include such occurrences as reasonable wait time for the airplane or meal breaks for long trips, not personal detours while traveling to a destination.
3. It is the employee's responsibility to notify their supervisor of any time corrections to training entries.
4. Travel time is not authorized for training being hosted by VPD and/or the training is located in Clark County or the surrounding Portland metro area.
5. Recognizing travel by airplane requires time to check-in before the flight, and time to gather belongings and travel to a destination. Generally, this would be up to two hours before and up to one hour after a flight barring an unusual circumstance.
6. Unusual circumstances should be documented in the scheduling system. An email, to the employee's supervisor and department payroll personnel by the officer in travel status to document the reason for extended travel (i.e., flight delay/traffic crash, etc.).
7. If an employee's travel status plus training time exceeds their regular work week, the member shall work with their Chain of Command to flex their time to the extent practicable. The Department recognizes that occasionally due to the timing of applicable Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA") periods, it may not be practical to flex time. In such cases, the employee shall be entitled to overtime to the same extent otherwise allowed by the appropriate Collective Bargaining Agreement.

1022.12 SHIFT TRADE

Shift trade is designed to allow employees leave when they do not have the appropriate amount of leave available or staffing does not allow for it. It is the responsibility of the employee whose shift is being covered to ensure that the shift is covered as agreed. If the shift is not covered as agreed, the employee whose shift is not covered will be required to use leave to account for the time or find another employee to cover the shift. All shift trades will be approved and entered by a supervisor.

1022.13 LEAVE WITHOUT PAY (LWOP)

The use of LWOP must be approved by the Office of the Chief.

All requests for Federal, State or other protected leaves must be coordinated with COV Human Resources in a timely manner as prescribed by law or City policy.

Fatigue Management

1023.1 PURPOSE

The Vancouver Police Department recognizes that research has well documented the fact that fatigue may decrease alertness, impair task performance, and interfere with decision making. The Department further recognizes that excess fatigue may adversely affect an employees' performance, health and safety, as well as their relations with the public and the quality of their discretionary decisions.

To demonstrate that fatigue safety is a high priority, to maintain an employees' safety, and to reduce the risk that fatigue may cause to the community, the Department has set forth guidelines governing overtime hours and periods of rest for all employees of the Vancouver Police Department.

1023.2 POLICY

1. Employees of the Vancouver Police Department should not work more than 16 consecutive hours, including extra duty, in a 24-hour period.
2. With the exception of a major event or rare exigent circumstances involving a prolonged deployment, employees will have a minimum of 8 consecutive hours off duty in every 24-hour period.
3. With the exception of a major event or rare exigent circumstances involving a prolonged deployment, employees will have at least 24 consecutive hours off duty during regularly scheduled days off.
4. When an employee is ordered to appear in court, and that court appearance interrupts the employee's scheduled time off duty or requires the employee to work 16 or more hours during their 24 hour work cycle, the Department will provide leave to accommodate the 8 consecutive hours off duty either before or after the appearance in court. Generally, fatigue management will be used only after an employee has worked 16 consecutive hours or more. However, on rare occasions, it can be granted to avoid a fatigue management situation for an employee's next regularly scheduled shift.
 - (a) An example of the intended use of fatigue management leave in this circumstance would be for a graveyard employee who got off duty at 0630 hours and had court the same day from 1000 to 1700 hours. This employee would not be required to report for his/her next shift until 8 consecutive hours off duty had been achieved, thus returning to duty at 0100 hours.
 - (b) An example of a rare situation where fatigue management could be granted before an employee had already worked 16 hours would be for a graveyard officer who got off duty at 0630 hours and was scheduled for a court appearance at 1300 hours. In this case, less hours of fatigue management leave would be used by releasing the employee at 0500 hours, than by providing 8 hours after the court appearance.
5. When an employee is called out to respond to an unplanned event and has not had at least 8 consecutive hours off duty before being called back to work, the Department

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Fatigue Management

will provide paid leave to ensure that the employee has at least 8 consecutive hours off duty either before or after the unplanned event. Generally, fatigue management will be used only after an employee has worked 16 consecutive hours or more.

- (a) An example of the intended use of fatigue management leave in this circumstance would be a day shift traffic officer whose shift ended at 1700 hours and who is called out to a traffic fatality from 2300 to 0200 hours. Because the officer did not receive the 8 consecutive hours off duty before being called out, he or she would not be required to report for the next shift until 8 consecutive hours off duty had been achieved following the call out, thus returning to duty at 1000 hours.
6. The Department will make sure that employees don't feel obligated to drive home when they feel exhausted. Any employee who does not feel capable of driving safely should notify a supervisor immediately. Supervisors will assist the employee with arranging safe transportation.
7. When an employee is scheduled to attend training or provide instruction, he or she should work with their supervisor and plan for the event in compliance with this policy by using flex time and TX days. Employees attending training as students/instructors should be flexing their time prior to attending or instructing, rather than using fatigue management leave. The Department will make reasonable efforts to assist with scheduling.
8. Employees may only be compensated once for the same work hours. For example, employees who are on vacation, compensatory time, or any other paid time off may not work overtime during the same hours unless exigent or emergency conditions exist or the Department calls the employee back to work.
9. Employees who have taken unscheduled sick leave from their regular scheduled shift shall be precluded from working an overtime shift for 24 hours from the end of their normal scheduled shift. If the sick leave was for a qualifying family member, then the employee may sign up for an overtime shift without the sick time restriction.

1023.3 PROCEDURES

It is the responsibility of each employee to:

1. Monitor his or her own work hours in relation to these guidelines.
2. Notify the appropriate supervisor(s) when work hour issues related to these guidelines arise in the employees work schedule.
3. Refrain from volunteering or "signing up" for overtime hours that would be in violation of these guidelines.
4. Accurately record time entries in the Department's timekeeping software to show the need for fatigue management.

It is the responsibility of Supervisors to:

1. Refrain from pre-scheduling any employee in obvious violation of these guidelines.
2. Make adjustments to the work schedule, when possible, to ensure that employees are not forced to work beyond these limits.

Vancouver Police Department

Vancouver PD Policy Manual

Fatigue Management

3. Evaluate and approve fatigue management leave entries that have been submitted into the Department's timekeeping software, ensuring compliance with this policy and accurate payment to the employee.
4. Manage employee work hours on a regular basis to assure that employees do not continue on duty or begin duty in obvious violation of these guidelines.
5. Manage employee work hours and fitness for duty in exigent and emergency circumstances that require exceptions to these guidelines.
6. Notify the chain of command any time it is necessary to provide an employee paid fatigue management leave to meet the requirements of this policy. Include the reason for an employee using fatigue management in the notes section of the entry.

1039.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy is intended to address issues associated with employee use of social networking sites and to provide guidelines for the regulation and balancing of employee speech and expression with the needs of the Department.

Nothing in this policy is intended to prohibit or infringe upon any communication, speech or expression that is protected or privileged under law. This includes speech and expression protected under state or federal constitutions as well as labor or other applicable laws. For example, this policy does not limit an employee from speaking as a private citizen, including acting as an authorized member of a recognized bargaining unit or officer associations, about matters of public concern, such as misconduct or corruption.

Employees are encouraged to consult with their supervisor regarding any questions arising from the application or potential application of this policy.

1039.2 POLICY

Public employees occupy a trusted position in the community, and thus, their statements have the potential to contravene the policies and performance of this Department. Due to the nature of the work and influence associated with the law enforcement profession, it is necessary that employees of this Department be subject to certain reasonable limitations on their speech and expression. To achieve its mission and efficiently provide service to the public, the Vancouver Police Department will carefully balance the individual employee's rights against the Department's needs and interests when exercising a reasonable degree of control over its employees' speech and expression.

Employees should therefore not disseminate or post any information on any forum or medium that could reasonably be expected to compromise the safety of any employee, an employee's family or associates.
